BOWLER BIT OF ALL RIGHT IF CHAP'S BOPPED ON BEAN

LONDON (AP)—Britons were advised today it's safer as well as smarter to wear a bowler hat.

A Home Office pathologist, Dr. Francis Camps, said it could save a man's life in a traffic accident.

The hard brim and crown of a bowler would help lessen their injuries, he suggested, "filling the same role as a crash helmet for motorcyclists."

ROGERS PASS OPENED

B.C., Canada Tie the Knot

By FRANK RUTTER
Times Staff Reporter

REVELSTOKE—British Columbia joined the rest of Canada today on a ribbon of blacktop that stretches from coast to coast.

For the first time public traffic was allowed through the Rogers Pass section of the Trans-Canada Highway — its most spectacular section.

Premier Bennett and Highways Minister P. A. Gaglardi did the honors complete with grandstand, flag, band and thousands of people eight miles east of Revelstoke.

Pressure? Who Me? Poppycock!

REVELSTOKE — Highways Minister P. A. Gaglardi today hotly denied he had put pressure on contractors to finance the hoopla of the Rogers' Pass opening.

It is true, he said, contractors are paying for the big show.

Mr. Gaglardi said he knew there was a report circulating in Ottaw that contractors were angry at being forced to pay $17,000.

NO ASSESMENT

"That stuff is all poppycock," he said here. "We have not asked the contractors for one five-cent piece. There was no assessment on the contractors. They did it entirely on their own."

Some 20 contractors were involved in the 92-mile Rogers Pass project officially opened today.

They are paying for a lunch for VIPs at the local Chalet dining room, for a barbecue of 3,000 pounds of beef to feed 5,000 people, and $100 for a band.

Mr. Gaglardi said he didn't know how much this cost but the highways department is not paying for anything except grandstands, flags and ropes on the opening site.

T-BIRD LOANED

A $9,800 Tunderbird convertible for the use of Premier Bennett and Mr. Gaglardi, was loaned by Dearborn Motors in Salmon Arm.

Public relations man Bill Clancey, handling the show for the press, said he doubted whether the entire wing-ding cost more than $5,000 to $6,000.

The Highway is open—and it's going to stay open, said Mr. Gaglardi emphatically.

ROAD STAYS OPEN

He pooh-poohed reports that the federal government would close the road as soon as B.C.'s ceremony was finished.

The opening of Rogers Pass was as fraught with controversy as its choice six years ago.

In 1956 the row was about where the highway should go, 92 miles from Revelstoke to Golden through Rogers Pass, or more than 200 miles through the southerly Jumbo Pass.

Today the row is about who should take credit for it.

A host of Ottawa officials were invited to B.C.'s ceremony. But they're not coming. Instead they'll attend a ceremony of their own Sept. 3, 50 miles further east.

PRE-SHOW TRIP

I drove with Mr. Gaglardi and two engineers on a pre-show inspection trip of the highway Sunday afternoon.

He was ecastatic.

"How about that?" (like driving on a cloud).

"Man, that's something," (snow-tipped peaks).

"Did you ever see anything like that?" (glittering glaciers).

"It's stupendous—that's the word for it. It's the most spectacular highway in the world."

His pride and joy skims 92 miles through canyons, forests, mountains.

COST $66 MILLION

Built at an estimated cost of $66 million, it soars to 4,200 feet at Mount McDonald, takes an hour and three-quarters (60 m.p.h. all the way) instead of the miserable, gritty seven hours around the Big Bend, 100 miles longer and on gravel, which was previously the only route through the three ranges of mountains, Selkirks, Monashee and Clachnacudainn.

The Rogers Pass, discovered in 1882 by Major (Hell's Bells) A. B. Rogers, was the first route of the CPR which created Revelstoke. Now, says Mr. Gaglardi, the highway will "really make" Revelstoke.

An awesome average winter snowfall of 400 inches forced

EVEREST TEAM MEMBER KILLED ON SOVIET PEAK

LONDON (Reuters)—Two British mountaineers faking part in an Anglo-Soviet climbing expedition in Russia have been killed, a cable from British expedition leader Sir John Hunt said today.

The cable said the men died July 24 while climbing the 19,785-foot Garmo peak in the Pamir Mountains of Mystery.

The men were identified as Wilfred Noyce, a member of the Commonwealth expedition that conquered Mount Everest in 1953 under Hunt, and Robin Smith.

Noyce, 43, was a writer and was reporting the expedition for the London Daily Herald. Smith, 23, a philosophy graduate, lived in Edinburgh.

17 ARRESTED

Boatloads Of Police Raid Inn

NORTH VANCOUVER (CP) — Police seized 300 cases of beer, dice and playing cards Sunday in a raid on a remote resort popular with tourists for its afternoon teas.

They also arrested 15 men and two women and charged them with offences ranging from gambling conspiracy to bribing an RCMP corporal.

Two boatloads of RCMP took part in the raid shortly after midnight of Wigwam Inn, a picturesque hotel on a scenic inlet 20 miles northeast of here.

"This was the commencement of what was intended to be a very large operation and it was nipped in the bud in the early stages," Crown prosecutor George Murray told a special police court session where bail was set for the accused Sunday.

Three were charged with trying to bribe Cpl. Jack McDonald. They are lawyer Rockmill Myers, William Foulder Robertson and Jack McGrath, all of Vancouver.

They are charged with giving the corporal $1,000 in cash and several paintings and antiques to facilitate the committing of an offence and with interfering with the administration of justice.

SAYS PAINTINGS STOLEN

Mr. Murray said the paintings had been stolen in Victoria and Nanaimo, B.C.

(Art Gallery curator Colin Graham said today he had not had official notification of the fact that police hold the paintings—a landscape, a seascape and a portrait of about $3,500 value—stolen from the gallery July 19. He said he understood they were recovered in excellent condition.)

Cpl. McDonald was to try to raise his status with his superiors and tip the accused when police action was expected against the gambling at the inn, he said.

Bail for Myers was set at $10,000 and at $25,000 each for Robertson and McGrath.

The bribery charge carries a maximum prison sentence of 14 years.

Bail of $5,000 each was set for Bunta Singh, Keith Anderson of Vancouver and Irwin Victor Moore of North Vancouver, all charged with keeping a gambling house.

Charged as inmates of the gambling house and released on bail of $100 were Joy Ames, Muriel Cote, Kenneth Ames, Zolton Bartok, David Cross, Scott Newton, Orville Brill, Lawrence Gordon and Michael Slack.

Twelve Vancouver homes were also raided.

Guerrillas Hold Algeria

ALGIERS (AP) — Algerian guerrilla troops held Algiers today after a bloodless coup believed to favor the quest for power of dissident Vice-Premier Ahmed Ben Bella.

Several opponents of Ben Bella were arrested.

Premier Ben Youssef Ben Khedda and officials of his government were not molested.

PRICE SLASHED

Uranium Sale Made to U.K.

OTTAWA (CP)—The United Kingdom will buy 24,000,000 pounds of Canadian uranium at a price of $127,700,000 under terms of a contract signed here today after protracted negotiations between the two governments.

The contract was signed following negotiation of 1957 letters of intent in which Britain signified that it was prepared to buy this amount of uranium at a price of some $192,000,000. That was based on $8 a pound compared with the new basic price announced today of $5.03 a pound.

Deliveries under the contract, signed by Trade Minister Hees for Crown-owned Eldorado Mining and Refining Limited of Canada and by Sir Roger Makins, chairman of the United Kingdom Atomic Energy Authority, will take place over a period extending into the early 1970s.

CONDITIONS CHANGED

While the letters of intent were exchanged between the two Crown agencies in 1957, they did not become public knowledge until March of 1961. After their disclosure, Britain asked for renegotiation of price and delivery schedules in view of changed uranium market conditions, with a heavy world surplus.

Britain will pay a basic price of $5.03 a pound compared with $8 originally envisaged. However, this figure will rise under a provision providing for premiums and carrying charges to be paid by Britain for deferment of deliveries.

The statement said the contract will have the effect of extending the period of operations of Canadian uranium

$70 Million 'Sell-Out' Miners Say

TORONTO (CP) — Mining officials were critical today about an Ottawa announcement that Britain has signed a contract to purchase $127,000,000 in Canadian uranium.

Steve Roman, president of Denison Mines Limited, which operates at Elliott Lake, Ont., described the contract as a "perpetuation of the tactical blunders of the previous administration . . ."

He said "the immature and irrational concessions by the Canadian government constitutes a sell-out of Canada's uranium industry to the tune of $70,000,000."

Gilbert Labine, president of Gunnar Mines Limited in Saskatchewan's Beaverlodge area, said:

"We're jubilant about the signing of the contract but I wouldn't use the word jubilant about the price we're getting."

Axes Used To Hack Safe Open

Thieves broke into the Humboldt Street liquor store sometime Sunday and stole $12,500 from the safe.

City police say the safe was torn from its mounting in the office of the store manager, and taken to the rear of the store where it was forced open with axes and a sledge hammer.

(Police estimate it would take about 15 minutes to open the 1,000-pound steel box in this way.)

WEEKEND TAKE

A hole was chopped in the bottom of the safe, the dial and handle were broken off, and door was pulled free of its hinges.

The strongbox inside was opened, and the $12,500—the Saturday night take—removed.

Staff was at work this morning taking stock to ascertain whether any liquor had been stolen.

Beer cases and bottles littered around the area where the safe had been broken open indicated the thieves had drunk some beer while they worked on the safe.

Entry to the liquor store was gained through the Empress Garage, 629 Courtney Street.

Letting themselves into the garage—evidently with a key—the thieves helped themselves to some acetylene equipment.

They left the acetylene tanks in the garage, dropped hoses from them through the window to a floor below on the east side of the building, and used the equipment to cut through bars on a window of the liquor store.

HIDDEN

It cannot be seen from the street.

A venetian blind at the front of the store, normally never closed, was drawn by the thieves, evidently to avoid being seen by persons across the street in the Empress Hotel.

"They were pretty cool customers," said store manager George Davies.

Hotel Bombed In Kelowna; Douks Blamed

KELOWNA (CP)—Fragments from a time bomb ripped through the floor of a hotel room here Sunday narrowly missing a sleeping family of six.

The bomb, planted in a steel locker, wrecked the coffee shop, kitchen and two washrooms on the main floor at the Willow Inn five minutes after two hotel employees walked past the locker.

Fragments pierced the floor of the second-floor room occupied by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baillie and their children aged two to 10, from Burnaby.

CHEAP WATCH

RCMP said bits of a dry cell battery and a cheap pocket watch found at the scene indicate that the explosion was the work of Sons of Freedom Doukhobors.

RCMP said many Doukhobors including members of the Freedomite sect come to Kelowna during the summer as fruit pickers. Hundreds of people visited the bus terminal coffee shop at the hotel and anyone of them could have planted the bomb.

Four years ago a similar explosion damaged the hotel beverage room.

TRAGEDY FOLLOWS FAMILY REUION

Cars Crash at Curve: Eight Dead

QUESNEL (CP)—The death toll rose to eight today in a two-car collision that took the lies of six members of one family late Saturday night.

Otto Thompson, about 50, of Alexandria, B.C., died in hospital here today, about 36 hours after the high-speed crash killed six members of the James Paxton family and left two other Paxton children injured, one critically.

Thompson was run down by a car 20 minutes after the crash while directing traffic with a flashlight at the scene of the wreck.

The collision occurred on a curve of newly-paved highway without a white centreline. Police said the highway at the crash scene, 8½ miles south of Quesnel, was blacktopped two weeks ago but the dividing line hadn't been painted.

The Paxton family was returning from a family reunion when the collision claimed the lives of the mother and father and four of their children.

A mother and her two sons were also injured in the mishap which RCMP said was the worst on record in the British Columbia interior.

The victims are James Paxton, 29, his wife Eleanor, 25, their children, Judy, 7; Joseph, 5; Linda, 4, and Wendy, five months, and Alfred Joseph Carriere, about 30, of Alexandria, 25 miles south of here.

In critical condition is Patsy Paxton, 8, while her sister Cindy Lou, 2, was in satisfactory condition today.

Police said the Paxtons were returning to their home at Williams Lake, 65 miles south of here, when their car was in collision with Carriere's car.

Injured in the second car were Mrs. Myrtle Heibert of Alexandria and her sons, Keith, 8, and Darryl, 5.

Wreckage and bodies were strewn along the highway. The car which struck Thompson knocked a parked vehicle into the ditch, setting it on fire.

The Paxtons had been visiting Mrs. Paxton's mother near Quesnel where Mrs. Paxton was reunited with her sister, Mrs. Patricia Stanley, of Cloverdale, B.C.

"We had a wonderful time . . . talking over old times and just generally chatting," said Mrs. Stanley.

the CPR to relocate its line in 1912, avalanches having claimed 236 lives over the years.

Now a series of eight snowsheds—reinforced concrete and steel precast at the site—strategically placed at the most dangerous slide areas, will carry an avalanche harmlessly over the road into the valley of the Illecilliwaet River.

The sheds cost $1,200 a foot, and the longest, Lanark, is 1,200 feet.

RADIO SHACKS

Another safety measure is a series of four highways department radio shacks.

Yet another is the Mt. Fidelity snow-forecasting station run by Noel Gardner of the National Research Council.

Mr. Gardner devised a method of breaking up avalanches before they get rolling by gunfire. Every few miles along the highway is a gun emplacement for 75 mm. howitzers of the RCA to shell snow.

The bitter undertones of today's ceremony melted somewhat in sizzling 95-plus temperatures.

But among the invited who didn't come were Acting Works Minister Howard Green, his deputy Maj.-Gen. H. A. Young, and Liberal Senator Sydney Smith.

STRACHAN UNINVITED

Among the uninvited who would have come was Opposition Leader Robert Strachan, whose New Democratic Party hopes to win a provincial byelection in Revelstoke this September.

In fact the upcoming byelection is regarded as one reason for choice of location and date of today's ceremony.

In answer to critics who say B.C. has no right to hold its own party, Mr. Gaglardi pointed out that the Rogers Pass route was his choice, that Ottawa okayed his ceremony, that B.C. has so far paid more than half the cost of the Trans-Canada in its boundaries ($113 million of $208 million).

Ottawa is paying 90 per cent of construction costs of much of the Rogers Pass section, but the entire highway is supposed to be shared 50-50.

But whoever gets the credit, it's a fabulous stretch of highway, mile after mile of breathtaking scenery, easy-riding road, picturesque picnic and camp sites, and friendly bears.

And Revelstoke went gay for it, turning out the town with a half-day business shutdown, flags and crests on every lamp-post.

After the ceremony held beside a cairn with a plaque honoring engineers and "God-given mountains," 3,000 pounds of prime beef roast were to be fed to 5,000 visitors at Revelstoke school grounds.

Dief May Get Bid to Talks

AUCKLAND, N.Z. (CP) — Prime Minister Diefenbaker of Canada may be invited to join the prime ministers of Australia and New Zealand in early-September talks in London concerning loss of markets which might result from Britain's proposed entry into the European Common Market.

New Zealand's Prime Minister Holyoake said today he has arranged to discuss with Australia's Prime Minister Menzies the trade implications of the Common Market negotiations, and is considering asking Diefenbaker to join in. Inner Six Unite Farm Marketing

BRUSSELS (AP)—The Common Market today took its most audacious step toward integrating the economies of the six partners — the three Benelux countries, France, Italy and West Germany—since the European Community was set up 4½ years ago.

The occasion marked the introduction of the first stage of their Common Market agricultural policy that integrates the six marketing organizations for cereals, pork, fruit and vegetables, eggs, poultry and wine.

The common policy affects some 15,000,000 farmers from Naples to Hamburg, and from Bordeaux to the Elbe River.

Custom officials at all frontiers among the six partner countries are armed with new lists provided to them by the governments, who in turn will receive information for their exchange system, which is based on a single levy.

REMOVE RESTRICTIONS

It means that from today member states have removed all quantitative restrictions in trade in this farm produce and are adjusting their national tariff structures to a community procedure based, for these products, on a single control—a levy that will be variable.

The European commission from today must daily register an estimated 2,000 market prices for cereals in all the ports and cereal exchanges in the world in order to establish the "levy" to be applied to imported cereals.

To this end a teletype setup functions from today in the new streamline building of Brussels' Avenue de Broqueville.

U.K. Hoping ECM Barrier To Be Broken

The Brussels talks reached a crisis point during the weekend over the market's refusal to give written safeguards for Commonwealth trade.

The six have offered what they call a reasonable price policy. The British have turned it down because they feel it is too vague with regard to Commonwealth sales.

5,000 FIRST-NIGHTERS APPLAUD CENTENNIAL PAGEANT

Let's Capture Victoria Story on Film

By NORMAN CRIBBENS

Somebody should make a colored movie of "The Victoria Story" so that it can be kept for posterity as a brilliant record of our 1962 centennial year.

Against a vivid blue-pink sky, the pageant of Victoria's history was unfolded, scene by scene, across a 300-foot stage that flashed and sparkled with life and color.

And a first-night crowd of nearly 5,000, overflowing the grandstand at Royal Athletic Park, responded avidly to the drama of a century.

Many expressed the hope that a colored movie record will be made so that our grandchildren can re-live this notable event.

1,000 IN CAST

More than 1,000 Victorians, drilled and rehearsed by a U.S. company of pageant-producers, marched the road of time from the days of the stagecoach to the age of the nuclear bomb and "The Twist."

It was a fast-moving production written and directed by Dudley Remus, assisted by Michael Rudisill and Sam Grogg, from historical material supplied by Victoria historian James K. Nesbitt.

The big show opened with a presentation of the court of King Charles II of England and the granting of a charter to Prince Rupert—the beginning of the Hudson's Bay Company.

Then the massive stage switched to the arirval of James Douglas and the men of the Hudson's Bay to what is now the city of Victoria.

The Songhees Indians made them welcome and performed a ceremonial dance demonstrating that white man and red man had a common belief in a Supreme Creator.

The building of Fort Victoria—in the breezy, windy month of March 1843—was followed by the arrival of Richard Blanshard, first governor of the crown colony of Vancouver Island.

Next came the episodic "Tent Town . . . gold up the Fraser . . . miners by the hundred moving into Victoria and pitching their tents . . . the bride ship, Tynemouth, bringing fluffy, crinolined girls.

On through Victoria's early years—the 1900s and the 1910s—to the era of the First World War.

TOO HAMMY

Here, alas, a note of criticism. There is a moving scene where the mothers and sweethearts are waiting for the return of their loved ones. All are re-united with the exception of one mother who searches for her son in vain.

The son stumbles onto the stage on crutches, head swathed in bandages, crying "Mother, Mother!"

How much better if he had never appeared; for the episode was so "hammy" it provoked laughter from the audience.

An empty stage would have told a far more eloquent story.

Fortunately, the spotlight moved quickly to a view of white crosses on Flanders Field, with a bugler sounding the mournful notes of "The Last Post."

Then came the Roaring Twenties . . . old cars, flappers, flagpole-sitters, bootleggers, Al Jolson, Charles Lindbergh, and the Charleston.

The Second World War was represented in a pageant honoring Canada's navy, army and air force—and the words: "Pray to God this will never happen again!"

Later . . . a couple of tourists, joking about the future of Victoria, said the Roundabout "gets you nowhere."

FINE FINALE

In a splendid finale, the whole cast marched onto the stage to form a wheel of progress with Victoria as its hub.

After the singing of "God Save the Queen," the audience was invited to light matches to the future and the result was a blaze of light, followed by a display of fireworks.

The Victoria Story will be repeated tonight and every night at 9 during the coming week and is well worth seeing.

Contributing to the show are the Canadian Scottish Regiment (Princess Mary's), the Adele Duncan School of Dancing, the Eagles Ladies Auxiliary, Victoria Girls' Drill Corps, White Eagle Polish Association, Sons of Norway, Danish Vikings, Italian Ethnic Group, F.O.E. No. 12 Rhythmette Baton Corps, F.O.E. No. 12 Precisionettes, the Glenettes and the Blue Birds.

"The Victoria Story" was preceded by the majestic crowning of Victoria's centennial queen, Carol-Ann Howay.

Narrators were Andy Stephen, Bob Aylward, Dick McDaniel, Bob Willett, Adele Goult, Helen Beirnes and Dawn Draper.

19 Killed As Tracks Go Awry

STEELTON, Pa. (AP) — A Pennsylvania Railroad official says the derailment of a special baseball train in which 19 persons were killed and 100 were injured "was apparently the result of track being out of alignment."

"But a definite cause cannot be assigned until a thorough investigation has been completed," James F. Newell, the Pennsylvania's vice-president in charge of operations, said Sunday.

Newell's statement concerning the track being out of alignment was based on first-hand reports given by Howard C. Kohout, the railroad's regional manager in Philadelphia. Kohout directed the salvage and repair operations. Crews worked throughout Saturday night to repair the 1,500 feet of track.

With its main line back in service, the railroad began preparations to hoist the three death cars which tumbled down an embankment into the shallow waters of the Susquehanna River. The railroad will rebuild the cars as part of the investigation.

The train, carrying fans to a National League baseball game in Philadelphia, left nearby Harrisbury—where all passengers boarded—at 5 p.m. The derailment occurred next to the Bethlehem Steel Company plant in this central Pennsylvania steel town.

WAS UNDER SPEED LIMIT

Engineman J.F. Shue of Royalton, Pa., told railroad officials he was doing between 65 and 70 miles an hour. Officials said the speed limit over the straight stretch is 75 m.p.h.

After tumbling down an angled 40-foot embankment, two of the shattered cars of the nine-car coach train came to rest on their sides. The third, its roof shredded, remained upright in about three feet of water.

The cars which tumbled into the river—the last three—were the only ones occupied. Two of the others also left the rails but remained upright. The two, along with three more up front, were to be filled by fans who were to board the train along the 90-mile run at Lancaster and Coatesville.

WINNIE WON'T BEHAVE OUTSIDE OF HOSPITAL

LONDON (UPI)—A sources close to Sir Winston Churchill says the 87-year-old former prime minister "probably is well enough to leave the hospital but his doctors can make him behave himself there better than at home."

Sir Winston, who is recuperating from a broken thigh suffered in Monte Carlo June 28, is a notoriously bad patient. He doesn't like to be fussed over and has his own ideas of what he can and cannot do. He was disobeying "orders" when the accident happened, by failing to call his nurse to help him in and out of bed.

"He is coming along well," the friend said. "In similar cases the doctors probably would let the patient go home to convalesce. But they know that if Sir Winston is out of their constant sight they can't trust him to obey orders."

'Most Modern Navy' Russ Admiral Claims

MOSCOW (AP) — Russia has built the world's most modern navy, its chief claims. Admiral Sergei Forshkov said the fleet's basis is atomic submarines armed with rockets and torpedoes with nuclear warheads.

The Soviet naval commander made the boast Sunday in a Pravda article commemorating Navy Day. Part of the celebration included a television program from the Baltic port of Leningrad showing a submarine that resembled U.S. nuclear-powered underwater craft.

Many Western experts believe the Soviet Navy includes subs capable of underwater firing of missiles similar to the U.S. Polaris.

"The Soviet fleet is now more modern than the navy of any capitalist country," Gorshkov wrote in Pravda.

Soviet Vice-Admiral S. Zahkarov said Saturday Soviet nuclear submarines are faster and more manoeuvrable than American subs.

In another Navy Day article, Gorshkov said in an interview with Sovyetskaya Rossiya that his new submarines have journeyed under the Arctic ice cap, a feat first accomplished by the American nuclear sub Nautilus in August, 1958.

Trud, the labor union newspaper, carried an eyewitness account of missiles weighing "several tons" being launched from submarines during last week's Barents Sea fleet exercises.

Reports of the Barents Sea exercises, which were witnessed by Premier Khrushchev, convinced some Western naval specialists that Russia now has the Polaris-type weapons systems which it has boasted of for some time.

PAW PAW, Mich. (AP) — Three Roman Catholic priests and a 60-year-old woman were drowned Saturday night when their 16-foot outboard boat overturned in Maple Lake in this southwestern Michigan community.

Twins' Deformities Bring Total to 40

By The Canadian Press

A report from a Hamilton woman during the weekend that she has seven-month-old twin boys with deformed arms and legs increased to 40 the number of known cases where deformed babies have been born to Canadian mothers who took the drug thalidomide.

Federal Health Minister Monteith, said at his home in Stratford, Ont., his department sympathizes with the parents but confirmed earlier Ottawa statements that no financial help will be given.

Meanwhile, authorities in the United States said alarm over the deformities has prompted them to revamp methods of controlling new drugs. Thalidomide was kept off the U.S. market by Dr. Frances Oldham Kelsey of the federal drug administration. (Dr. Kelsey was born and raised at Cobble Hill on V.I.)

DENY THEM LIFE?

At Victoria, Dr. Brock Chisholm said a special federal commission should decide whether babies deformed by the drug should be allowed to live.

The former director of the World Health Organization said:

"The most sensible way of dealing with this situation is for a commission with good medical, psychological and legal people to study it and make recommendations to the government in Ottawa."

Whether it would be more cruel to let these babies live than to kill them at birth "should be the subject for a study by the best qualified persons available."

The Hamilton mother, who asked anonymity, said she took thalidomide pills early in pregnancy. Hospital authorities have refused to link the deformities with the tranquillizer.

GEN. BURNS
. . . fears weakened NATO

Soviet Arms Proposals 'Unrealistic'

GENEVA (AP)—Lt.-Gen. E. L. M. Burns, Canada's chief delegate at the 17-nation disarmament talks, told the conference today that Soviet proposals for ending the arms race were "unrealistic and impracticable."

Speaking on behalf of the Western powers, Burns told the conference's 63rd plenary session that if Russian disarmament plans were carried out, the strategic position of the NATO alliance would be considerably weakened.

Burns' speech was described by Western diplomatic sources as the West's answer to a speech Soviet delegate Valerian Zorin made last Friday.

Zorin told the conference that if Russia's disarmament plan—calling for the simultaneous destruction of foreign military bases and delivery vehicles for nuclear weapons—were carried out, it would be impossible for any nation to launch a surprise attack.

Burns said Zorin's proposals would leave Western Europe at the mercy of superior East-bloc forces by requiring all troops to be withdrawn within their own national boundaries.

This means Russian troops would only be within about 400 miles striking distance from Western Europe, whereas the United States would have to transport arms and men across the Atlantic in any operation to aid Western Europe against a surprise attack.

Veteran Ambassador Dies in Netherlands

THE HAGUE (CP-Reuters)—Canadian Ambassador Charles P. Hebert, 63, died after a heart attack early today at his residence at nearby Wassenaar, an embassy spokesman announced.

Hebert had been in The Netherlands since December, 1958.

A native of Montreal and a graduate of McGill University, Hebert had a long and varied career in government. For many years before the Second World War he was a member of the tariff board in Ottawa.

He joined the department of external affairs in July, 1946, and served as counsellor in Washington and Ottawa. In February, 1948, he was appointed minister to Cuba and the following year became ambassador to Mexico. In January, 1954, he was sent to Europe as ambassador to Belgium and minister to Luxembourg.

On With the Farce

IF THE COMMONWEALTH conference is to be postponed, as reported in Ottawa, Mr. Diefenbaker has lost his last excuse for postponing a session of the Canadian Parliament.

It was no real excuse anyway to say that the government had no time to summon Parliament before the Commonwealth Prime Ministers met at London on September 10.

Between the return of the final election writs in July and the first days of September Mr. Diefenbaker had plenty of time, a month at least, to inform Parliament of his policies and to seek a vote of confidence. If the London meeting is not to be held on schedule is Parliament to be kept muzzled until late autumn?

Mr. Diefenbaker is making a farce of the whole parliamentary system which he has always pretended to champion.

First, he tells the nation that there is no financial crisis, no trouble at all. Then, repudiated at the polls, he suddenly discovers the gravest crisis in Canada's modern history and, within a week, has reversed course and imposed his program of "austerity".

Under the circumstances he could do nothing else. But he has imposed taxes in the form of tariffs and revised the national budget without Parliament's consent and does not even know whether Parliament intends to support his minority government.

If he was compelled to act without Parliament's consent in a crisis which he had previously denied, he was equally bound to call Parliament at the earliest possible date and allow it to rule on his policy. Otherwise Parliament's sole right to levy taxes—the basis of our system—is flouted.

Mr. Diefenbaker has flouted it already on the excuse that he must have time to prepare for the London conference where he intends to commit Canada on affairs even larger than the domestic crisis, without Parliament's consent. Constitutionally all this is unique and monstrous. The great champion of Parliament is making a mockery of it.

No doubt Mr. Diefenbaker thinks he is playing a clever game. The nation, he says, needs a "cooling off" period or, in plain English, he means that he is afraid to meet Parliament. He hopes that somehow the government's situation will improve before the session opens.

As a master politician he should know that in scorning Parliament he is more likely to arouse its anger and encourage his government's defeat. For if the opposition parties are worth their salt, if they understand the parliamentary system and do their duty, they will not take this lying down.

Mr. Diefenbaker is counting, of course, on their fear of another election but matters of much greater importance than the convenience of any party are now under way.

In the first place, the nation must decide only through Parliament, whether it endorses a total reversal in national policy. Secondly, it must decide whether the government should remain in office at all.

Until these questions are settled there can be no stability in Canada's business. No Canadian and no foreign investor, can know what is going to happen, what his money is to be worth, what taxes he must pay. Meanwhile the nation endures a humiliating travesty and, unfortunately, doesn't seem to care.

Reading the Quakes

THERE IS HOPE THAT INcreasing scientific and technical skill may make possible a closer approach to agreement on a nuclear testing ban. By reducing its demands for on-site inspection, the West would remove one of Russia's chief objections to this phase of current disarmament proposals.

The West does not have sufficient confidence in Russia's leadership to enter a nuclear disarmament pact that does not provide for inspection of nuclear production facilities and investigation of tremors in the earth's crust. Aerial and surface nuclear explosions may be readily detected and appraised by existing means. But many underground detonations cannot be distinguished from natural movements—earthquakes of varying degree—in the earth's crust. It is this situation which prompts the West to insist on inspections so that Russia could not conduct underground tests in violation of an agreement.

Russia, however, will not permit adequate supervision, and this has been the main stumbling block at the many nuclear ban conferences that have been held.

Now there is a hint that improved detection methods may reduce the need for inspection. Scientists may have become more readily able to tell the natural from the man-made tremors. If so, the gap between Western and Soviet stands would be appreciably narrowed without sacrificing the security which the West must have.

The human ingenuity which creates and improves nuclear weapons may yet succeed in making it possible to control them.

A Slight Case of Bribery

MANY EASTERN CANADIAN newspapers, we are glad to see, take a grave view of political bribery. They strongly criticize an almost incredible sentence passed recently upon Mr. Raymond Bruneau, for accepting a bribe while he was a member of Parliament. An Ottawa county court judge sentenced Mr. Bruneau to two years' imprisonment but then suspended the sentence. In other words, the convicted man received no punishment, except some unfavorable publicity.

The reasons for the judge's leniency are remarkable. He rejected the Crown's request for a jail sentence by saying that it would be a gratuitous insult to members of Parliament and provincial legislatures. Such a sentence, he explained, would be taken to indicate the need of a deterrent against bribery among our honorable politicians.

That is precisely like saying that burglars should not be sent to jail lest their punishment reflect on the morals of the community. Among all the judicial pronouncements in Canadian history this one must be unique.

But the judge's wisdom did not end there. He went on to say that the bribery of one member of Parliament indicated the inadequacy of the amount, $10,000 a year, paid to all members. Bribery must not be seriously punished because our parliamentarians are so poor!

Having refused to insult them by adequately punishing the guilty man, the judge insults them all by inferring that their poverty is some excuse for occasional dishonesty.

No wonder the eastern press is outraged by this travesty. In British Columbia our courts take a very different view of bribery, as the public will remember. It is the only proper view. The Crown in Ontario, it is gratifying to note, is appealing a preposterous sentence and a dangerous precedent.

A Little Less Heroic?

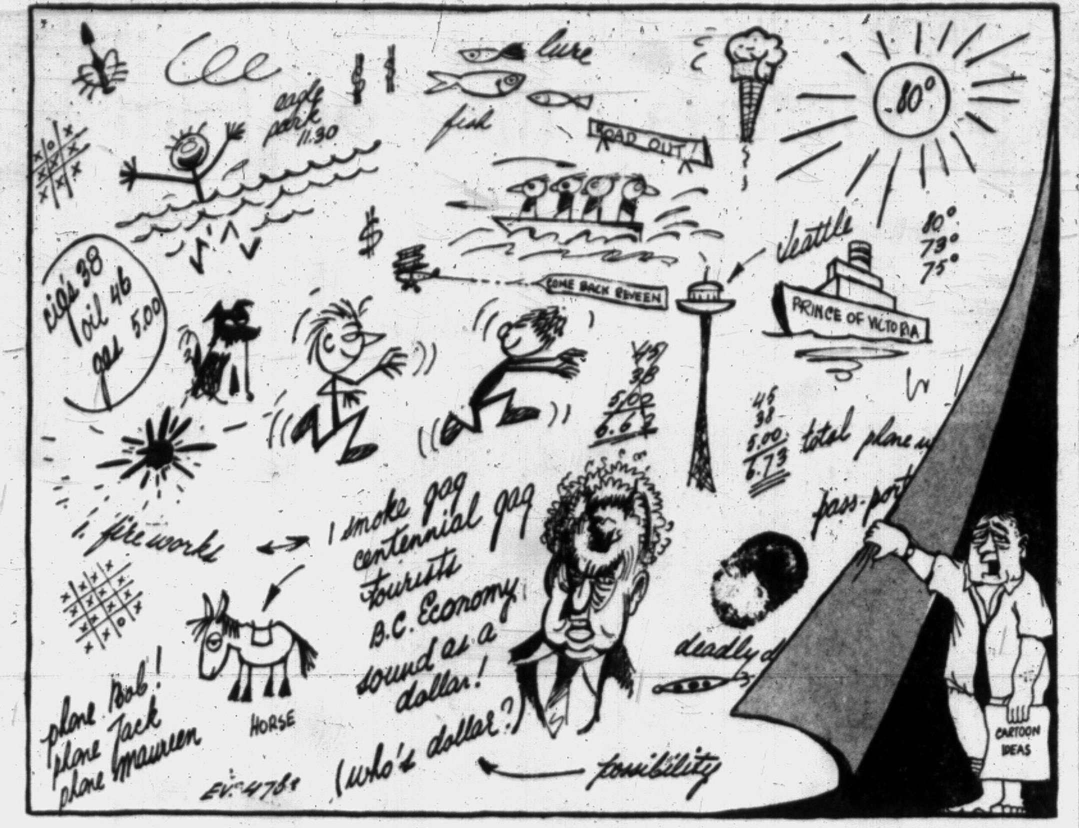
SCOTS HAVE LAID PLANS OF heroic proportions to honor the memory of King Robert the Bruce. They have undertaken a project to raise a large equestrian statue of the 14th century monarch at Bannockburn to commemorate a famous battle.

But there is a wee difficulty.

The statue, plus site preparation, etc., would cost $140,000. So far, from Scots at home they have collected only $22,400. In consequence they have decided to appeal further afield, to countrymen who have migrated to other nations, to sweeten the kitty.

If that fails there is, of course, an alternative. The committee in charge could follow the precedent of Victoria's monument to Robert Burns — a city-financed granite pedestal for a privately donated and very small, though attractive, bronze depicting a scene from Burns' Annie Laurie.

Perhaps for Robert the Bruce a bronze a bit more modest?



Bierman, Victoria Daily Times.

THE PRICE OF PROGRESS

By B. A. TOBIN

If It's Any Good They Stop Making It

Tobin

ALTHOUGH one of the big aims of life in our times—perhaps the biggest—is to achieve security, there seems to be a flaw in the arrangements. We have security for customers, security for employees, security for individuals and corporations. Companies delight to point out that they have been in business for 50, 75, a hundred years, thus emphasizing their permanence and security. And that is all very fine. But what about their products?

One of the prices we must pay for today's progress, apparently, is the inability to go back, after a lapse of time, and buy another of whatever you bought before and liked.

Of course, with some things, we are accustomed to changing styles and products even annually. Cars, clothes, TV sets—such articles change with the years, even with the months. But in other fields we have some right to expect a little permanence. It isn't much to ask, but it seems to be too much for modern industry to provide.

No More

I have an elderly car—even aged by most standards. A pre-fishtail model that is roomy, comfortable, runs excellently and does everything you might reasonably expect of a car. It is in a style which many cars—having run the gamut of useless appendages in the form of fins, phony streamlining and so on—are slowly returning to.

I would like a brand new model of this car as it came off the production line more than a decade ago. I think it would be an excellent buy, and so do a lot of other people. Yet it would be impossible to find one, unless it turned up in mothballs in some eccentric's forgotten hideaway. It seems a pity that modern industry couldn't reproduce one.

During the war, when there was a rubber shortage, industry came out with underwear shorts that had tie-tapes instead of elastic waistbands. I liked the tapes. You knotted them to fit and that was that. They were cool and comfortable. But postwar plenty abolished these preferred garments. The producers went back to elastic—and you had to buy 'em whether you liked 'em or not.

Washed Out

But this was a minor item. Take washers. We have one that has given good service for years. It fits our needs perfectly. Thousands of other people who bought this model a few years ago must have found it ideal. Yet now when a replacement part is needed the answer is: "They don't make them any more." Why?

Keep a can of favored paint in your basement for a few years, awaiting a repaint job, and then try to get another can to match. "They've changed the shade," you'll probably be told. "We don't know why, they just did." At best, they'll have changed the name and the catalogue number so you can't find it.

A few years ago I put some curved, chrome-finished handles on the kitchen cabinets and drawers. They were a pleasing shape, comfortable to grip—an excellent product and one which you'd think would be maunfactured as long as drawer handles were needed.

. . . But Not Forgotten

Recently I tried to buy three more of them to put on additional cabinets, matching the existing ones. I tried half a dozen retailers and finally wrote the factory in Tacoma. Sorry, but that particular handle wasn't made any more.

They referred me back to one of the retailers I'd already visited, however, in hopes there might still be a few in existence. The retailer obligingly searched his stock, looked through catalogues, and phoned other possible sources. Nothing doing. "They aren't made any more."

I was about to give up in despair when I happened to notice that on the desk drawers of the salesman was the very type of handles I was seeking.

Instead of bidding him goodbye I made him an offer, and bought the handles off his desk.

The scheming of industry had been defeated. I had been able to buy something I wanted. That's not too common an experience these days.

And I may go back to that retailer to do another deal. I saw a clerk there wearing a mighty attractive tie . . .

It seems the hard way to do business, but if that's the modern way, I guess we'll have to conform.

Lost Control So Bafflingly in Congress

IN the Senate's defeat of the Administration's Medical Care for the Aged Bill, by 52 to 48, President Kennedy has suffered the most serious injury to his legislative program, to the pretensions of the New Frontier, and to his actual Presidential power.

The inquests today on the brutal smothering, by some of his best friends, of his favorite brain child are technical and whimsical, many and various. All of them are grim. Only one faintly flatters the President by ascribing to him the desperate cunning of wanting a defeat so that he can go to the people before the November elections, wring his hands over a "Do Nothing" Congress, as Mr. Truman did so persuasively in 1948, and beg them to give him a Congress he can lead if not command.

Doubtful Analogy

Mr. Kennedy assisted this doubtful analogy last night by calling in the press, within an hour of the bad news, and putting it up to the voters to decide in November "whether we want to stand still, or whether we want to support this kind of legislation for the benefit of the people."

The grossness of the Truman comparison is so palpable as to delight the Republicans and make a mockery of the Democrats' 1960 slogan, to "get the country moving again." Mr. Truman could fairly point to the shackles of a two-to-one Opposition, the first Republican-controlled Congress since Hoover (the figure of 246 Republicans in the House is still a record for the last 30 years, under any President, Democratic or Republican).

On the contrary, President Kennedy, squeezing into the White House with a mere 114,000 majority in 68 million votes, found himself blessed with 64 Democrats to 36 Republicans in the Senate, 261 to 176 in the House. He was fortune's child, but the Congress has a mandate from the people.

For months thereafter, the Washington wiseacres awaited the thunderous advance of the New Frontier in the certain knowledge that Mr. Kennedy, the Boston politician and ex-Senator, would be a first-class manipulator of Congress.

Grey Truth

The grey truth, being pondered by everybody today from the White House to the John Birch Society, is that so far in this session the President has managed to persuade Congress to approve only 20 of the 285 laws he wants passed. It has killed his precious Farm Bill, his plea for a withholding tax on income from dividends, his hope of a new Cabinet Department of Urban Affairs.

The deafening collapse of the Medical Care Bill drowned out the defeat, in the Senate Finance Committee, of a Kennedy plan to limit deductible expenses on income taxes, and the three-to-two rejection by the House of a plan to use the plutonium plant at Hanford, Washington, to produce electricity.

If the President is impotent to lead or bully a Congress with a nearly two to one majority in the Senate and a five to three majority in the House, where can he go to enforce those vaunted "powers" of the Presidency in his own country? Everyone admits that in foreign affairs any President today is the creature of the armaments race, of the Russian whim, of the seething nationalism of Africa, and the crying needs of the underdeveloped countries. So the Congress, in the Eisenhower and the Kennedy regimes, is sympathetically bipartisan.

But there is no record in modern times of a President who in domestic affairs seems to have lost control so bafflingly of his own party in Congress.

In the ashen morning-after of this bill of divorcement the pundits have a favorite answer. It is that the Democrats are reaping the whirlwind that took Mr. Sam Rayburn to his grave and Senator Lyndon Johnson to the Vice-Presidency.

These two were the prime persuaders, wheedlers, movers, and shakers of their time. Only now, in their absence, can the President taste the gall of having one third of his party turn down his favorite legislative demand. Last week he called the turncoats "a handful." They were in fact 21 Democrats, all the Southerners except one.

In the November hush of 1960 the Kennedys had good cause to enjoy their own sapience in drafting Lyndon Johnson as Vice-President, for it was he who saved the South for the party. For what? To betray Mr. Kennedy in the Senate. If two Southern friends (Fulbright and Hayden, say) had changed their minds, the Bill woud have been redeemed.

When the President asks the people for even more Democrats in the next Congress, he is really asking the South to send to Washington new men who will support him. It is a most wistful cry.

The South has nothing left these days but its veto power in Washington. It is assured only by sending back the same men time and again, so that they can by seniority collar and control the committees of Congress. It is the committees that fetter the President, for they are dominated by the South out of all proportion to their strength on the floors of Congress.

Said one exhausted Kennedyite this morning: "And Macmillan thinks he's in trouble!"

Unqualified 'Beaver'

I think that the Dean of Christ Church Cathedral has taken a courageous stand in denouncing the article, "The Divine Propagandist" by Lord Beaverbrook (Victoria Times, July 23, page 2). Theology is a study, like most professions and the layman, however successful in his own field, should not presume to understand theology better than the trained clergyman.

Lord Beaverbrook is undoubtedly a very successful newspaper publisher and was a great strength as Minister of Aircraft Production in Sir Winston Churchill's cabinet during the Second World War. But this does not mean that he is qualified to discuss the Holy Bible and draw conclusions from it.

I think Dean Whitlow has done a service to the religious community by criticizing Lord Beaverbrook's article as he did. I hope his arguments will be given the same prominence in Weekend Magazine that was given to Lord Beaverbrook.

Appeal to the Record

In Dr. Heffernan's most recent letter apropos Saskatchewan's Medicare program he indulged in one of those sweeping unsupported condemnations common to advocates of a bad and losing cause. Let us examine his statement: "The sorry record of the present Saskatchewan government in the health services field" and determine for ourselves if his "is the simple truth."

In the fall of 1944 this government set in motion a "free" diagnostic and treatment cancer program. Incidentally, all doctors treating cancer patients in Saskatchewan are paid by the government and there has been nary a complaint of government interference or unpaid medical bills since the program was inaugurated.

In January, 1945, the Saskatchewan government, the first in Canada, provided free, medical, dental, optical and hospital services to old age pensioners. Later similar services were extended to needy mothers and their families, the physically handicapped, the chronically ill and the indigent. These groups by reason of age, disability or lack of means cannot qualify under privately-operated health insurance schemes.

* * *

The government in recognition of the dignity of the individual was determined that these groups, including all pensioners and all groups of Saskatchewan citizens should received medicare as a right under the law and without the odium of a means test.

To meet the health and comfort needs of chronically ill aged citizens, the government established fully modern and efficiently staffed geriatric centres at a cost of $25 per month per patient. The standard of accommodation and care in these centres is such that they qualify as hospitals under the national hospitalization plan, hence the low cost to the patient.

To make hospital and medical services readily available to rural as well as urban aged citizens, the government in co-operation with municipalities and organizations initiated the construction of some 70 housing projects throughout the province. These fully modern, attractive, low-rental projects provide for approximately 4,000 single and married pensioners.

In January, 1947, the Saskatchewan government inaugurated the hospitalization plan which has since been adopted throughout Canada. For 10 years the government met the full cost before assistance was granted by the federal government.

* * *

Due to the neglect of previous administrations, mostly Liberal, Saskatchewan had an appallingly low hospital bed capacity—less than 3.5 beds per 1,000 population. It has now in excess of seven beds per 1,000, the highest of any province in Canada.

Prior to the CCF government the mentally ill were a sadly neglected group, crowded into two institutions without adequately trained staff, sufficient psychiatrists, mental clinics and without rehabilitation services of any kind. Existing institutions were enlarged and greatly improved while the number of patients were drastically reduced to permit individual care and treatment. A new 1,000-bed centre was built at Moose Jaw. A start has been made on smaller type institutions under what is known in Canada as the Saskatchewan plan.

This will provide for the treatment and rehabilitation of mental patients on a regional or local basis. The training of psychiatric nurses and attendants has attracted wide attention, and it is significant that many foreign students come to the province for this training.

* * *

I could go on with this "sorry record" but space will not permit.

Dr. Heffernan's tirade reached its crescendo with these words, "the cynical, arrogant, hypocritical actions of the present Saskatchewan government." This is the government that has gone to the electorate every four years with a carefully prepared statement of policy, with a clear outline of programs to be inaugurated and planned objectives to be achieved.

In 1944 it was elected on faith and for the next 18 years it was re-elected on the conviction of the electorate that here is a government that keeps its promises, that successfully blazes new trails and that has the courage to attack bastions of reaction and special privilege wherever they exist. And may I add, this so-and-so government has held office through the years in sipte of a hostile daily press owned by the Sifton interests—these staunch proponents of Liberalism which is almost defunct in western Canada. Incidentally, the Sifton interests also own other potent political media viz TV and radio stations.

One is brought to the inevitable conclusion, Dr. Heffernan, that the terms which you employ to describe the Saskatchewan government much more aptly apply to the recent conduct of your profession there—or to yourself. "Physian cure thyself."

YOUR HEALTH By DR. WALTER ALVAREZ

Hypersensitivity

Many persons appear to be born hypersensitive, like the persons who, in late summer, react violently to the many pollen grains which enter their noses to produce hay fever or asthma. Millions of other persons are breathing in the same pollen grains but they are not reacting violently enough to be ill.

Alvarez

Much of what I now go on to say may be hard to understand; much of it is hard for me to understand myself, but perhaps I can give my readers some glimpse of the new ideas which are now becoming more and more important in medicine.

Much information is being obtained of late in regard to these hypersensitiveties, and some surprising facts are being learned. Perhaps most surprising is the idea that some of us can at times become seriously ill when we react violently to some of our own proteins (the main chemicals in meat).

One of the first diseases of this type to be recognized was the so-called serum sickness, which in some persons can be violent after a little horse serum has been injected to give protection against an infectious disease. When in 1918, one of my children had a severe pneumonia she was given an antiserum. Soon thereafter she developed a serum sickness which was almost as bad as the pneumonia. She broke out all over with "hives," and a rash; she had fever, tremendous itching, and a great deal of discomfort. Fortunately, she cleared up entirely. Probably even today some 40 years later, it would be dangerous to give her even a tiny dose of horse serum; she might get another violent reaction.

It has been shown with rabbits that some, when injected with an antigen (a foreign protein) do not develop an antibody, others have low levels of antibody formation, and some have large amounts of antibody circulating in their blood. According to Drs. Raymond D. A. Peterson and Robert A. Good, the rabbits which, when injected, get low levels of antibody production can develop chronic nephritis—a kidney disease which is similar to that which develops in some men and women.

Another explanation for the development of curious diseases in some persons is their lack of gamma globulin which is normally found in the blood. As many parents now know, if injected quickly, gamma globulin can save their children from coming down with an attack of measles or hepatitis. Recently, research workers have found that adults who lack gamma globulin easily can get what is called a collagen disease—such as rheumatoid arthritis, dermatomyositis (in which the skin and the muscles under the skin are inflamed), or a generalized lupus erythematosus, or a thrombotic leukopenic purpura (in which the person gets black and blue spots under the skin, together with other troubles). It appears that the person who can make only minute quantities of antibodies is the one who, when a "foreign protein" enters the body, is likely to develop chronic diseases of the arteries.

LONDON LETTER By WALLACE REYBURN

The End of a Library

LONDON—Though sad to see it go, it's a tribute to the efficiency of England's public library system that The Times Library has had to pack up.

Reyburn

This subscription library, started in 1905, was one of the oldest and most revered of the lending libraries in this country.

It was part of The Times Book Shop, on Wigmore Street, just by Wigmore Hall, where aspiring pianists and violinists give their first concerts to launch themselves on their careers.

The book shop is still going strong, but upstairs on the first floor what's left of the library is moving out to incorporate itself with Harrods' library.

* * *

The Times Library used to occupy the whole of that floor and was a rendezvous of "the better people." Being a subscriber to The Times Library was a status symbol long before that phrase was coined.

Attractive society girls seated at antique desks saw to your needs and advised you on books in the bulging shelves—The Times Library never had merely one or two copies of a talked-about book, they had batches of 30.

If a book you wanted didn't happen to be there, one of the girls would nip downstairs and take it off a counter in the book shop for you.

* * *

If you couldn't be bothered to go into the library they had a twice-weekly delivery service. Or you could do your borrowing by mail, from your home or from wherever you happened to be on holiday in England or on the Continent.

Subscription rates were around $6 to $10, depending on what type of service you took.

As more and more subscribers have switched to the excellent free public libraries, The Times Library has shrunk, giving over its space to paperbacks and other intruders, and now at length it is dead.

With its going, it looks like pretty well the end of the subscription library in this country.

* * *

Boots chain of libraries, adjunct of their drugstores, called it a day some time ago. The Smiths' libraries, part of the network of W. H. Smith and Son's bookshops, were two years ago discontinued to make way for the selling of gramophone records and toys.

Harrod's library, in the Knightsbridge department store, is the last important hold-out.

For the others it has been just too tough trying to compete with the ever-improving 40,000 public libraries, with their 71,000,000 books to choose from. Using the public libraries is so easy, so convenient—and so free!

HOME GARDEN By JACK BEASTALL

Canvas Soakers Do the Job

We have been in the habit of throwing water around our gardens with abandon because it was a commodity that was plentiful and cheap.

Jack

It is still fortunately plentiful, but it is no longer cheap, and the totals on our summer water bills are making us realize that we must get the maximum benefits from every gallon that goes through the meter.

To do this we may have to revise our methods of watering and even return to some of the more efficient equipment that has become outmoded by machine-age progress.

We know that plants can benefit from water only when it is in the soil immediately adjacent to the feeding roots, and our method of getting water to this point has been to scatter it far and wide over the surface.

This was successful, but we used a lot of water to obtain small benefit, because the moisture which was put into the soil where there were no root hairs of plants was more or less wasted.

A cupful of water will sustain a plant whose roots are confined within a pot, but the same amount has no effect when scattered by a sprinkler. If we could get the water to the roots of garden plants as easily as to potted plants we could reduce the gallonage we now use by 75 per cent or more.

The most efficient device yet designed for all-purpose watering is the canvas soil-soaker which many gardeners discarded as messy and oldfashioned some 20 years ago.

With us it has always been, and still is, standard garden watering equipment, since no sprinkling or punctured plastic tubing is as efficient when it comes to putting water where it will do the most good without waste.

Canvas soakers only rot away in one season when they are not properly looked after. Fire hose would do the same thing if it was left lying around, but fire departments have hose in use for 20 years because it is properly dried and cleaned after being used.

The average life of my canvas soakers is from seven to 10 years, or an annual expense of from 22 cents to 32 cents against an estimated water saving on a half-acre property of some 200,000 gallons a summer.

Mother Shot, Baby Saved

BENTONVILLE, Ark. (AP)—A 16-year-old pregnant housewife was shot to death Sunday night and a short time later doctors delivered her baby by Caesarean section.

The infant girl, born within 10 minutes after her mother's death, was reported to be doing fine.

Deputy Sheriff R. D. Arnold said Mrs. Myrna Joyce Red, who was eight months pregnant, was shot at her home. Details of the shooting were not available.

3,000 Families Signed By Sask. Co-Op Clinics

By JOHN MATTERS

REGINA (CP)—An estimated 3,000 Saskatchewan families have taken out memberships in non-profit co-operative medical clinics that are flourishing in the ashes of the recently settled medical care dispute.

Clinics have been set up in five centres. Ten other communities are making final arrangements for clinics and 15 area associations are being set up. All told, the idea has caught on in 30 communities.

Bill Harding, chairman of the provincial council of Community Health Services, said Sunday membership drives are under way in almost every centre.

He estimated the clinics he knew to be functioning had sold a total of 3,000 memberships.

"This exciting development assures doctors of a stimulating opportunity to work with people in their communities to preserve medical services," said Mr. Harding, a community development expert who recently returned from a one-year stint with the United Nations technical assistance organization in Liberia.

SERVE AS MODELS

Clinics at Prince Albert and Regina are expected to serve as models for others in the province.

Citizens who supported the government's compulsory, prepaid comprehensive scheme started organizing the clinics before a doctors' boycott went into effect July 1. Doctors withdrew services, except on an emergency basis, to protest implementation of the government plan.

The clinics operate on the co-operative principle — the consumer has a say in how his medical care is organized.

The clinic at Regina is staffed by five doctors recruited by the government in the United Kingdom. None of the doctors have hospital privileges but Mr. Harding said applications have been made to the two hospitals here.

MEMBERSHIP COSTS $5

The life-time membership fee of $5 covers the cost of such things as rental on halls in which organizational meetings are held. A person need not be a member to obtain treatment.

The doctors send their bills to the Medical Care Insurance Commission, which reimburses them. Mr. Harding said it has not yet been decided who will pay such clinic employees as nurses and secretaries.

The agreement reached by the doctors and the government last week says the role of the citizens' group in setting up co-operative clinics is only that of a landlord.

Clinics are operating at Regina, Prince Albert, Saskatoon, Biggar and Weyburn. Those making final arrangements to begin operations are at Estevan, Radville, Moose Jaw, Swift Current, North Battleford, Kindersley, Eston, Melville, Unity and Kinistino.

Last of U.S. Marines Leaves Thailand; Timing Criticized

BANGKOK (Reuters)—United States marines today were winding up their withdrawal from Thailand despite Thai reservations over their departure.

Gen. Prapart Charusathien, Thai interior minister, said he believes the withdrawal was being carried out at an "inappropriate time."

But he added that with modern communications and transport the marines could return to Thailand from their base at Okinawa in a matter of hours.

The last contingent of marine combat troops left by air for Okinawa Sunday night leaving behind only support elements such as hospital teams and mechanics.

The withdrawal followed the reconciliation of rival leftist-rightist forces in neighboring Laos that last Monday was officially deemed a neutral nation by 13 countries from East and West who signed a declaration in Geneva.

Marines were sent to Thailand in mid-May when fighting broke out in northwest Laos between pro - Communist Pathet Lao troops and forces of the former rightist Laotian government.

The marines were officially sent to prevent any pro-Communist invasion into Thailand. But their mission also was considered an American manoeuvre to strengthen the hand of the right Laotian government in its negotiations with the pro-Communists and neutralists for a coalition government.

Departure of the last marines during the weekend left 2,200 U.S. Army troops and 1,000 U.S. airmen in Thailand.

Lightship Crashed

DOVER, England (AP) — A Soviet floating dock collided with the South Goodwin lightship in the English Channel today, the coast guard reported. The dock was being towed by the Soviet ship Ustilud, apparently from Black Sea shipyards to the Baltic. The lightship reported severe damage above the waterline but no casualties.

Shell Offer Of Take-Over Said Legal

TORONTO (CP) — Shell Oil Company of Canada Limited said Sunday it has received opinion of counsel that its $114,000,000 take-over bid to Canadian Oil Companies Limited is legal.

Power Corporation of Canada, owner of about 25 per cent of Canadian Oil, had questioned whether the offer made a week ago satisfied legal requirements.

Shell Oil, Canadian arm of the vast international Royal Dutch Shell Group, last week bid for the take-over through its wholly-owned subsidiary, the Hesper Oil Company Limited.

In a statement Sunday, Shell says amalgamation would have to be approved by Canadian Oil shareholders at a special meeting.

Forest Week Leader Chosen

VANCOUVER (CP) — Hugh J. Hodgins, vice-president of Crown Zellerbach (Canada) Limited, has been named chairman of the 1962 National Forest Products Week in B.C., it was announced today.

The week of Oct. 21-27 is recognized in Canada and the United States to publicize the importance of the forest industry and to promote the use of wood products. Special projects are planned for several centres in B.C.

Mr. Hodgins is a past-president of the Canadian Institute of Forestry and the Canadian Forestry Association.

MOOSE JAW MAN NAMED AD PRESIDENT

BANFF, Alta. (CP) — Garnet Dundas, advertising director of the Moose Jaw Times-Herald, has been named president of the Western Daily Newspaper Advertising Managers' Association.

The association's three-day annual convention concluded here Saturday.

Other officers named were Gordon Grierson, advertising director of the Red Deer Advocate, vice-president, and William Duffus, advertising director of the Regina Leader-Post, secretary-treasurer.

MARKET SUMMARIES

Signs of Strength Shown: Trend Not Established

Stock market activity today appeared to reflect a general uncertainty coupled with showings of strength in selected areas.

In general, more pluses than minuses were chalked up, but there were indications of softening trends.

On the Montreal exchange, the off tendency which ended the week continued, with stocks slightly lower on moderately heavy trading, but New York moved toward its third successsive trading day of gains.

AT TORONTO the stock market remained on the plus side during light mid-afternoon trading today, but there was some evidence that weakness was coming back.

Industrials, after dipping slightly this morning, climed more than a point on index. But by mid-afternoon they had slipped back to show a fractional advance. All other index sections remained lower.

Abitibi fell ⅛, Imperial Oil and Steel Company of Canada ⅛ Each, and MacMillan, Bloedell and Powell River one point.

On the exchange index, industrials were up .15 at 531.75. Golds were off 1.92 at 95.11, Base Metals .03 at 182.91 and Western Oils .10 at 100.48. The 2 p.m. volume was 1,644,000 shares compared with 1,951,000 at the same time Friday.

AT NEW YORK selected gains helped the market nudge higher today.

The list was higher from the start and maintained an upside edge in moderate trading.

Among wider gainers, IBM and Houston Lighting and Power were up around 3 apiece. Polaroid rose more than 2.

Ahead more than a point were Merck, Union Carbide, and Liggett & Myers.

General Mills was insured a place among the volume leaders as it rose ¼ to 23¼ on an exchange distribution of 51,015 shares.

Woolworth, United Aircraft, and General Dynamics were up close to a point apiece.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was ahead .60 at 217.40.

AT MONTREAL stocks remained slightly lower early this afternoon. Trading was moderately active.

Macmillan remained sharply lower, off ⅞ at 17¼ in heavy trading. Atlas Telefilm fell 35 cents to $3.95 in heavy trading.

Among base metals, Asbestos fell ½ to 30 and International Nickel, up 1½ Friday, rose ¼ to 64¼.

Bell Telephone lost ⅛ to 50 among utilities and Abitibi dropped ¼ to 44½ among papers.

Power Corporation, which holds a large minority interest in Canadian oil, added 3¼ to 54¾. Canadian oil was up ⅛ at 34⅞.

Among banks, Bank of Montreal rose a point to 55 and Banque Canadienne Nationale fell a point to 64.

AT LONDON, stock markets today were generally unsettled and almost all sections showed losses.

The apparent deadlock in European Common Market negotiations was the chief disturbing factor.

Tin shares fell sharply, in precautionary marking down following the United States state department's rejection of the international tin council's counter proposals regarding stockpile releases of the metal. Gold shares were dull and coppers occasionally easier.

AT VANCOUVER, trading was fairly heavy. Peso fell to $1.22, while Pacific Pete rose to .13¾. Bethlehem Copper went down to $1.68, and Cariboo dropped to $1.15. Mount Washington stopped at $1.28, and Torwest rose to .24½. Western Mines stopped at $1.75 after reaching a high of $1.91 earlier this morning.

Let's talk REAL ESTATE

By
Jack Mears, F.R.I., R.I., (B.C.)

The other evening I went home over Mt. Tolmie. I stopped at the top and looked at our city. I wondered what it was like 100 years ago and what it would look like 100 years from now. Some of the changes that have taken place are good, others should never have been allowed to take place.

In the early post-war years homes were in short supply and consequently the main interest was to get as many homes built as quickly as possible with the result that there was little need to use much imagination or design in the layout of new subdivisions.

Now that supply and demand are in balance, it is interesting to note how much more thought is being put into the siting and exterior design of our new homes which in many cases are extremely attractive.

If you are planning a new home remember the outside is the first part that a buyer sees. One day you may want to sell it and an attractive exterior will add to the value of your investment.

NIPS CICADA IN LAST JUMP . . . . . . FOR 'RICHEST' PURSE

Seven Thirty Right on Time

NEW YORK (CP)—George D. Widener's Seven Thirty overhauled Meadow Stable's Cicada a couple of strides before the finish Saturday and won the Delaware Handicap, the world's richest race for fillies and mares, at Delaware Park in Stanton, De.

Bramalea was third in the 1¼-mile event for a gross purse of $141,875.

Larry Adams rode the winner, who earned $97,375.

Bramalea finished seven big lengths behind the fighting leaders. Primonetta was fourth, 1½ lengths behind her stablemate after setting the early pace in a duel with Cicada.

Seven Thirty returned $21, $12 and $5.20 and Bramalea was $2.40 to show.

Cicada's lead had been sliced to a length in the stretch and Seven Thirty kept plugging away under a furious drive to hit the jackpot in the last jump or two.

At Oceanport, N.J., Affectionately led all the way in registering an easy victory in the $100,440 Sorority Stakes at Monmouth Park, the eighth victory in nine starts for Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs' filly.

Affectionately covered the six furlongs in a record 1:10 and won by five lengths. The old mark was 1:10 2-5, set by Marullah in 1956.

Ogden Phipps' Fashion Verdict was second by three-quarters of a length over Mrs. Katherine Raible's Nalee.

The victory was worth $60,264 to Mrs. Jacobs.

Ismael Valenzuela was the winning rider and those who backed the filly collected $2.60, $2.20 and $2.20.

At New York, Merry Ruler caught Rullah Red in the closing strides and won the $28,000 Gravesend Handicap as Aqueduct ended its summer meeting.

Only a head separated the pair as Johnny Sellers drove Merry Ruler, racing in the silks of H. O. H. Frelinghuysen, over the finish line with a track record clocking of 1:21 2-5 for seven furlongs. The old mark was 1:22.

Rullah Red was 1¼ lengths in front of Hellenic Hero.

Merry Ruler earned $18,200 and paid $5.60, $3.10 and $2.60.

Cleroux Clouted

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—Mike DeJohn of Miami fended off the bull-rushing attack of Canadian heavyweight champion Bob Cleroux with a long-reaching defence Saturday night to win an unanimous 10-round decision at the Miami Beach auditorium.

Greaves Retains His Ring Crown

GLACE BAY, N.S. (AP) — Wilf Greaves of Edmonton retained his Canadian middleweight boxing championship Saturday night by stopping challenger Blair Richardson of South Bar, in the tenth round. Richardson was down four times in the second round before the referee stopped the fight.

TIME OUT! By JEFF KEATE

"I'll tell you exactly what happened! Pittsburgh threw the ball at Detroit who hit to St. Louis who threw to Chicago, and Los Angeles disagreed with Cleveland!"

City Boxla Clubs in Front After Comeback Victories

That's doing it the hard way! Two of Victoria's minor lacrosse teams won the first games of their best-of-three Island playoffs with Nanaimo Sunday in Memorial Arena, but there were anxious moments before they went on to win.

Victoria bantams overcame a 4-2 deficit to eventually trip Nanaimo, 7-5. The city juvenile B's spotted their opponents the three opening goals before going on to grab a 9-5 victory.

Second games will be played Saturday in Nanaimo, with the third contests, if necessary, to be played in Victoria at a date to be decided following the second games.

Both teams had their scoring stars but it was a losing netminder who drew most of the plaudits. Ken Cook, in goal for Nanaimo, stopped everything but the clock as he kept his mates in the game and blunted the efforts of the Victoria shooters.

Murray Muralt finally emerged as his nemesis, scoring three times. Frank Alexander added two and they were the only players to beat Cook more than once.

Rothmans sponsored the Government's change in cigarette excise law, effective April 1962, which now offers these three great advantages:

1. Canadian smokers can now enjoy the extra length and true King Size flavour of international length (85 mm) Rothmans King Size — at the same price as old-fashioned short cigarettes.
2. Canadian tobacco growers will now sell more home-grown bright leaf — always among the best in the world.
3. Canada can now compete on equal terms with U.S.A. and Britain for the export markets of the world.

Dodgers Hope To Try Frank On the Yanks

Howard's Bat B'asts Giants; Los Angeles Four Games Ahead

(By UPI International)

Frank Howard murdered the Giants, and the Dodgers can hardly wait to spring him on the Yankees this fall.

Pretty soon now, the Yankees, with a fat five-game lead in the American League, will send their scouts out to collect information for the world series.

Here's a tip for them, free of charge. They'd better concentrate on Howard.

There's no way they can miss him. He's bigger than Cinerama—six feet six and 250 pounds—and is primarily responsible for that imposing four-game lead the Dodgers have in the National League today.

Howard did an unmerciful job on the Giants Sunday for the third straight game as the Dodgers breezed to a lopsided 11-1 victory.

The out-sized outfielder drove in five runs with four hits, including a homer, his third in as many games with the Giants and his 20th of the season. Howard upped his batting average from .306 to .321 with eight hits in 13 trips during the three-game series against the Giants.

MAYS HITS 32ND

Don Drysdale clicked off his ninth straight win and 19th of the season with a six-hitter. The only run off him was Willie Mays' 32nd homer leading off the seventh.

With all the teams taking a break today because of the second All-Star game, the Dodgers are sitting pretty with a four-game winning streak and eight victories in their last nine starts.

The Yankees are in even better shape despite their split with the White Sox Sunday. Chicago snapped a five-game Yankee winning streak with a 6-2 victory in the nightcap after losing the opener, 7-4.

Charley Maxwell, always at his best on Sunday, hit three homers for the White Sox, including two in the nightcap.

REDS RAMBLING

Next to the Dodgers, the Cincinnati Reds are causing the most talk in the NL winners in 12 of their last 13 games, the Reds swept a pair from Milwaukee Braves, 8-1 and 2-1, but they're still 8½ games back and may have started their push a bit too late.

St. Louis Cardinals swept New York Mets, 6-5 and 5-1, Philadelphia defeated Pittsburgh, 8-1, and Houston Colts ended a six-game losing streak with a 3-1 nightcap win over Chicago Cubs after losing the opener, 4-2.

In the AL, Los Angeles Angels downed Detroit Tigers, 12-8, in the nightcap after dropping the first game, 7-6, Cleveland beat Minnesota, 3-2, in the first of two, then lost the 11-inning nightcap, 7-5, Kansas City beat Baltimore, 7-3, and Boston downed Washington, 4-2.

Frank Robinson drove in four runs for the Reds in their opener with the Braves when he connected for a pair of two-run homers and then scored the winning run in the nightcap after hitting his second double of the game. Johnny Klippstein (3-1) and Joey Jay (15-9) were the winning pitchers. Hank Aaron hit two homers for Milwaukee in the opener.

Duncan Grabs 'Ruth' Crown

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP) — Duncan captured the British Columbia Babe Ruth baseball championship here Sunday with a 1-0 victory over Trail.

Greg Ledding hit a high-fly single to short centre field in the bottom of the seventh inning to score Ray Stotts with the wininng run.

It was a heartbreaker for the Trail club, particularly for pitcher Barry McGillivary, who pitched a two-hitter but had a perfect game going until the sixth inning.

Winning pitcher was Larry Paradis, who gave up four hits and struck out three batters.

The winners now advance to the Northwest regional final in Casper, Wyoming.

Nanaimo Sweeps Juvenile Softball

PRINCE GEORGE (CP)—Nanaimo won the B.C. Juvenile Boy's softball championship here Sunday defeating Prince George in two straight games. Ron Johnson gave up only four hits as he led the Island team to a 10-2 victory in Sunday's game. Nanaimo took the first Saturday night, 8-2.

Just Tired, Says Gene After Quitting Bosox

FOXBORO, Mass. (AP)—Weary Gene Conley said Sunday night he is sorry for his run-out on Boston Red Sox of the American League and added: "I didn't say I'd quit. I hate the word."

He told Bob Holbrook of the Boston Globe he planned nothing when he stepped off a team bus in New York last Thursday. The big right-hander had not been heard from until Sunday and is under indefinite suspension by the Red Sox.

Infielder Pumpsie Green subsequently fined an estimated $500, disappeared along with Conley but showed up in a Washington hotel Friday night.

"I'm tired, very tired," Conley said. "I'm not offering that as an excuse."

A professional athlete in basketball as well as baseball, Conley has averaged less than two weeks of relaxation a year since 1957. Some of his teammates have expressed the belief that no other athlete could do it.

Conley said he will "contact the Red Sox, but right now I don't feel like it. I'm too tired to go through this right now."

Until a meeting of Conley and manager Mike Higgins, fines or further punitive action will be deferred.

Pakistan in Trouble

NOTTINGHAM, England (Reuters) — Pakistan's batting failed once more Saturday against England's fast bowlers in the fourth Test before bad light stopped play 70 minutes before the scheduled close of the third day.

When play stopped, Pakistan was 127 for six in reply to England's first innings of 428 for five declared, and still needed 102 to avoid the follow-on. Two days remain in the Test.

At Birmingham, Nottinghamshire 61, Warwickshire 200 for 7.

At Hastings, Sussex 184; Kent 167 for 1.

At Sheffield, bad light stopped play, Essex 194 for 8; vs. Yorkshire.

At the Oval, Surrey 287; Middlesex 64 for 1.

At Northampton, Hampshire 262; Northamptonshire 17 for 1.

At Leicester, bad light stopped play, Leicestershire 97; Glamorgan 121 for 1.

At Glastonbury, Lancashire 211; Somerset 80 for 3.

OOPS!

Hearts skipped a beat in Cleveland Sunday as second-baseman Jerry Kindall left) dropped pop fly by Minnesota's Lenny Green in ninth inning as he was bumped by first-baseman Tito Francona. Vic Power followed with home run but it all ended happily for Indians, who took 3-2 decision in first game of twin bill.—(AP Wirephoto.)

Pony, Little Leaguers Playing Familiar Tune

"Darling, they're playing our song . . ."

Last year at this time, Victoria's Carnarvon Pony Leaguers and Victoria's National Little Leaguers were all set to try for provincial championships.

It's the same story this year.

The Carnarvons wrapped up the Vancouver Island pony championship Sunday at Nanaimo by beating Victoria Layritz All-Stars, 3-1, to run through the double-loss elimination tournament undefeated.

The Nationals tripped the rival Victoria American Leaguers, 10-1, in their Island final at Duncan the same day to qualify for the provincial LL tournament.

FINGERS CROSSED

Last year both teams won the B.C. tourney, so officials of both clubs are keeping their fingers crossed.

The Carnarvon officials have a special interest; they will be hosting the provincial championship next Saturday and Sunday. It will be a two-team show, with Penticton, the mainland winners, taking on the Carnarvons in a best-of-three series.

The pony game was a tight affair all the way, with both teams making the best of their chances in the pitching duel.

BIG INNING

Carnarvon scored all its runs in one inning and they could have been scoreless in that one just as easily as Pete Songhurst stole home with two out. He could have been out, but the catcher dropped the ball. Pinch-hitter Al Pollock drove in the winning run, and then came in himself on winning pitcher Brian MacKenzie's single.

The Little League championship was a wide-open affair as American pitchers yielded 13 walks, including seven in the fourth inning that, along with a hit and two hit batters, broke the game wide open to the tune of seven runs.

CITY ARCHER SECOND IN FREESTYLE EVENT

VANCOUVER (CP)—Andre Roziere of St. Vital, Man., scored 1,835 points Sunday to win the men's freestyle event at the Canadian field archery championships.

Frank Jones of Victoria was second with 1,822 followed by Erhard Menzel of Calgary with 1,773.

Reg Lesard of Montreal won the men's instinctive event with 1,472 points. Second was Bud Price of Powell River, B.C., with 1,465 and Ian Sutherland of Duncan, B.C., came third with 1,369 points.

Alcos Finally Find Winning Touch

Alcos were due for a win and Saturday they got it.

But it was a long time coming.

Alcos had lost eight straight Victoria and District Cricket Association matches before they finally defeated Nanaimo by two wickets.

In the other two games played over the weekend, Five C's retained their share of first place by beating Incogs by eight wickets at Beacon Hill Park Sunday and Oak Bay retained their share of first place by stopping Cowichan, 119-110, on Saturday.

Good bowling won it for Alcos, as Stan Jackson took six for 26 and Jim Robinson brought down three for nine. Joe Armstrong led the batters with 21 not out.

The Five C's bowling wasn't bad either; they took the first six wickets for only six runs as Jim Richards took five for 13 and Terry Newton bowled three for 10. Incogs recovered to score 40 but Five C's came back with 41 for two.

Shamrocks Score Win In Overtime

Bill Munroe wasn't the whole team, but he accounted for just about half the Junior Shamrocks' scoring on Sunday as they wound up their Inter-City Junior Lacrosse League home schedule with a 14-13 overtime win over New Westminster Salmonbellies.

Munroe fired six goals, including the winner, and added three assists as the Junior Rocks fought back from a 12-9 deficit with seven minutes remaining in the game at Memorial Arena.

The win was just icing on the cake for the Victoria team, since the Rocks have already clinched the league title.

Other scorers were Ray Beech (2) and Gary Zilkie, Rod Kilduff, Mike Woodley, Rod Nesbitt, Bill Spotswood and Dave Collett, who collected the other overtime goal.

Laver Marches To 7th Crown

HILVERSUM, The Netherlands (AP)—Australia's Rod Laver picked up his seventh title of the season Sunday, beating Ramanathan Krishnan of India 4-6, 6-3, 6-3, 7-5 in the finals of The Netherlands international tennis championships.

Laver, who is gunning for tennis' grand slam, previously had won the Wimbledon, Australian and French titles, among others.

Mario Bueno of Brazil won the women's title with a 6-1, 4-6, 6-2 victory over Mrs. Sandra Price of England.

Bob Howe of Australia teamed with Krishnan in the men's doubles to beat Warren Woodcock and Marty Mulligan of Australia 6-1, 4-6, 6-3.

Connie Mack Flag To Maillardville

VANCOUVER (CP) — Maillardville won the British Columbia Connie Mack baseball championship Sunday after being forced into an extra game by a no-hit pitcher.

Barry Elson of North Vancouver tossed a perfect game that forced the playoff.

Maillardville recovered in the final for a 2-0 victory and the championship.

Maillardville will represent B.C. in the Northwest Championships at Portland, Ore., Aug. 10, 11 and 12.

Caddy Eggs Kroll To Canadian Title

'Take It Easy' Advice Enables Vet to Triumph

MONTREAL ((CP) — Ted Kroll, a balding veteran of the golfing wars, egged on by an enthusiastic, teen-aged caddy, caught fire for a four-under-par final nine holes a two-stroke victory in the $30,000 Canadian Open golf championship Sunday.

Kroll, a much-wounded war veteran who has suffered from back miseries for several weeks, came in with a four round total of 278, 10 under par and two strokes better than Charlie Sifford, a Negro pro from Los Angeles who led Kroll by three strokes with only nine holes to go.

Sifford, however, ran into late putting trouble while Kroll, told by his caddy to take it easy, started banging in birdies.

It was Kroll's first major title since 1956, although he has not been playing the tournament circuit regularly since then.

Kroll's caddy was Russ Witt, 17, of suburban St. lambert, who modestly disappeared after Kroll putted out on the final green. Witt is a native of Morden, Man.

Sifford and Kroll started the front nine of the final round tied with a 208 total.

On the 510-yard 10th, Kroll fired a birdie. He got another birdie putt on the 12th and three holes later took a lead he never lost.

On the 15th," Kroll said," I hit a drive and a four iron and then my caddy told me Charlie had bogeyed the hole. So I thought I could sneak one in."

He got that birdie and added another on the 18th, sinking a 10-footer.

Kroll's win was worth $4,300, while Sifford picked up $3,000 for his secondplace finish.

FIRES HOLE-IN-ONE

The low Canadian in the starting field of 156 pros and amateurs was Wilf Homenuik of Winnipeg, who electrified the crowd of about 8,000 spectators with a hole-in-one on the 208-yard 17th hole.

Homenuik, a 135-pounder, teed off with a three-wood and landed his shot about 10 feet from the pin. The ball bounced twice and rolled in.

The ace was the 14th turned in on the PGA circuit this season. Homenuik's four-round total was 285, good for $1,250 in prize money.

In third place in the over-all standings was veteran Art Wall Jr. of Pocono Manor, Pa., who started the day seven strokes off the leading pace. He chopped three strokes off par on each nine in the final round, however, for the best single-round performance of the championship to finish with 281 and $2,000.

In fourth place was Bruce Crampton of Sydney, Australia. He recouped from a disastrous 76 in the third round for a 67 Sunday and a 282-total and $1,700 in prizes.

The first-round leader, 145-pound George Knudson of Toronto who said the Canadian Open is the one tournament he wants to win, continued his putting trouble in the final round and finished with a one-under-par 287.

Al Balding, another pro from Toronto, also had a 287 total while veteran Stan Leonard of Vancouver, who had plenty of trouble on the early rounds, was 293.

Nick Weslock of Toronto was the low amateur with a 292 total.

One of the surprises of the championship was the comparatively poor showing by the pre-tournament favorites, Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio, and the U.S. Open champion; power-hitting George Bayer of Miami and Bob Goalby of Perdido Bay, Fla.

NANAIMO WINS

Rocks Bopped; Ashbee Belted

Nanaimo 13, Victoria 9

NANAIMO — Remaining Inter-City Lacrosse League games between Victoria and Nanaimo this season are shaping up as bitter grudge battles.

Nanaimo continued its struggle to catch the Shamrocks in a two-team duel for third place by clipping the Rocks 13-9 here Saturday night. In the process, coach Arnie Dugan's crew left their rivals bleeding and bruised and trimmed Victoria's margin to four points.

Don Ashbee, who transferred from Nanaimo to Victoria this season, was the principal target in one of the most vicious games seen here in several seasons.

14 STITCHES

Rugged John Ferguson twice drew major penalties for slashing the veteran Ashbee. Then, late in the third period, Tom McVie cracked Ashbee across the head. Ashbee was taken to hospital, where 14 stitches were required to close the gash.

McVie, who had been hit in the face by a ball thrown by Ashbee, earlier in the game, drew a 10-minute misconduct sentence, plus a 10-minute intent-to-injure penalty.

McVie ended up with 24 minutes of Nanaimo's total of 50 minutes in penalties. Shamrocks collected 44 minutes, including 14 to Jim McNeill and 12 to John Lumley, another ex-Nanaimo veteran.

FIVE GOALS

On the happier side for Nanaimo, McVie also ended up with five goals and one assist, making it nine goals against the Rocks in his last two games.

Terry Davis and Larry Clarkson each fired two goals for Nanaimo.

Ron Jay fired three goals for Victoria, boosting his goal total to 43 for the season.

It was the second straight win over the Shamrocks as Nanaimo trimmed the Victoria margin to four points. The clubs tangle twice more in the league schedule. Victoria also plays Burnaby and Vancouver. Nanaimo's remaining league games are against New Westminster (twice) and Burnaby.

TWO WORLD MARKS

Mary Clobbers More Records

VANCOUVER (CP) — Mary Stewart broke two world swimming records and two Canadian records Saturday in time-trial performances at the B.C. age group swimming championships.

The world marks were set in single 110-yard and 100-metre butterfly swims.

Miss Stewart's time was 1:07.3, breaking her own 110-yard mark of 1:09 and the 100-metre record of 1:08.2 held by Susan Doerr of Philadelphia.

Miss Stewart also broke the 220-yard individual medley record held by Katy Campbell of Vancouver. Her time was 2:44.4, the old mark 2:46.2.

In a fourth event, the 110-yard freestyle, her time was 1:04.4, tying the Canadian open record recently set by Carolyn Wood of Portland.

Victoria swimmers failed to capture any events but Victoria Amateur Swimming Club placed sixth and Victoria Y eighth in team competition.

Here is how VASC swimmers fared:

Gorge Must Win Or Else Tonight

It all comes down to tonight, and maybe Tuesday as well.

Gorge Hotel and Merchants mix tonight at 6:45 at Heywood Avenue in a game that just may decide the lower Vancouver Island senior softball championship.

If Merchants win, it's all over.

If Gorge comes out on top, they'll go at it again Tuesday in what will have to be the final game of the double-loss elimination tournament that started Friday.

Merchants came out the top dogs after Sunday's play with a starry 3-0 record in the tournament. Gorge, meanwhile, suffered a 10-2 loss to Sooke Saturday and has a 3-1 record.

SOOKE OUT

But Gorge got its revenge Sunday, eliminating Sooke by a 3-1 count after Sooke had absorbed an identical beating by Merchants earlier in the day. Previously, Gorge had eliminated Imperials, 10-4.

Jeff Hett was the hero of the Gorgemen Sunday, winning one game and saving another. Ken Oliphant meanwhile got the job done for Merchants, limiting Sooke to four hits in chalking up his triumph.

STOCKER PILOT OPENS DOOR . . . . . . FOR BROTHER-IN-LAW

Smitty Full of Good Will

By IAN SMITH

Nobody ever accused Bill Smith of good sportsmanship—before.

But now, before anyone makes any further accusations about the free-wheeling Western Speedway stock car pilot, they should talk to Brian Wilson.

HARUM-SCARUM TYPE

Wilson (who happens to be Smith's brother-in-law) was the winner of the Saturday night 40-lap July Cup stocker duel at the Langford oval. And Smith rates a big assist.

Smith is noted for his harum-scarum style of driving and a fierce desire to stay in front no matter what the cost to himself or his rivals. This fierce sense of competition—that's putting it nicely—has resulted in lots of accidents and lots of frayed tempers during the past couple of years.

But Saturday he proved he has turned over a new leaf.

He was leading Gary Kershaw and Wilson, in that order, early in the main event but it was obvious that he didn't have the power to hold them off. And, pretty soon, Kershaw edged by and proceeded to open up a large gap over Wilson, who was still held in by Smith.

'COME ON THROUGH'

So Smith promptly moved over and signalled Wilson through. Otherwise, Wilson probably wouldn't have stood a chance of catching Kershaw.

What makes it even more sporting is that Wilson is ahead in the driving standings—and Smith is right behind him—in second place, trying to overtake him . . .

Kershaw eventually finished second and Smith developed mechanical trouble to wind up far down the list. Wilson won the trophy dash but missed a clean sweep when Smith won the first heat.

Trophy dash—1, Brian Wilson; 2, Lloyd Mullaly; 3, Gary Kershaw.

First heat—1, Bill Smith; 2, Wilson; 3, Nibs Anderson.

Second heat—1, Bob Smith; 2, Dave Brown; 3, Jim Berry.

Third heat—1, Kershaw; 2, Jim Gallagher; 3, Tom Eardley.

Relay race—1, Victoria; 2, Nanaimo.

July Cup race—1, Wilson; 2, Kershaw; 3, Bob Smith.

VANCOUVER (CP) — Toronto Argonauts' offensive scoring punch was limited to the boot by British Columbia Lions in pre-season play, but Canadian Football League opponents can bet there'll be more zing when the Argos start playing for keeps.

Argonauts got 12 points by kicking Saturday night and their other six points came on a defensive-team touchdown as they beat the Lions 18-13 in an exhibition game here. But their No. 1 quarterback sat on the bench most of the night.

Coach Lou Agase used all four of his quarterbacks, giving veteran Tobin Rote only the first quarter to show his class to the 20,166 fans who sat in 70-degree weather in Empire Stadium.

Rote didn't show too well because Lions controlled the play in that quarter, marching 100 yards in 13 consecutive plays to score the first time they got the ball.

COMPLETES THREE PASSES

Rote completed the three passes he tried, but they got the Argos only eight yards.

Ed Trancygier, from Florida State, went in for the second quarter, completed five of six pass attempts for 43 yards.

Canadian centre Bill Mitchell scored 11 Toronto points, kicking field goals from 25, 26 and 31 yards, getting a single when a 12-yard field goal attempt went wide and converting a touchdown scored by Art Johnson. Johnson intercepted a pass by rookie Mel Melin, from Washington State, and scampered 42 yards to score. Halfback Dave Mann got the other Argo point on a 40-yard punt.

Fullback, Nub Beamer got B.C.'s first touchdown, diving over centre from a yard out to cap the 100-yard march led by quarterback Joe Kapp, who played three quarters of the game, and halfbacks Mack Burton, rookie from San Jose State, Tom Larscheid, rookie from Utah State, and Willie Fleming.

FLEMMING BRILLIANT

Fleming scored the other B.C. touchdown on a 75-yard camper over the left side of the Argonaut line after Kapp and Larscheid had pulled the Argonaut defence far to the right. Vic Kristopaitis converted Fleming's touchdown after George Grant had missed the convert attempt in the opening quarter.

The immobility of the Argo offence without Rote and Gilchrist showed up spectacularly early in the fourth quarter when the Lions five times held Toronto from the B.C. four-yard line and closer.

Coach Dave Skrien of the Lions used Kapp, Fleming, Beamer, Larsheid and Burton as his backfielders except in the second quarter. They showed up best during the first-quarter scoring march and again in the final quarter when they twice moved the ball deep without scoring.

Kapp completed six of 18 tosses for 105 yards.

On the last play of the game, Lions came within a stride of victory. Kapp's pass from the Argo 13-yard line touched Fleming's fingertips, then fell into the end zone incomplete.

THINK OF A SMOOTH CONTINUOUS SWING MOTION
3-30

What do you usually think of when your swing is at the top of your backswing? Nothing, I hope.

The best swing is a grooved one. The mind isn't consciously telling the body to do the many things which must be done. The body is automatically performing the motions that are required.

When practising on some phase of your swing, it's all right to be conscious of one element more than another. But make sure you work on just one swing phase at a time. Change or correct two or more elements at the same time and you're apt to confuse yourself.

But in normal play, try to keep your mind from thinking of the many different actions of your swing. Think of the smooth continuous motion your swing should be and make it that way.

Vicki Berner Tennis Queen

VANCOUVER (CP) — Mexico City's Joaquin Loyo-Mayo and Vancouver's Vicki Berner Saturday won the major titles in anti-climactic matches at the British Columbia junior clay court tennis championships.

Loyo-Mayo closed quickly on a tense Tetsu Kuramitsu, the fourth-seeded Japanese star from Tokyo, to sweep their best-of-five final in the boys' under-18 singles, 6-1, 6-1, 6-1.

Miss Berner was again stormy and unpredictable in her under-18 girls' final against Kathy Harter of Seal Beach, Calif. She began strongly to win the first set 6-2, lost the second 0-6, and recovered her best form to take the third 6-3.

Dave Extends Victory Skein

Everything, they say, has to come to an end. But you can't blame Chuck Rombeau for wondering today if the words apply to tennis.

Eleven times this year Rombeau, of Studio City, Calif., has tangled with Dave Sunderlin in tennis tournaments. And 10 times he has been beaten by the Los Angeles star.

The 10th time came Saturday in the finals of the B.C. open championships at the Victoria Lawn Tennis and Badminton Club, as the 19-year-old Sanderlin administered a 4-6, 6-4, 6-4 licking to extend the streak.

Sanderlin also grabbed a share of the men's doubles title, teaming with Fred Drilling of Playa Del Rey, Calif., to take a marathon 10-8, 5-7, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4 decision from Jim Buck of Los Angeles and—you guessed it—Rombeau.

WEDERTZ WINS

Jan Wedertz of Burlingame, Calif., was a double winner in the women's section, capturing the singles title with a 6-3, 6-1 victory over Doris Popple of Portland and teaming with Roberts Alpers to beat Miss Popple and Carole Lepper, 8-6, 6-4, in doubles play.

Some of the tourney's best tennis came in the junior veterans' finals as Karl Hepner, San Francisco, upset Joe Woolfson, Hayward, Calif., 6-2, 6-4, and then teamed with Woolfson in the doubles to trip the Vancouver duo of Jim Bardsley and Jim Skelton, 6-4, 4-6, 6-1.

Jim Sato of Los Angeles won the senior veterans' singles title, beating Bardsley, 6-4, 2-6, 6-4, and then shared with Les Cribley of Seattle in the doubles, beating Bardsley and Jack Churchill of Seattle, 6-2, 8-6, 6-4.

Corkey Olerich of Los Angeles beat Jan Todd of Victoria, 6-1, 9-7, in the women's flight final. Jimmy Morse, New Orleans, won the men's flight final with an 8-6, 6-3 decision over Don Shirk, Salinas, Calif.

FIGHT RESULTS

MIAMI BEACH, Fla.—Mike DeJohn, 205, Miami, outpointed Robert Cleroux, 205¼, Montreal.

GLACE BAY, N.S.—Wilf Greaves, 158, Edmonton, stopped Blair Richardson, 160, South Bar, N.S., 10—(Canadian middleweight championship).

DETROIT — Sonny Banks, Detroit, knocked out Gene Jackson, Cleveland, 3.

BUENOS AIRES — Luis Fredrico Thompson, Panama, outpointed Emilio Ale Ali, Buenos Aires, 10 (welterweights).

BUT SOPHIA BASKS IN HOLLYWOOD GLORY

Bigamy Hangs Over Her Head

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Sophia Loren was in town to collect her Oscar, plant her feet in the Grauman's Chinese cement and bask in the glory that Hollywood didn't quite give her before.

She made eight American films, but had to return to her native Italy to reach full stature as an actress. That she did with "Two Women."

Sophia paused during her whirlwind visit to kick off her shoes, plop on the sofa of her Beverly Hills hotel suite, and reflect on the Hollywood chapter of her life.

"It was difficult for me here," she admitted, "but that is not unusual. An Italian actress is limited in American films.

"The language is a problem. When I first came here, I was so fascinated with how English sounded that I wasn't aware of what I was saying when I did my lines."

Now, she added, she can think in English when she speaks it. She even throws in English words when speaking Italian.

ONLY ONE HIT

Only one of Sophia's American films — Houseboat with Cary Grant—was a big success. But working here was good for her, she said.

"It was marvelous to be able to work with actors like Cary Grant, William Holden, John Wayne, Clark Gable, Anthony Quinn, Alan Ladd and Tony Perkins," she said.

Meanwhile, she has problems at home. She freely discussed the bigamy charge brought against her and her producer-husband Carlo Ponti, whose divorce from his first wife is not recognized in Italy.

"The suit might have been different if it had been brought by Carlo's former wife, she said. "It wasn't. It was started by a woman we don't even know."

And what will happen if she and her husband are convicted?

"Then we will be considered bigamists, that's all," she shrugged.

But doesn't the charge carry a penalty?

"Yes, I think it is one to five years in jail. But it is never imposed. At least I hope it won't be."

Sonata Performances Draw Mixed Review

VANCOUVER (CP)—Vancouver Province music critic Francean Campbell says pianist Louis Kentner is demonstrating refinement and maturity in his series of Beethoven Sonata recitals at the Vancouver International Festival.

"Mr. Kentner reaches for the color and mood of each of these passing monuments," she said after Sunday night's recital.

He never pounds or bangs, but the tone is not always smoothly sustained. And too often for comfort his memory, in the very early works, and in fugal sections of the later ones, serves him less than faithfully."

The critic said it is still a social requirement to perform the sonatas from memory "but when one comes down to it, is such a feat of genuine musical validity?"

The Hungarian-born virtuoso will perform all 32 of Beethoven's piano sonatas in a series of seven recitals. The series ends next Sunday.

BILLS RING

ROME (AP) — A Christian Democrat group has submitted a bill in parliament to provide early matrimonial financing. The sponsoring deputies said 100,000 to 300,000 lire ($160 to $320) was the minimum needed to start married life and set up a household. Young workers would contribute to a fund under social security and would be able to borrow against their contributions.

WINE, WOMEN, MUSIC WHEN GLEASON TRAVELS

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Jackie Gleason, who needs more room than most travellers, will return to New York in a seven-car private train costing $90,000.

Drinks will be served.

The train, following a zigzag course across the United States, will also be loaded with dancing girls and a six-piece Dixieland band.

"It's the only way to go," Gleason told a reporter.

Gleason never flies.

The high-living comedian said the train will depart from here Aug. 9, and stop in Phoenix, Ariz., for a day.

"I plan to march in a parade there and attend three parties," he explained.

Next he heads north for Denver.

"I'll play 18 holes of golf there and then maybe another nine in Colorado Springs."

Other stops on the 10-day trek will be Kansas City, St. Louis, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

"Upon arrival at Penn Station in New York, we will proceed to the restaurant of a certain obnoxious drunken friend of mine, hoping that he will have prepared bird and bottle for the weary traveller," said Gleason.

An entourage of some 45 persons will accompany Gleason. The trip, however, will not be all pleasure.

Part of the group will include Sue Ann Langdon, his new CBC-television co-star, several TV writers and the producers and three secretaries.

The dancing girls also will be featured on Gleason's return to television in September.

Mrs. Dorothy Abraham will give an illustrated lecture on The Cathedrals of Britain in the Newstead Hall, 734 Fort Street, tonight at 8 p.m. It will be held under auspices of the British Israel World Federation (Canada) Victoria branch.

RCMP 'Red' Agent's Story Draws Storm of Protests

OTTAWA (CP) — Angry denials have followed statements by Calvin M. MacDonald, self-styled undercover RCMP agent, that Communists have infiltrated various organizations including the Voice of Women and the Canadian Campaign for nuclear Disarmament.

Mrs. Helen Tucker, president of the Voice of Women, said in Toronto that the statement by the 39-year-old Ottawa man was a lie.

"Irresponsible and insupportable," was the comment of Toronto Rabbi Abraham Feinberg, a leader of the Canadian Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament.

The VoW and CCND were among organizations named here Saturday by Mr. MacDonald in his second press conference in two days held to describe what he said was his double role as an Ottawa organizer for the Communist party and secret agent for the RCMP.

EXPELLED FROM PARTY

Mr. MacDonald, expelled Friday by the Communist party's Ontario leadership, told reporters Saturday that Communist sleepers—secret agents — have joined the Voice of Women by the score and have used the VoW and CCND to spread the Communist party's ideas.

On Friday, he said that the Unitarian Church in Ottawa had long been available for the holding of Communist-inspired meetings.

This was denied by Norman Dowd, minister emiritus of the church and now an official of the Canadian Labor Congress.

"There is no justification for that statement," Mr. Dowd said. "There have never been any such meetings to my knowledge, and I think I should know."

Mrs. Norman Alcock, a VoW executive member and wife of the founder of the Canadian Peace Research Institute, said she knows of no communist infiltration in VoW.

"But I imagine some Communists want peace just as we do, so it's possible some have become members of peace groups."

Mrs. Charlotte McEwen, chairman of the Ottawa area group of the Voice of Women, said today she has obtained a signed statement from MacDonald which says:

"I do not know of any Communist member who holds a position on either the national or any provincial committee of the Voice of Women."

Mrs. McEwen said the statement by Mr. MacDonald followed a five-hour talk with him Saturday and it was signed in the presence of a colleague with her, at the home of a friend of Mr. MacDonald.

She said Mr. MacDonald could name only three persons he said were VoW Communist infiltrators and that he presented no evidence for his allegations.

FAMOUS UNIVERSITY

The University of Grenoble in southeastern France was founded in 1340.

A CHICAGO STUDENT has asked superior court to award her $100,000 damages each from a college and four students alleging they had libelled and slandered her by accusing her of dishonesty in an examination. Mrs. Glenda Ross, 20, alleged she was given a failing grade at the National College of Education, Evanston, Ill., because the four students accused her of cheating.

APPROVAL OF U.S. HOME SECRETARY NEEDED

Soblen Offered Asylum in Europe

LONDON (AP)—Dr. Robert A. Soblen has been offered asylum in an unnamed European country, friends said today.

The man under life sentence in the United States as a Soviet spy cannot take advantage of the offer without the approval of Home Secretary Henry Brooke. Soblen now is in a London prison awaiting last-ditch legal moves to prevent his return to the U.S.

Soblen's friends declined to say whether the country which has offered him asylum is in Western Europe or the Communist bloc.

Two members of Parliament, Labor members Scholefield Allen and Barnett Stross, said they would see the home secretary later today to urge him to allow Soblen to take up the offer of asylum. They too declined to name the country involved.

The home office regards Soblen as still in transit between Israel and New York and has said he must continue his journey if his legal moves to block it fail.

Soblen jumped $100,000 bail in the United States last month and fled to Israel. He was expelled and slashed himself with a steak knife July 1 as a plane neared London en route to the United States.

The 61-year-old psychiatrist lost a second effort Sunday to seek refuge in Israel; the cabinet unanimously upheld the interior ministry's refusal to let him enter as an immigrant.

JERUSALEM (Reuters) — The Israeli cabinet Sunday advised against granting an immigrant visa to Dr. Robert Soblen, under sentence of life imprisonment by the United States for spying for Russia.

City Riders Invited To California Show

Two 18-year-old Victoria girls will make up half of British Columbia's first team to compete at the top-flight International Horse Show in Pebble Beach, Calif.

Joan Dunbar, 1007 Joan Crescent, and Pat Donaldson, 1536 Arrow—both well-known riders in local and B.C. show circles have been invited to join the B.C. team.

Joan, with her mount Seven Up, and Pat, with Hindu Punch, will vie for honors along with Maz Zimmerman of Haney and Charyl Forst of Vancouver in the intermediate division of the Sept. 7, 8 and 9 championships.

Winners of the open competitions will form national entries in the riding events of the 1963 Pan-American Games.

THREE DAYS

The team, formed by Mr. Zimmerman, will participate in dressage, cross country and stadium jumping events during the three-day competitions.

In addition, Miss Dunbar will compete in the national "dressage" championship Sept. 1 and 2 at Pebble Beach.

She will take her mount Fen's Folly for entry in the intermediate tests of the dressage events—considered the ballet of horse riding.

Vancouver's Inez Fischer-Credo also will participate in the dressage championships.

Eager Scots Started Early With Their Jigs and Reels

Long before the official opening at 2 p.m. more than 300 pipers and drummers were strathspeying and reeling in every corner of Macdonald Park on Saturday for the 25th annual Highland Games.

Highlanders, or those of highland descent, began competition in the nearly 80 classes of events at 9 a.m. Many were still competing at 5 p.m.

Largest crowd of 2,500 was on hand for the opening in which the pipes and drums of the Canadian Scottish Regiment Princess Mary's led to the field Ald. J. L. W. McLean, representing Mayor R. B. Wilson, Maj. M. W. E. Allen, second-in-command of the Canadian Scottish; Ed. McFayden, representing Mayor Harris, and the city's centenary, and various officials of Highland Games Associations.

McBRIDE TRIBUTE

During the opening ceremoney, Ald. McLean paid tribute to the first president of the games, Duncan McBride, who died on the eve of this years' gathering. All stood silently while a lone piper played the Flowers of the Forest in his memory.

Happier atmosphere was restored by the Adeline Duncan dancers in scarlet tunics and tartan trews performing the precision drill of the "Salute to the Victoria Centenary."

Competitors then scattered to every corner to continue competition in sports events, dancing, including the recently created "Flora Macdonald's Fancy," and amateur and professional piping.

NO "A" CLASS

Many spectators were disappointed that there was no "A" class pipe band competition as in years past.

"B" class competition, with seven bands entered, was won by the Seaforth Highlanders Cadet Pipe Band from Vancouver.

Complete results of all but sporting events follow. All contestants are from Victoria unless otherwise indicated.

B.C. Woman Beats Mt. Waddington

VANCOUVER (CP)—A mother of two has become the first woman to climb 13,260-foot Mount Waddington, B.C.'s highest mountain.

Mrs. Eshter Kefer of nearby Richmond reached the summit July 25 after a 15-hour climb members of her party said.

Two women were killed in 1960 in an attempt to scale the mountain. Elfreda Pigou and Joean Stirling of North Vancouver were buried in an ice avalanche with two male companions.

The July 25 climb was led by Paul Binkert of Vancouver who headed the team that sealed Mt. Fairweather which reaches 15,300 feet into the sky on the B.C.-Alaska border.

Other members of the party were Mrs. Kafer's husband, Martin, James Craig of Vancouver, David Boyd, a New Zealand engineer and teacher Geoffrey Suddaby of Nanaimo.

Mr. Boyd, Mr. Suddaby and the Kafers were still in the area, at the head of Knight Inlet about 200 miles northwest of here Sunday night. The others returned at the weekend.

Shortage of food forced five members of the party of nine to return. The Kafers, Mr. Binkert and Mr. Craig made the ascent.

DECISIVE STAGE NEAR IN DEAL ON HUNGARY

LONDON (Reuters)—Reports from Budapest indicate that secret negotiations between the Soviet Union and the United States to try to make a deal over Hungary have reached a decisive stage, the London Observer said Sunday.

The newspaper reported it was believed that Soviet Premier Krushchev has indicated his willingness to withdraw troops from Hungary and to drop his opposition to U Thant's appointment as United Nations Secretary-General if the U.S. agreed to remove the Hungarian question from the UN agenda.

The report said U Thant, now acting secretary-general, has accepted a Soviet and Hungarian invitation to visit Budapest "privately" to discuss the outcome of the Soviet-American talks.

VICTORIA TIMES CENTENNIAL GIFT TO CITY

New Bronze Bust of Queen Unveiled Sunday at 3p.m.

As a climax to Victoria's big centennial week, the unveiling of a new bronze bust of Queen Elizabeth II will take place in Beacon Hill Park on Sunday at 3 p.m.

The bronze bust, executed by Arthur Price, nationally-known sculptor of Ottawa, is the centennial gift to the city from the Victoria Daily Times.

It has been worked from the original, done by Peggy Walton Packard of Victoria, but which was damaged by vandals.

A number of dignitaries have been invited for the ceremony, but the general public is welcome.

The bronze bust will be presented to the city by Times publisher Stuart Keate, and will then be unveiled by Mayor R. B. Wilson.

Guests of honor for the occasion will include the two artists, Mrs. Packard and Mr. Price, who will fly out from Ottawa to be present.

At the same time it was announced today by Colin Graham, curator of the Greater Victoria Art Gallery, that arrangements have been made for Mr. Price to make two appearances at the gallery for the benefit of local sculptors and artists.

First will be from 10 a.m. to noon Saturday when he will conduct a practical workshop and discussion. Registrations for this class are now being taken at the art gallery and will be open to others interested as well as those directly concerned with sculpting.

Then on Monday night at 8.30 Mr. Price will give an address on "The Field of 20th Century Sculpture." There is no special admission charge other than the normal admission to the art gallery.

VICTORIA, B.C., MONDAY, JULY 30, 1962—PAGE 13

MONTE ROBERTS

Pardon me if I appear to be in a tearing hurry today, and I will tell you all about my holidays (vacation?) some other time.

Right now, I am most anxious to get cracking on a campaign to SAVE BINGO.

In fact, all during my vacation (holidays?) I could hardly wait to get back to what is laughingly called work, for fear somebody else would SAVE BINGO before I could get a campaign launched.

And I assure you, as the senior Save Campaign launcher of these parts, it would have cut me to the quick to see somebody else come up with the solution.

* * *

In case you, too, have been on holidays (vacation?), and have not been keeping up with Bingo's problems, the trouble with Bingo is this: Bingo is suffering from a severe case of regularity.

Bingo has been being played (been being played? Maybe I came back to work too soon) at certain set intervals, and the law says you must not play Bingo at regular intervals.

Thus it is illegal to "eyes down, watch the cards" on, for instance, every third Thursday in the month, or even every Maundy Thursday that falls on a Friday.

In other words, Bingo can be saved only if it is cured of regularity.

Fear not, Bingo lovers—the solution is to hand. Make Bingo irregular.

It is a well-known fact in the Big Cities that the most irregular game in town is that traditional cop-dodger, the floating crap game.

Damon Runyon fans will remember, of course, the biggest permanent floating crap game in town, whose followers found out where and when the game was to be staged by asking the corner newsstand operator.

It's obvious the same technique could be applied to Bingo—the would-be player ups to the guy in the know and whispers, out of the side of his mouth:

"Where's d' game?"

"Got the passwoid?"

"Under d' 'I,' 10."

"Okay. It's in d' back room of d' parish hall."

* * *

Well, now that Bingo has been saved, back to work.

City Fetes World Fair Contingent

Elements of the Seattle World's Fair arrived in Victoria today to take part in Victoria's centennary.

Headed by the fair's special events director Louis Larsen, the party from Seattle flew to Pat Bay Airport and drove to the City Hall to be received by Mayor R. B. Wilson.

As representative of Mayor Gordon Clinton of Seattle, Mr. Larsen attended a luncheon given for visiting mayors, reeves and their wives in the Empress Hotel.

Speakers were Reeve Alan Emmott of Burnaby, representing Canadian civic officials, and Mayor J. E. Maxfield of Port Angeles for the Americans. Deputy provincial secretary L. J. Wallace spoke on behalf of the province.

Also with the World's Fair visiting party were Spanish Dancers direct from the University of Madrid. They performed in the Centennial mall, Broad St., during the regular afternoon program which began at 2 p.m. They also will appear at the pageant tonight in Athletic Park at 8 p.m.

Condition Serious

Kwakiutl Chief Mungo Martin, internationally famous as a totem pole carver, is seriously ill at St. Joseph's Hospital.

The chief, in his late eighties, was taken to hospital Saturday. The nature of his illness was not disclosed.

TOPICS OF THE DAY

In fairly good condition at Royal Jubilee Hospital today is David M. Bell, 229 Government Street.

Bell was crossing Government Street on Saturday night when he was in collision with a car reportedly driven by Allen Summerfield, 774 Daisy.

He suffered a broken wrist, broken nose, cuts and bruises.

Police report no progress in the case of Peter Richard Solowan, the 29-year-old convict who escaped from William Head minimum security prison July 18.

He walked away from the jail around 4 p.m. wearing grey denim prisoner's clothes, and has not been seen since.

Prison officials said he was worried about his wife's health. He was serving a three-year term for breaking and entering.

Two dental officers in the Canadian army have changed positions, army headquarters announced recently.

Lt.-Col. R. E. Brown has been replaced as senior dental operator at HMCS Naden by Lt.-Col. G. MacDougall, previously senior operator, the Royal Canadian Dental Corps School at Camp Borden, Ont.

Col. Brown will take up Col. MacDougall's previous appointment. Both are officers of the Royal Canadian Dental Corps.

Petty Officer serving on the HMCS Saguenay, based at Esquimalt, has won a cash award from the Public Service of Canada for a suggestion to improve efficiency of naval communications.

PO George S. Tory proposed a modification of the tube arrangement for naval radio transmitters, and his proposal has been adopted for use in the RCN.

Royal Canadian Navy will offer sunset ceremonies in Beacon Hill Park, August 9, 10 and 11, as part of a colorful salute to Victoria in her birthday year.

Nature of the program, a navy spokesman said, required a shift from the Legislative Building lawns where flag-lowering ceremonies are usually held.

Thieves who broke into the liquor bar of the Elks Club, 732 Cormorant Street, Sunday night evidently left empty-handed.

Back door of the club was opened when checked by a patrolling police constable at 4.15 this morning.

One of the refrigerators in which liquor is stored had been broken open, and a claw-hammer was left behind the hasp on the lock of another door.

There was no sign of entry anywhere, police said, and a check of the premises revealed nothing stolen.

Society for the Preservation and Maintenance of Craigdarroch Castle will hold a gathering on the castle terrace on Saturday, Aug. 18, from 3 to 5 p.m.

Guests will wear late 19th century costumes, and refreshments will be served.

A three-year-old boy was struck by a car on Shelbourne Street this morning at about 10.20 when he wandered out into the road.

Admitted to Royal Jubilee Hospital for observation was Eddy Dianic, 2647 Shelbourne. He is believed to have lacerations and a head injury.

NAMED "FRANKIE," after St. Francis, because of his loving disposition, this dog found wandering on a highway near Victoria has three broken legs and is in constant pain, according to sisters of the Good Shepherd Shelter, Borden Street, where the dog was taken. Sister Mary Agnes, above, today launched an appeal for funds to enable Frankie, a Collie cross, to have his legs re-broken and set so that he can walk. Cheques should be made payable to the shelter and marked "for Frankie."—(Times Photo.)

City Architect Dies After Long Illness

Patrick Birley, former Oak Bay councillor and distinguished Victoria architect, died in Royal Jubilee Hospital Sunday after a long illness. He was 58.

Tragically, his mother, Mrs. J. H. Birley, was visiting him from England at the time of his death.

One of his last projects was the re-building of St. John's Anglican Church within the walls of the old church which was gutted by fire in December 1960.

He designed St. Matthias Church, corner of Richmond and Richardson; Victoria Press Ltd., 2631 Douglas, and planned the revision of the Bank of Montreal building here.

He designed and had been associated with construction of many national defence buildings, including several at HMCS Naden and Royal Roads Services College, and was working on the psychiatric ward of the new wing at Royal Jubilee Hospital.

A graduate of Cambridge University, England, Mr. Birley came to Victoria 30 years ago and lived at 590 Transit, Oak Bay.

He was master at Brentwood College for several years and was then articled to the architectural firm of Spurgin and Johnson in Victoria.

Later, he practiced on his own and in various partnerships. At the time of his death he was head of the firm Birley and Wagg.

NARROW LOSS

As an Oak Bay councillor, Mr. Birley contested George Murdoch for reeve of Oak Bay in 1958 and was defeated by a narrow margin.

He was an active Rotarian and Freemason, a life member of Victoria Lawn Tennis Club, a member and former chairman of Capital Regional Planning Board and vice-president of the Architectural Institute of B.C.

He served with the Royal Canadian Navy during the Second World War.

MUSICIAN

Of a cheerful, friendly disposition, Mr. Birley was a talented musician, playing several instruments, and enthusiastic fisherman and photographer.

His widow, Patience, is a noted local artist and photographer.

He is also survived by a daughter, Mrs. Robert Wilson of Victoria and a son David in Vancouver.

Funeral services will be held in St. John's Anglican Church Thursday at 1.30 p.m., followed by cremation. Canon George Biddle will officiate.

$128 Donation To Charity From Bridge Tourney

Victoria bridge players raised $128 for two charitable organizations in a tournament played Saturday as part of an international series.

Money will go to the Multiple Sclerosis Society and Institute of Logopedics.

Bridge was played here simultaneously with games across the continent and in Hawaii in conjunction with the American Contract Bridge League summer national tournament in Minneapolis.

Winners in the Victoria unit, ACBL, were as follows:

North-South—1, Hilda Price, Evelyn Lamont; 2, Ether Clenworth, Jack Goldie; 2, Tony Marsh, Jim Duprau; 4, Pansy Raymond, Margaret Kirby; 5, Ricki Nickells, Eric Goodwin.

East-West—1, Eric Horwood, Walter Allen; 2, Phil Hagel, Otto Leesment; 3, Harry Brawn, Douglas Hawkes; 4, Elizabeth Warren, Paul Smith; 5, Madge Meachem, Elizabeth Waite.

Four 'Big Ones' Mark Beginning Of Tyee Run

Annual tyee run began at Campbell River Sunday night when four big ones were landed.

Weighing in at the top was a 50-pounder which gave Tom Perkins of Campbell River a 45-minute battle.

The others were landed by: Eino Logren, Campbell River, 48 pounds; Clive Piercy, Victoria, 44 pounds, and Mrs. Mike Rippingale, Campbell River, 34 pounds.

Firemen Fight Rash of Fires

WOODS BURN IN 16 NEW OUTBREAKS

Vancouver Forest District racked up 16 new woods fires over a hot weekend marked by heavy holiday travel, a B.C. Forest Service spokesman said today.

On Vancouver Island, Langford ranger district crews battled four blazes, Nanaimo one, Port Hardy two, and Tofino one for a total of seven.

A 23-man crew working with two bulldozers contained the Lonetree Hill fire off Millstream Road with firebreaks after it burned 20 acres.

Flames Gut House, Blacken 10 Acres

Two serious fires and a number of smaller blazes broke out over the weekend as hot, dry weather sent the fire hazard soaring in the Greater Victoria area.

Ten acres of brush atop Oak Hill, near Cedar Hill Cross Road, were chewed up Sunday afternoon in a fire that still smouldered this morning, and a small frame house on Swan Street was gutted Sunday night by a fire fed by heating oil.

Saanich firemen damped brush and grass behind the CHEK-TV antenna on Oak Hill to prevent fire from spreading to homes on Epsom Drive and Cedar Hill Cross Road.

Reported at about 3 p.m., the blaze was brought under control by late evening.

One truck and crew were stationed on the hill this morning to extinguish the last smoldering pockets.

FLAMING OIL

Fire melted the carburetors on heating equipment at 873 Swan Street on Sunday night, spilling flaming oil into the house.

Property of Herb Salmon, the house was occupied only by Frank Ogden when the fire broke out at about 7.30 p.m.

Only the shell of the home remains.

It is believed to have been insured.

A small blaze broke out near the flagpole in Beacon Hill Park late Saturday night in the dry grass.

City firemen extinguished it almost immediately.

FOUR-HOUR FIGHT

Oak Bay firemen worked for four hours on a brush fire on the steep slope of Gonzales Hill, near King George Terrace, late Sunday afternoon.

Firemen had to cope with the angle of the almost vertical cliff, as well as traffic congestion around their truck on King George Terrace, as they damped the blaze.

It broke out shortly after 6 p.m.

A few minutes later a small grass fire began behind the Oak Bay municipal yards on Elgin Street.

Oak Bay firemen had it out within minutes.

Modernized Assiniboine to Emerge With New Sonar, 'Copter Platform'

HMCS Assiniboine laid her 366-foot hull alongside Victoria Machinery Depot, Ogden Point dock, today, for a conversion which will occupy a year and cost the national defence department $2,500,000.

Assiniboine is the second of seven destroyer-escorts slated for a modernization which will give them variable depth sonar and helicopter landing platforms.

HMCS St. Laurent, first of her class to undergo the extensive refit and face-lifting, is now testing her new gear at sea.

VMD expects to handle the Assiniboine contract without adding to its 800-man work crew, although a few more specialists may be engaged next fall.

'SPLIT FUNNEL'

According to a navy spokesman, the silhouette and lines of the 25-knot submarine hunter will be altered somewhat by the conversion. Instead of her single funnel, Assiniboine will carry a "split funnel" with a stack on either side of the ship and the new helicopter platform between.

SPECIALISTS

Completed in 1956, Assiniboine's complement is 210 officers and men. Personnel changes will provide for helicopter maintenance men, and sonar specialists.

Other St. Laurent class vessels to be so fitted are Saguenay, Ottawa, Skeena, Fraser and Margaree.

Seattle Cruiser Tops Big Fleet In 'Log Race'

The Aldon, skippered by Dr. A. G. Boles of Seattle, won the international cruiser race from Victoria to Seattle Saturday.

The Seattle power boat led more than 100 entries in the race from Cadboro Bay to Elliott Bay, some of them from as far south as Portland.

Twenty-five per cent of the entries came from Victoria and Vancouver; the rest from the United States Pacific Coast.

The boat Tampico skippered by Robert Hamilton Smith, commodore of Royal Victoria Yacht Club, came second in class 2. Scaup skippered by Dr. W. D. Marshall of Royal Victoria, was sixth in class 1.

Playmate II, skippered by Bruce R. Evans of Maple Bay Yacht Club, was first in class 2.

Art Luney of Victoria, piloting the Navajo, was 14th in class 1.

"The weather was too good," he said. "Everybody was ahead of their predicted times because the water was so still. We would have appreciated a 15 to 20 mile an hour wind."

Painters, Contractors Settle

A two-year agreement between 200 painters and seven local contractors assures stable relations for builders and organized tradesmen here for at least a year.

Settlement of the painters' dispute on the weekend was the last in annual series of negotiations conducted through Victoria Building Industries Exchange, and provides a wage increase commensurate with gains made by other trades this year.

All major agreements signed this year are of two years' duration, but the city's 600 organized carpenters settled a two-year agreement last year, requiring renegotiation in 1963.

SPRING OF 1964

The major trades are carpenters, laborers, plumbers, electricians and painters, of which the electricians are on a three-year agreement reopening in the spring of 1964.

Such smaller trades as floor layers signed one-year contracts this year.

Painters voted to strike after accepting a conciliation report which contractors rejected, then in a last-minute meeting contractors accepted the report.

EIGHT CENT

Onto a brush painter's basic hourly rate of $2.84 will be added eight cents an hour Aug. 1 with an additional eight cents next April 1.

The parties eliminated a differential between brush and roller painters, but retained an extra margin for spray painters and for work done at altitudes of 50 feet or more.

LIKE THE "UGLY DUCKLING" which turned into a beautiful swan, this hideous pile of rubbish on Clover Point will burst magnificently into flame as a salute to Victoria's birthday Thursday. More flammable refuse from Victoria houses is needed for the fire which will be ignited at 11 p.m. following the pageant in Athletic Park. Plans include a sing-song around the bonfire.—(Times Photo by Bill Halkett.)

ASK The TIMES

Q. I am told we depend more on the U.S. for our markets than any other country. Is this true? C.F.

A. The leading source of Canada's imports and exports is the U.S. Other countries from which most imports are taken are, in order, the United Kingdom, Venezuela, West Germany and Japan; for exports, the U.K., Japan, West Germany and Communist China.

Q. How is membership of the House of Commons determined, in regard to area or population of Canada? G.McC.

A. Membership in the Commons is adjusted according to population changes, as indicated by the ten-year census, within the provinces.

SHOPPING GUIDE

Modern Mode of Travel, Custom-Built By Hubby

By PENNY SAVER

I dreamt I went riding in a model of a modern custom car—one of the fanciest you've ever seen. It may have begun life as an ordinary model, but a little imagination had turned it into an out-of-this-world automobile.

Sons and husbands will have a grand time dreaming just like this with the cards of custom car parts that have just arrived in one downtown store.

One card priced at $1.19, has any number, shape and size of chrome parts on it. The engineer-designer in your family will be thrilled trying to find suitable pieces on his dull old models where he can add these transforming bits of gleam.

Another card bears two plastic "bubble tops" and a number of head lights and tail lights to give his favorite model extra flair. Card is just 80 cents.

On backs of both cards are suggested assemblies and directions—but the stress is on the constructor's imagination.

A more expensive hobby, that includes car building, is catching on in Victoria, according to shopkeeper Penny spoke to. He persuaded me that men, who are after all overgrown boys, find amusement with race car sets.

Beginning set priced at $33.95 comes with circle of track and two race cars which speed around the track. They are electrically run and their speed can be controlled by means of a push button affair.

Enthusiasts of this new rumpus room sport are even thinking of forming a club in Victoria! There the emphasis will be placed on building your own model sports cars and trying to increase their speed. On cars in the set I spoke of, scale speed reaches 100 miles per hour.

Model car hobbyists should call Penny at 382-3131 if they wish to know where these items may be obtained.

WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

It is much more pleasant accumulating a roll over the girdle than it is getting rid of it. The roll probably represents luscious pastries, candies, exotic sauces and gravies, whipped cream, hot breads, heavy with butter and lazy hot days.

Lowman

Though thickening through the waistline often is acquired in very pleasant ways, it really is not worth it because there is nothing which makes a woman feel or look so youthful as a slim waist. This middle-aged appearance absolutely can be controlled with exercise and an eye on the calorie chart!

Remember, too, that posture has a dramatic effect on your waist. If you allow your bust to sink down toward your ribs and your abdomen to protrude, an inch or more will be added to your waist measurement. Try it! Stand. Let your abdomen protrude. Take your waist measurement. Now pull your abdomen in, lift your rib cage. Hold, while you measure again. See what I mean?

There are many excellent exercises for the waistline. Here is one of them. Lie on your back with your legs straight and your arms resting on the floor, away from your sides, palms toward the floor. Keep your knees straight and your heels on the floor as you drag your legs as far toward the left as possible. Keep your hips flat on the floor. Remain in this position for a few moments. Feel the pull? Now drag your legs as far to the right as you can. Remain in that position for a few moments. Continue.

Another: Sit on the floor with your legs straight. Raise your arms sideward, shoulder height. Separate your legs. Now bend forward and reach to touch your left toe with your right hand. Raise trunk and return arms to sideward, shoulder-height position. This time touch your right toe with your left hand. Raise trunk and continue. If you cannot reach the toe at first, go as far as possible.

If you would like to have my tested, waist-slimming exercises, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 6 to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Barbecued Chicken Needs Well-Built Fire

Interest in cooking chicken on the outdoor grill is increasing by leaps and bounds. However, with added interest in this delectable barbecued chicken come extra questions from homemakers and the other "summertime chefs" of the household.

Recently the Poultry Products Institute of Canada was asked by a perplexed cookout enthusiast why her chicken always burned before it cooked when she tried barbecuing it on the revolving spit on her outdoor grill. After much questioning about the intensity of the fire, distance of bird from the heat and many other points which would have a bearing, it was finally discovered that the fire was built out to the front as well as the back of the barbecue and no drip pan was placed to catch the drippings. Consequently the fire kept flaming up and burning rather than cooking the chicken.

Build the fire from the middle toward the back of the grill and place a drip pan or piece of foil shaped into a long narrow pan toward the front of the grill so that as the chicken rotates, the drippings will be caught and not fall into the fire. The chicken should then cook to a beautiful brown without scorching.

DEAR ABBY . . .

My Achin' Back, Man!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My wife invited her whole family out to the house for Dominion Day when she knew I had been having a lot of trouble with a bad back. I didn't even know anyone was coming until three carloads of them pulled into our driveway. I was in bed at the time and in such agony I could hardly stand up straight. So my wife comes in and asks me if I would mind barbecuing hotdogs for 42 people! I pulled myself out of bed and barbecued, but it almost killed me. I was so mad I didn't speak to her for a week. She still can't see where she did anything wrong. Can you explain it to her, woman to woman?

MISHUGA.

DEAR MISH: Your wife was very inconsiderate to have invited guests, knowing your condition. But if you left a sick bed and in agony barbecued hotdogs for 42 people, you must have been delirious. Chew her out and get it over with.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: My boy friend is a real nut on safety belts. Since he put them in his car I can't sit close to him any more. The minute we get into his car he straps himself in, and tells me to do the same. Abby, this means I am strapped in near the door—just miles from him. I don't like it. Any suggestions?

TOO SAFE.

DEAR TOO: You can't be "too safe." Safety belts are for YOUR protection as well as his. Hang onto him—but not while he's driving.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: The chapter "For Husbands Only" in your book Dear Abby On Marriage should be printed on the front page of every newspaper in the country. I've never read anything so simple and true and beautiful in all my life. I cry every time I read it. I love you for writing it.

DEAR HELEN: And thank you for your lovely letter. Send me your full name and address and I'll send you an autographed copy of my book.

Dybdal-Harman Vows Heard By Canon George Biddle

Gladioli and daisies decorated St. John's Anglican Church, Saturday evening when Eleanor June Harman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Owen Harman, 380 Arnold Avenue, became the bride of Tore Kjell Dybdal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Dybdal, 2308 Wark Street. Canon George Biddle officiated.

A full-length gown of pure silk organza, appliquéd with lace was chosen by the bride, who was given in marriage by her father. Skirt swept to a chapel train. Bodice was fashioned with gathered short sleeves and a sweetheart neckline embroidered with sequins and pearls.

Elbow-length veil was held in place by a pearl crown tiara. Red roses and white stephanotis formed her cascade bouquet. J. Rhodes was organist.

Mrs. J. Code, matron of honor and sister of the bride, and bridesmaids, the Misses Joan Edgelow and Evelyne Moon wore identical waltz-length dresses, full skirted in variegated mauve, and headpieces and shoes to match. Flowers were white gladiola blooms in semi-cascade with trailing mauve ribbons.

Kjell Isdahl acted as best man, and Roy Harman, brother of the bride, and Tony Stones were ushers.

Arthur Jacobs proposed the toast to the bride at the reception held in Holyrood House.

Leaving for a motor trip to the interior of the province, the bride donned a three-piece navy blue and white ensemble with white accessories and corsage of pink and white carnations.

The couple will live at 2308 Wark Street.

VOW Plan Montreal Meeting

TORONTO (CP) — Women from 25 countries are expected to attend a conference on peace research in Montreal Sept. 9 to 16, organized by Voice of Women branches in Canada and the United States.

In a statement to the press on the second anniversary of the organization—Mrs. Helen Tucker, one of its founders, says the conference will be the first of its kind initiated by women of the Western world.

VoW was formed in Canada following the collapse of the May, 1960, summit conference in Geneva.

Mrs. Tucker says the conference will highlight VoW's claim that "women everywhere have a unique role to play in the search for peace."

Canadian members of the organizing committee are Mrs. Tucker, the chairman, Mrs. Therese Casgrain of Montreal and Mrs. Marta Friesen of Vancouver.

VoW opposes all nuclear weapon tests and stands for world disarmament.

For a dinner date, Mr. John has created this shiny black cover-up (right) in novelty licorice straw.

Fashionable Cover-Ups for Those Wilting Hairdos

NEW YORK—It happens to every woman at some time: the unexpected invitation when her hair is a straggly mess. Some women solve the whole thing by staying at home. Some reach for a wig. But if the wig is out at the hairdressers being cleaned and set, she's still out of luck.

For just such emergencies, some top millinery designers have created chic summer cover-ups. In radiant summer colors or glistening black, they make you look pretty even when you feel you're not. And they keep the secret of wilted, straggly hair.

Some will conceal the fact that you've set your hair with those little metal clips. For a last minute bid can be disconcerting when you've just dampened and set your hair and settled down for a quiet evening.

The obvious solution lies in keeping several such cover-ups on hand. Or a whole wardrobe of them in various colors and airy, lightweight fabrics.

The woman who is handy with a needle can buy some lengths of lightweight silk and run up turbans for herself in various colors. This need not be either difficult or costly. And it's a happy summer solution if her fashion budget won't permit her to buy these new cover-ups.

Designs Bridal Gown

A white satin gown with a belled skirt and chapel train, made and designed by the bride and her mother, was worn by Marian Elizabeth Collis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Collis, 3308 Kingsley Street, for her marriage to George Roderick Leece, 1513 Earlston Avenue, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Leece of Essex, Eng. Canon George Biddle officiated.

Front panel of the gown was outlined with lace appliques. A large white satin rose held a shoulder-length veil. Bride's jewelry was a string of rose culture pearls and earrings, gift of the groom. She carried an arm bouquet of Tropicana roses.

Attending the bride were her five nieces. Maid of honor, Miss Kathe Collis and bridesmaids, the Misses Susan, Lynda and Gail Collis, wore blue satin dresses with bell-shaped skirts. Flower girl, Nancy Collis wore a white organza dress over blue satin and carried ivory-toned flowers.

Lorne Smith was best man. Don Collis and Charles Lovelace ushered guests to pews marked with white satin bows and Esther Reed daisies.

At a reception in Olde England Inn, Michael Hanna proposed the toast. A large three-tier wedding cake, made by Mrs. Collis, which centred the head table, was cut with the bride's grandfather's sword.

For travelling on honeymoon to the interior of British Columbia, the bride chose a suit of raw silk which was hand-woven in India. Accessories were rose and beige.

Newlyweds will live at 1513 Earlston Avenue.

Couple Married Here Saturday Will Make Home at Courtenay

After a honeymoon motoring trip along the coast of Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Louis Chekwech will make their home at Courtenay.

They were married in Sacred Heart Church, Saturday morning. Fr. L. Belanger officiated at the ceremony which united Dale Frances Wilcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert John Wilcock, 2005 Saltair Crescent and the son of Mrs. Helen Chekwech, 75 Montreal Street and the late Louis Chekwech. David O'Neil was organist.

Entering the church on her father's arm, the bride was lovely in a floor-length gown of nylon sheer that featured lily point sleeves and a shirred basque bodice with Swiss lace embroidery as highlight. A dainty bow accented back waistline of the full hooped skirt. Silk illusion net veil misted from a double coronet of seed pearls and Swiss lace. Rapture roses were in her bouquet. "Something old" was a gold half sovereign, given the bride by her grandmother.

Pink nylon sheer gown, styled with lace bodice and lily point sleeves was chosen by maid of honor, Miss Mary Wilcock, the bride's sister. Complementing her gown was a headdress of matching roses. Miss Janice Chekwech, the groom's sister, wore a similar ensemble in blue.

Frank Taylor was best man and ushers were Wilbur Keay and Ron Steele.

Wing-Cmdr. A. P. Whalen proposed the toast to the bride at a reception in Holyrood House.

Pink roses decorated the bride's table and pink carnations and candles set decor of guests' tables.

As her going-away outfit, the bride chose a white brocade dress and three-quarter-length coat, mauve shoes, handbag and gloves and a white net pillbox hat. Corsage was a white orchid.

Canadian Girls Work In Liechtenstein

By MARGARET NESS

VADUZ, Liechtenstein (CP) —Two Canadian girls are spending the summer working in this tiny principality tucked between Austria and Switzerland.

Anne Sinclair of Montreal, who was here last summer as well, is doing public relations and selling watches for tourist-minded Baron Edward Vonn Falz-Fein.

Evelyn Mills of Vancouver came here by way of London, where she has been since last September, doing secretarial work. She happened to hear of the baron's gift-cum-tourist bureau and applied.

Both agree that simply working in this predominantly German-speaking principality on the Upper Rhine is a liberal education. On the baron's staff are girls from France, Germany, Australia and Italy as well as Canada.

It's the baron's idea—to give tourists this extra attention—and it sometimes leads to amusing situations such as when American or English tourists compliment Evelyn on her good English.

FAMILY ATTRACTED

While Evelyn has picked up a few words of German from friendly Liechtensteiners, Anne is already fluent in the language, having spent the winter as a ski instructor at St. Anton, Austria.

Anne's enthusiasm for this community and the Alps has caught on among her family. Her brother Peter and his bride, the former Alexandra Weil of Montreal, spent part of their honeymoon here. And sister Susan will attend school at Chateau d'Oex near Lausanne, Switzerland.

Anne comes naturally by her interest in skiing. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sinclair, have a small private club and ski area in the Laurentians. She designed the official outfits worn by the Canadian bobsled team at Lake Placid, N.Y., last year.

Her latest interest is one-man bobsledding called rodelling or luging being promoted by the baron. She is thinking of entering for Canada in the 1963 world championship at Innsbruck, Austria.

Evelyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mills of Vancouver, isn't interested in sport but she does like the cosmopolitan life on the Continent, compensation for the low pay and long hours her job here offers.

'COWBOY' FELL FOR EASY MONEY

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A Canadian who dresses like a cowboy has made a living, police say by deliberately falling down in some of the best stores in the country, then collecting insurance.

Sometimes in his enthusiasm, he actually hurt himself, John B. Crowley, 35, of Peterborough, Ont., told police Friday.

They said Crowley got his fund-raising idea when he received $75 from an insurance company after a minor fall in a Rolla, Mo., store nearly a year ago. Since then, he has collected about $3,000, they said.

Crowley was arrested Friday as he left a hospital, where he was recuperating from a fall he took in a department store. An insurance adjuster who heard of the case thought it fitted a pattern and tipped police.

Crowley was charged with false pretenees and making fraudulent claims on insurance companies.

HE GIVES AWAY GRAND PRIZES

Is there something you want to know? Do you want to win a set of valuable books or other instructive prizes? Then ask Andy.

Andy will answer questions submitted by child readers and those who submit the questions he selects to answer will receive worthwhile prizes.

The youngster who asks the first question answered each day receives a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia and of the second question a Hammond Atlas or Globe

Andy sends a complete, 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia to Ross Holmes, age 12, of St. Catharines, Ont., for his question:

How Much Will an 85-Pound Boy Weigh on Mars?

This, of course, is the year of Seattle's World's Fair and millions of us have decided to go there for our summer vacation. But Andy's readers, it seems, are thinking way ahead to the fascinating years of space travel. Maybe then our vacation problems will be, "Shall we go to Mars this year, or shall we settle for another trip to the moon?

In May of this year, Andy said that a 100-pound earth boy would weigh 264 pounds on the planet Jupiter. With all this extra weight and the bitter cold, a vacation trip to giant Jupiter seems like a very weary, dreary undertaking. A trip to our neighbor Mars, for example, sounds far more attractive.

Mars is a good deal smaller than the earth and it weighs much less. Its surface gravity is therefore less than our gravity here at home—and it is surface gravity which gives weight to an object on a planet. The gravity of Mars is about one third the gravity of the earth and only about twice the gravity of our light-footed moon.

A pound of sugar on earth would weigh only .36 of a pound on Mars. Ten pounds of potatoes weighed on earth would weigh only 3.6 pounds when weighed again on Mars. Andy, who weighs 100 pounds on earth will demand to know what is wrong if the scales on Mars do not show his weight as 36 pounds. An 85-pound boy who lands on Mars will weigh 30 pounds plus a little more than one ounce.

We shall find many severe handicaps to our Martian vacation, but the light-footed gravity will provide enough fun to make up for most of them. The Martian air is thin and may contain little or no oxygen. We may have to tote around some of the air we need to breathe and since water is also scarce or non-existent, we may have to carry along the water we need.

Three Times As Strong

But every 100 pounds of equipment on earth will weigh only 36 pounds on the planet Mars. The muscles we developed to cope with the earth's gravity will be three times as strong. We shall be able to jump three times as high and run three times as fast. The Martian scenery, we think, may be dusty red desert with few hills and no seas. There are most likely a few plants and maybe other living things to interest us. But we shall have the most fun with the light Martian gravity which shrinks our earth weight to about one-third.

Most experts now agree that some form of life exists on our neighboring planet Mars. Some type of frozen substance forms white caps at the Martian poles and landscape colors change with the seasons. This, we suspect, may be caused by seasonal plant growth on the Red Planet.

* * *

Andy sends a Hammond's Library World Atlas to Denise Walker, age 11, of Spokane, Wash., for her question:

How do we know what elements are present in the sun?

Each element burns with its own particular color and all the elements in the sun are in the form of blazing gases. If we can identify the color of a burning gas, we have its signature. The gases of the sun are identified by an instrument called a spectroscope which is distantly related to the glass prism which gives us the rainbow-colored spectrum.

The burning gas of each element in the sun makes its own mark on the spectrum and its signature can be identified from photographs taken by the spectroscope. By this method, most of the elements on earth have been discovered in the sun and the element helium was discovered in the sun before we knew it existed on the earth.

Danes Spend To Beat Tax

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Danes jammed shops and salesrooms today in a feverish spending spree to beat the tax man.

Only 48 hours remained before the Socialist-dominated government clamps on a new sales tax that will boost sharply the cost of living.

The tax amounts to a nine-per cent increase, effective Aug. 1, on the wholesale price of all consumer goods except food and clothing. A pack of 20 cigarettes will increase to 67 cents from 61.

IT HAPPENED LAST NIGHT

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Kitty Kallen got back her lost voice the other night in a beautiful Broadway story.

For four years, she knew it was gone. She took the couch cure . . . four analysts, a new one each year. Kitty knew it was useless. She had "paralyzed vocal cords."

"Maybe hypnosis," somebody suggested. She tried that. "It was Nightmare Alley," says her husband, Budd Granoff.

Kitty knew she was through. Mitch Miller reminded her one day she had a recording contract, she said, "But I've lost my voice." Mitch pleaded.

"If I Give My Heart to You" was a good record—but Kitty was unconvinced. She couldn't face audiences again. She did try the small towns under a phony name . . . but only two nights under the phony, the third night (Saturday) as Kitty Kallen.

The phony name was always a hit; Kitty Kallen a flop.

Somewhere in there Kitty got the message—she didn't need those advisers. She had to do it on her own. Gradually it came back.

The other night, at the Persian Room at the Plaza, we were all nervous. Her gown was late ariving. What if she "lost her voice" again?

Kitty swept out with great confidence — pretty, friendly, warm, youthful—she was a solid hit. After the applause and the flowers, I tried to get the answer.

"Maybe it was because her father had died," said somebody. (This has afected other singers.) "Maybe the analysts did help her," another suggested. "Maybe religion helped her," thought one. "Didn't she make mention of prayer?"

Anyway, Kitty, on her own, has got back the voice she never really lost, in a story that will mystify and please us, for a lot of years to come.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Liz Taylor is "irate" about the suggestion she wants Eddie Fisher back . . . The Milton Berles deny trouble rumors.

South African censors banned "Lolita" . . . Are the Robby Robertsons (Linda Darnell) planning a Mexican bust-up? . . . Buddy Hacket, appearing on the July 31 Talent Scouts TV'er, is in "Mad, Mad World" with Mickey Rooney. Buddy says Mickey—who went broke —"plays my accountant" . . . Elvis Presley was told to quit his karate lessons—the board-busting made his hands look lumpy in close-ups.

Juliet Prowse'll headline the Christmas show at the Miami Beach Deauville . . . Elia Kazan's "Anatolian Smile" got a title change to "America, America," starts filming in Greece next month . . . "Lawrence of Arabia" won't be shown in Arabia for awhile—no 70-mm. equipment in the theatres . . . Capital Records reportedly sent Judy Garland a $250,000 cheque — royalties for her Carnegie Hall album—with more to come.

EARL'S PEARLS: The poorest judge of strength is the housewife who thinks she can stretch a dollar.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A pitiful case, reports Hugh Allen, is the movie actor who's getting so old he goes on vacations instead of honeymoons.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Whenever you see a want ad for "a mature woman," you can bet the boss' wife put it in.

Singer Barbra Streisand, now at the Blue Angel, says she realized she had hit the big time when they began paying her as much as her accompanist. That's earl, brother.

Do Children Grow Up Too Soon?

Should we force our children to be adults so quickly? Don't they have a right to childhood? In August Reader's Digest "Babes in Arms" tells what happens when mothers, PTA or scoutmasters push, prod, and urge children into the social arena too soon. It's called "adjusting", but the forced mingling of 12 year-old girls and 13 year-old boys doesn't always mean "wholesome contacts". Who is to blame? THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME

By JIMMY HATLO

BUSINESS BUFF MAGAZINE WANTS TO RUN A PICTURE, SO I HAD SOME TAKEN---WHICH ONE OF THESE PROOFS DO YOU LIKE, FELONIUS?
GOSH, CHIEF-- IT'S HARD TO SAY-- THEY'RE ALL VERY GOOD OF YOU--THIS SMILING ONE IS YOU ALL RIGHT--BUT THIS THOUGHTFUL ONE CATCHES YOUR STRENGTH--WHICH ONE DO YOU LIKE, SIR??
THEY ALL LOOK LIKE THOSE SICK GET-WELL CARDS TO ME----
FELONIUS WOULDN'T KNOCK A PASSPORT PHOTO IF BIGDOME POSED FOR IT!!
THEY'LL BE OKAY WHEN THE RETOUCHER PUTS IN A LITTLE MORE HAIR AND BRAINS!!
HE OUGHT TO PUT THAT SMILING ONE ON THE POST OFFICE WALL--THEY'D NEVER CATCH HIM--- GETTING COMPLIMENTS ON THE PORTRAIT PROOFS--WHAT ELSE??

Opening lead—see article

One universal expert convention is that if you double three no-trump when your side has not bid you are asking your partner to lead the first suit bid by dummy. Practically all South players reached three no trump on the bidding shown and while all East players wanted a spade opening only one had the courage or bravado to double and ask for it.

At all other tables West opened the jack of hearts and South rattled off 10 tricks.

At the table where East doubled West led a spade as requested, but for some reason best known to himself West led the five, not the king.

This sensational lead gave East quite a problem. He could have solved it most favorably by playing the ten, but East rose with the ace and then proceeded to make the key mistake of the hand.

He wasn't going to get anywhere by leading a spade and his only hope had to be a shift to hearts, but East was going to keep spades going. He returned the queen of spades!

West took his king and shifted to the jack of hearts where-upon South made the same 10 tricks everyone else had made.

"FOREST"
CEDAR

FOREST SIDING?

Made of dry 1½" stock in 10 and 12-inch widths, "FOREST" siding is a new type of siding obtained from specially selected cedar logs sawn to show the beauty and character of knots, burls, etc.

APPEARANCE?

For homes and buildings where a distinctive and pleasing appearance is desired, enhanced by heavy shadow lines. Sound intergrown knots ranging in size from 2-inch in 6-inch widths to 4-inch in 12-inch widths add to the rustic appearance of this grade.

WHAT ARE ITS QUALITIES?

"FOREST" siding, with its substantial thickness and greater wood volume, adds to the structural STRENGTH and solidity of the building.

The design of "FOREST" siding ensures a tight weather seal at the lap which together with its thickness and flush-to-base principle makes excellent material from the INSULATION standpoint.

"FOREST" siding represents an economy to home builders. Costing less than most other types of siding, the lap design ensures easy fitting and speedy application at less labor cost.

HOW IS IT APPLIED?

As easily and quickly as common shiplap. Each piece of "FOREST" siding fits snugly on the one below and requires only one mitre cut.

HOW CAN IT BE FINISHED?

If a natural finish is desired, use equal proportions of raw linseed oil and any well-known brand waterproof sealer. This not only protects the wood surface, but also brings out the natural beauty of the knots and the grain. If a colored finish is desired, "FOREST" siding can easily be painted. It is recommended that a sharp instrument be used to score the finished product underneath the butt (where it will not show) to stop formation of a vapor barrier.

HERNIA AID
Made for the common reducible inguinal hernia, either right, left or double. Each unit furnished with both right and left specially formed supporting pads to allow the Balanced Support recommended by many physicians. Supporting both sides gives greater comfort and makes a hernia less likely to occur on the unaffected side. Designed for maximum safety and containment under action, gives superior performance, is amazingly light and comfortable. $8.95.

Retirement Paradise On Rockland Ave.
THE ARTIST'S DELIGHT! THE DREAM OF MANY—PARTICULARLY THE ENGLISH TYPE! This is a well known residence which resulted from the conversion of a coach house, supervised by the well known architect Patrick B Birley. Situated high up on Rockland and enjoying panoramic views of the sea and mountains, this residence is eminently suited for the retired couple desirous of procuring a home of charm, close in and yet enjoying all the amenities and seclusion of the rural countryside. Accommodation includes handsome drawing room, dining room, 2 bedrooms and modern oil heating system. The grounds, which extend to 1⅓ acres, are in their natural state of grass, rock and well grown oaks. Adjoining land may be purchased making a total area of about 2½ acres. The property was the subject of an illustrated article in the January, 1962 issue of Western Homes & Living. The asking price is $23,000 with a very reasonable down payment.

ACROSS THE PROVINCE

Fishermen Seek New Negotiation

(Compiled From CP)

VANCOUVER — With a strike deadline six days away, B.C.'s 11,000 fishermen and shoreworkers will seek new meetings with management to settle their wage dispute.

Homer Stevens, secretary of the United Fishermen and Allied Workers' Union (Ind.) said Sunday bargaining committees for fishermen and shoreworkers will attempt to reopen negotiations.

Management spokesmen said earlier they will not meet union demands.

Salmon fishermen seek 36 cents a pound for sockeye. Shoreworkers want a boost of 25 cents an hour on a basic scale of $1.49 for women and $1.79 for men. Tendermen are demanding $25 a month more on salaries ranging from $321 to $431.

Mr. Stevens said the union will hold a meeting Wednesday to decide whether or not to carry out the threat to strike Aug. 4.

Votes among sections of the union varied from 54 to 60 per cent in favor of a walkout.

Union business agent Alex Gordon said a strike by any one of the union groups would tie up the entire industry at the halfway mark of the salmon season.

CHILD SUFFOCATED

QUESNEL — A 16-month-old abby was suffocated by a plastic bag here Saturday. Police said Lyon Appleby Jr. was found dead in his crib.

MAN STABBED

VANCOUVER — A young woman walked into Oscar Johnson's hotel room early Sunday and said: "I would like to jab this into someone."

She then stabbed Mr. Johnson, 63, in the abdomen with a penknife.

There was no explanation for her action. The wounded man was treated in hospital.

ARSON SUSPECTED

GIBSONS — Firemen said they suspect arson in a blaze that destroyed the nearby Roberts Creek elementary school Sunday.

Men from the volunteer department at this Howe Sound community said some items taken from the school were found hidden in bushes.

They listed the items as two dozen fret saws, some carpentry pencils and a fire extinguisher.

Firemen, assisted by the forestry department and volunteers could do little more than keep the blaze from spreading.

Students from the three-room one-storey wooden school will attend school in Sechelt, about nine miles away.

PINNED BY TRACTOR

KEREMEOS — Stanley Gordon Miles, 39, of North Vancouver, was crushed to death when his tractor rolled down an embankment Sunday.

A passing motorist found Miles pinned under the tractor in Richter Pass, 18 miles southwest of here.

CBC EXPANSION

VANCOUVER — The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation extends its television coverage to the Cranbrook and Kimberley areas starting Aug. 6.

The vehicle for the new service is a rebroadcaster using the call letters CBUBT with a strength of 1,100 watts.

Regular network programs will be fed from the Trans-Canada Telephone microwave system to a guide tower at Moyie Mountain, then to an equipment site at Bald Hill, and finally into the 1,100-watt transmitter for rebroadcast.

During the period when the network is silent to allow local programming, the CBC's Calgary relay station will transmit films and tapes of programs from CBUT, Vancouver, for use only in areas served by the Trail and Kimberley-Cranbrook rebroadcasters.

Network viewing will run about 7½ hours a day.

Air Base Commander Victim of U.S. Crash

EVERETT, Wash. (AP) — Two air force officers, including the commander of Paine Air Force base near here, were killed Sunday when a twin-engine jet transport overturned and crashed into an embankment.

Col. Kearie L. Berry Jr., 43, in charge of the base since May 1, was a passenger in the plane piloted by Lt.-Col. Leroy D. Tate.

LIGHTHOUSE THREATENED

City Fishermen Fight Bush Fire

By JOHN MANNING
Times Staff Reporter

PORT ALICE — Crews of two Victoria-based salmon trollers were instrumental Friday night in saving a west coast lighthouse from destruction by a bush fire.

They also possibly saved the lives of the lighthouse personnel and their children from the blaze which enveloped Kains Island situated at the entrance of Quatsino Sound about 25 miles west of Port Alice.

O. J. Powell, skipper of the Marauder King and Richard Wiliams, captain of the Sea Beam, made for the island when they saw a mass of flames and smoke. Flames were within 30 yards of lighthouse buildings when they arrived.

Crews battled the fire for 90 minutes before two department of fisheries men arrived from Port Hardy in a Beaver plane with fire pumps. By 10 p.m. it was under control.

The island is occupied by lighthouse keeper Robert Collins, his wife and two children and Edward Kidder, assistant keeper.

Mr. Kidder had taken his wife and eight-month-old baby to the far end of the island when crews from the two trollers arrived to fight the fire.

The Island Tug and Barge Co. tug Lloyd B. Gorge, captained by Douglas Slater, sent out the call for assistance.

The 135-foot tug was discharging freight from a barge at Port Alice when word was received of the fire.

It also sailed to the island in the event more assistance would be needed.

Small Pension Boost For Ex-City Workers

August superannuation cheques for 133 retired city employees and 33 dependents will be a little larger.

By special arrangement with the provincial superannuation service up to a maximum of $25 ed a boost of $1 for each year of service up to a maximum of $25 for those who retired on pre-inflation pensions.

$10 MONTHLY

Some in the group, retired before a new plan began April 1, 1957, were receiving as little as $10 a month. The modest increase will cost the city $21,588 this year with half of it being paid by surplus interest earnings in the superannuation fund.

Ald. J. L. W. McLean, who urged the increase to council, said it was a step in the right direction.

"We can easily see a piece of broken pavement and have it fixed by our public works department," he commented.

"Sometimes, however, we overlook human need. I'm all for this increase and would support any way that could be found of increasing the amount further

IKE REGRETS NOT HELPING DICK TO WIN

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Dwight D. Eisenhower says his worst mistake as president was political, in not doing more to elect Richard Nixon to the White House.

Eisenhower told a press conference here it would be "fatuous" for any man in public office to claim an error-free career and added:

"The worst mistake I made was in not working harder to elect the man I thought should be my successor," an obvious reference to Nixon who was defeated by John F. Kennedy in 1960.

Eisenhower stopped here on a European tour with his wife, Mamie, two grandchildren and some friends.

Police Admit Knowing Goofballs Smuggled Into Vancouver Jail

VANCOUVER (CP) — Police said Sunday they have known for nearly two weeks that barbiturates were being smuggled to addicts in the Vancouver jail.

Officers said a note describing the smuggling technique was intercepted in the jail.

The statement followed a Vancouver Sun report that "goodballs" were being hauled through a jail window on a rope under the noses of police and in full view of passersby on Main Street, a downtown thoroughfare. (Goofballs are used as a substitute for narcotics.)

Asked what would be done about the smuggling, police chief Ralph Booth and acting deputy chief John Fisk refused to comment.

Maintenance officials said the smuggling will soon be stopped without police action because new screens are going to be installed on jail windows.

One officer said: "Those things (the barbiturates) are harmless. It's not really much different from smuggling in chocolate bars."

The newspaper said the smuggling operation worked this way:

The prisoner squeezed his arm through the wire mesh at a corridor window, and swung the rope, weighted with whatever was available over the roof of the West Coast Central Club, next door.

When the rope reached the sidewalk on Main Street, an accomplice attached a small package to the end of the line and signalled with a shout or a whistle that it was ready to be hauled up.

Police said the Sun has yet to report their knowledge of smuggling incidents to the police.

VETERANS AND OLDSTERS in Victoria will be able to go to the centennial pageant this week as guests of employees of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, whose candidate, Carol-Ann Howay, was elected Centennial Queen. More than 100 tickets were left over from the bank's booklets. Here Mayor Harris, alias Ed McFayden, receives the tickets for distribution from bank manager I. C. Youth Killed In Car Crash Near Nanaimo

NANAIMO — Christopher Skeldock, 18, of Wellington, died Saturday from injuries received in a collision on the Wellington-Nanaimo Road.

He was a passenger in a car driven by Eugene Beaulieu.

The car apparently swerved to avoid hitting another car and stuck a third vehicle.

The boy's father, Gerald Skeldock, returning home from work, was the second person at the accident scene. Not knowing his son was dying, he directed traffic around the accident scene.

The youth died six hours later in hospital.

Others in the crash were not seriously injured.

NANAIMO — More than 150 entries are expected Sunday in the annual mass swim from Malaspina dock here to Protection Island, a distance of about a mile and a half.

The mass swim, believed to be the largest in B.C., is sponsored by a realty firm.

Contestants will share $1,000 in prizes, and silver dollars will be given to all entrants.

* * *

DUNCAN—Alfred Campbell, 530 Tait Street, Victoria, who suffered internal injuries in an accident Saturday, is reported in "fairly good" condition at King's Daughters' Hospital here.

He was driver of a truck which plowed into the railing of a railway overpass about 3½ miles north of here.

The truck then swerved across the road and smashed into the other railing, before coming to rest overhanging the bridge parapet.

He was unconscious and bleeding from the ears and mouth when he was taken to hospital.

PORTLAND — Twenty members of a Duncan Boy Scout troop will be guests of Portland Troop 40 Aug. 6-13.

It is part of an exchange program. Eleven Portland Scouts visited the Second Quamichan Troop at Duncan last year.

Duncan Scouts will tour the Portland air base, attend a baseball game, visit the city zoo and view scenic spots in the area.

Civil Servants to Drive For Arbitration Rights

Unification of all federal civil servants and the right to negotiate with the government were given strong endorsement Saturday at a west coast conference of civil servants.

Seventy B.C. delegates met here as a prelude to the Civil Servants' Federation of Canada triennial convention to be held in Hamilton next month.

National president of the 85,000-member federation, Fred W. Whitehouse, was a speaker at the day-long session at DVA Hospital.

OPPOSED TO STRIKE

Delegates put on the record their opposition to strike, slowdown or any other form of protest over government inaction on wage increases.

The conference advocated further effort toward gaining the right of negotiation, plus binding arbitration by an independent body in the event of bargaining breakdown.

Delegates called deferment of recommended wage increases, that would have benefitted 50,000 civil servants in October, a double assessment on civil servants, already affected by the government's austerity program.

Victoria district council president Gordon Campbell said the most critical matter at the moment is joint action on behalf of the three major CS organizations—Civil Servants' Federation, Civil Service Association and Civil Service Professional Institute.

Representatives of these groups have been consulting government representatives on a joint basis for the past few weeks in connection with salaries.

This was the "first stage of unity—the most critical thing at the moment. It is unity, in effect, except that there is no common charter," Mr. Campbell said.

TO THE PUBLIC

He said he wanted to correct any misinterpretation of a statement made Saturday relating to proposed political action by civil servants.

"There is no threat in our minds of any irresponsible action," the local president said.

"To us political action is simply taking our story to the public, as is the right of any citizen."

Strike Action Isn't Practical

By JOHN E. BIRD

OTTAWA (CP)—Can federal civil servants go on strike to enforce demands for wage increases or other benefits?

The question came to the fore here after the government announced it was deferring action on salary increases for 50,000 of its 130,000 employees.

The answer from a practical point of view is no.

There's no law establishing strike procedure for federal government employees although there's no law prohibiting them from taking strike action.

Working conditions of federal government workers are governed by the provisions of the Civil Service Act. It contains no ban against strikes or provision for such action.

Recognized bargaining units of workers falling within federal jurisdiction are governed by the industrial relations and disputes investigation act.

This act makes provisions for legal strikes after certain conditions have been met. The workers involved in such strikes cannot lose their jobs or suffer other penalties.

EXCLUDED

However, federal civil servants are specifically excluded from the Federal Labor Act. Its provisions under which legal strikes may be staged do not apply to government workers.

Under the common law a civil servant—or any other worker—has the right to withdraw his services. But in taking such action he is not protected against dismissal by his employer.

Legal officials here say that if federal workers went on strike they would be exercising their common law right to withdraw their services.

They say the government likely would regard such action as a breach of a worker's contract or absenteeism without just cause. Employees involved could be suspended, dismissed or subjected to other penalties.

The three major civil service bodies—the Civil Service Association of Canada, the Civil Service Federation of Canada and the Professional Institute of the Civil Service of Canada—are opposed to any form of strike action by government employees.

Under the Civil Service Act, these organizations may consult with the government on wages and other working conditions. They have urged consistently that there should be provision in the act for arbitration with the decision of arbitrator binding on both employees and the government.

Spokesmen for the three organizations say this position has not been changed by the government's decision to defer consideration of salary increases.

"We are not seeking the right to strike," one official said. "All we want is a system of arbitration."

Controversial Poet, Biographer Aldington Dead

LERE, France (Reuters) — Richard Aldington, 70-year-old British novelist, poet and controversial biographer, died here Friday, it was learned Sunday.

Only his daughter Catherine, who was with him when he died at his lonely cottage in nearby Sury-en-Vaux, and a few friends were at the funeral Sunday.

Aldington first won fame as a novelist, but in recent years it was his biographies which kept him in the public eye.

When his biography of T. E. Lawrence — Lawrence of Arabia — was published seven years ago it raised a storm in Britain that has not yet died down.

Aldington claimed that many of the exploits that made Lawrence an international celebrity and literary hero after the First World War were products of Lawrence's imagination and his biography pictured Lawrence as a compulsive liar.

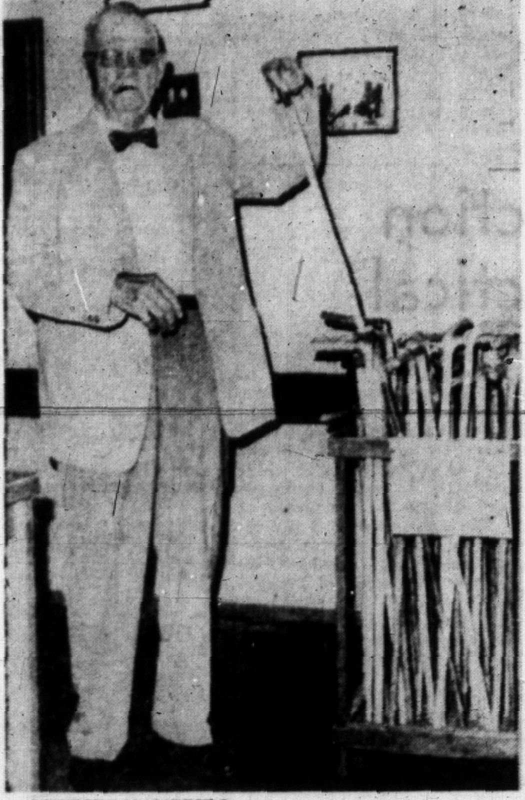
Albany: Battle Ground In War of Integration

★ ★ ★



SHERIFF CAMPBELL
. . . reached for the cane rack

By DON McKEE

ALBANY, Ga. (AP)—The struggle of the southern Negro for integration into a white society through non-violent protest has made Albany a decisive battle ground.

The test has come in a deep south city which is steeped in a tradition of segregation held over from the days when Negro slaves were sold from an auction block downtown.

But despite the traditions, Albany's 58,000 population—40 per cent Negro—is sprinkled liberally with moderate white people. A sizeable segment of the population migrated from the north; still others have their ancestral roots above the Mason-Dixon line.

There has been a tangible air of moderation in racial matters in some fields.

REGISTER TO VOTE

Negroes register to vote freely, as compared to the difficulty they encounter in surrounding counties. In the segregated system, since the war every white school facility has been matched by a Negro facility.

And since mass racial demonstrations began, there have been only isolated instances of minor violence, no major rioting as has occurred in some other southern cities.

One of the biggest factors involved in Albany's being chosen as a pilot city was the determination of the Albany Movement, headed by Dr. W. G. Anderson, an osteopath.

Dr. Anderson's group began three years ago seeking first to at least crack racial walls by negotiating with city officials. All efforts have failed.

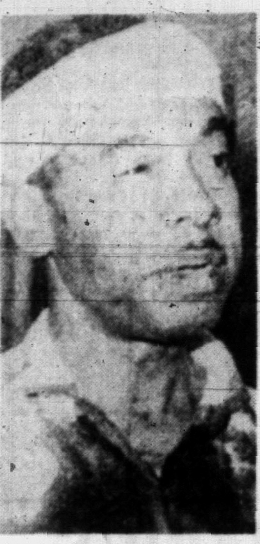
This year Negroes staged sit-ins at lunch counters, put up occasional pickets lines to emphasize a boycott of merchants and forced the local transit system into bankruptcy by refusing to ride segregated buses.

Negro leaders have indicated they hope to wage an all-out, long-range and continuing battle until they attain their goals.

But with 26 persons arrested last week, Negro followers of the Albany Movement showed no inclination Sunday to join their leaders in hot and often crowded jail cells.

Efforts to stage a demonstration produced three persons from a crowd of several hundred. The three went to city hall, prayed and left.

Sheriff Used Cane to Oust Negro Lawyer



LAWYER KING
. . . two-inch scalp wound

ALBANY, Ga. (AP) — The 76-year-old sheriff of Dougherty County said Sunday he struck a Negro lawyer with a cane because the lawyer was "interfering with business in the office" and refused to leave.

Sheriff D. C. Campbell said he ordered lawyer C. B. King out of his office Saturday night after telling King several times to wait outside. The lawyer, who went to the sheriff's office to see about a prisoner, suffered a two-inch scalp wound and was in hospital overnight.

The incident occurred after King sought information about William Hansen, a 23-year-old Cincinnati white youth jailed for participating in one of two Negro prayer demonstrations Saturday.

Hansen was in hospital with a broken jaw and a cut lip which Campbell said the youth received in a cell fight with another prisoner.

Youth Jailed For 42 Years

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) — Two white teen-agers have been sentenced to long prison terms for kidnapping a Negro boy and assaulting Negro pedestrians last month.

Lacy Morris Jr., 18, was sentenced to a total of 42 years' imprisonment and Roger Cubbage, 17, to a total of 36 years here Saturday when convicted by an all-male jury.

CAUGHT BY SNOWSTORM CLIMBER DIES ON PEAK

GRAND TETON NATIONAL PARK, Wyo. (AP)—A raging snowstorm struck Grand Teton peak as a party of 10 mountain climbers neared the top Thursday and one died of exposure before rescuers reached them Sunday.

Park rangers brought the nine survivors down from the 13,766-foot peak.

The body of Stephen Smith, 21, of Holden, Mass., was found by rangers earlier Sunday.

'Bloody Revolution' Threat

SALISBURY, Southern Rhodesia (Reuters) — Nationalist leader Joshua Nkomo Sunday warned Britain that his Zimbabwe Peoples Union would drop constitutional methods if Southern Rhodesia does not become "free and independent" soon.

Nkomo spoke of "bloody revolution" as a possibility.

He said at a press conference his party's congress would be held within the next two months and a deadline for Britain to act would be announced then. Southern Rhodesia is classified as a self-governing colony.

Nkomo said:

"It all depends on Britain which policy we fololw. There are only three methods possible—negotiations, complete economic breakdown or bloody revolution."

Nkomo said his party was not interested in negotiating with Premier Sir Edgar Whitehead's Southern Rhodesian government. "Britain put Southern Rhodesia into this mess and Britain must get it out."

BOWLER BIT OF ALL RIGHT IF CHAP'S BOPPED ON BEAN

LONDON (AP)—Britons were advised today it's safer as well as smarter to wear a bowler hat.

A Home Office pathologist, Dr. Francis Camps, said it could save a man's life in a traffic accident.

The hard brim and crown of a bowler would help lessen their injuries, he suggested, "filling the same role as a crash helmet for motorcyclists."

ROGERS PASS OPENED

B.C., Canada Tie the Knot

By FRANK RUTTER
Times Staff Reporter

REVELSTOKE—British Columbia joined the rest of Canada today on a ribbon of blacktop that stretches from coast to coast.

For the first time public traffic was allowed through the Rogers Pass section of the Trans-Canada Highway — its most spectacular section.

Premier Bennett and Highways Minister P. A. Gaglardi did the honors complete with grandstand, flag, band and thousands of people eight miles east of Revelstoke.

Pressure? Who Me? Poppycock!

REVELSTOKE — Highways Minister P. A. Gaglardi today hotly denied he had put pressure on contractors to finance the hoopla of the Rogers' Pass opening.

It is true, he said, contractors are paying for the big show.

Mr. Gaglardi said he knew there was a report circulating in Ottaw that contractors were angry at being forced to pay $17,000.

NO ASSESMENT

"That stuff is all poppycock," he said here. "We have not asked the contractors for one five-cent piece. There was no assessment on the contractors. They did it entirely on their own."

Some 20 contractors were involved in the 92-mile Rogers Pass project officially opened today.

They are paying for a lunch for VIPs at the local Chalet dining room, for a barbecue of 3,000 pounds of beef to feed 5,000 people, and $100 for a band.

Mr. Gaglardi said he didn't know how much this cost but the highways department is not paying for anything except grandstands, flags and ropes on the opening site.

T-BIRD LOANED

A $9,800 Tunderbird convertible for the use of Premier Bennett and Mr. Gaglardi, was loaned by Dearborn Motors in Salmon Arm.

Public relations man Bill Clancey, handling the show for the press, said he doubted whether the entire wing-ding cost more than $5,000 to $6,000.

The Highway is open—and its going to stay open, said Mr. Gaglardi emphatically.

ROAD STAYS OPEN

He pooh-poohed reports that the federal government would close the road as soon as B.C.'s ceremony was finished.

The opening of Rogers Pass was as fraught with controversy as its choice six years ago.

In 1956 the row was about where the highway should go, 92 miles from Revelstoke to Golden through Rogers Pass, or more than 200 miles through the southerly Jumbo Pass.

Today the row is about who should take credit for it.

A host of Ottawa officials were invited to B.C.'s ceremony. But they're not coming. Instead they'll attend a ceremony of their own Sept. 3, 50 miles further east.

PRE-SHOW TRIP

I drove with Mr. Gaglardi and two engineers on a pre-show inspection trip of the highway Sunday afternoon.

He was ecastatic.

"How about that?" (like driving on a cloud).

"Man, that's something." (snow-tipped peaks).

"Did you ever see anything like that?" (glittering glaciers).

"It's stupendous—that's the word for it. It's the most spectacular highway in the world."

His pride and joy skims 92 miles through canyons, forests, mountains.

COST $66 MILLION

Built at an estimated cost of $66 million, it soars to 4,200 feet at Mount McDonald, takes an hour and three-quarters (60 m.p.h. all the way) instead of the miserable, gritty seven hours around the Big Bend, 100 miles longer and on gravel, which was previously the only route through the three ranges of mountains, Selkirks, Monashee and Clachnacudainn.

The Rogers Pass, discovered in 1882 by Major (Hell's Bells) A. B. Rogers, was the first route of the CPR which created Revelstoke. Now, says Mr. Gaglardi, the highway will "really make" Revelstoke.

An awesome average winter snowfall of 400 inches forced

EVEREST TEAM MEMBER KILLED ON SOVIET PEAK

LONDON (Reuters)—Two British mountaineers taking part in an Anglo-Soviet climbing expedition in Russia have been killed, a cable from British expedition leader Sir John Hunt said today.

The cable said the men died July 24 while climbing the 19,785-foot Garmo peak in the Pamir Mountains of Mystery.

The men were identified as Wilfred Noyce, a member of the Commonwealth expedition that conquered Mount Everest in 1953 under Hunt, and Robin Smith.

Noyce, 43, was a writer and was reporting the expedition for the London Daily Herald. Smith, 23, a philosophy graduate, lived in Edinburgh.

17 ARRESTED

Boatloads Of Police Raid Inn

NORTH VANCOUVER (CP) — Police seized 300 cases of beer, dice and playing cards Sunday in a raid on a remote resort popular with tourists for its afternoon teas.

They also arrested 15 men and two women and charged them with offences ranging from gambling conspiracy to bribe an RCMP corporal.

Two boatloads of RCMP took part in the raid shortly after midnight of Wigwam Inn, a picturesque hotel on a scenic inlet 20 miles northeast of here.

"This was the commencement of what was intended to be a very large operation and it was nipped in the bud in the early stages," Crown prosecutor George Murray told a special police court session where bail was set for the accused Sunday.

Three were charged with trying to bribe Cpl. Jack McDonald. They are lawyer Rockmill Myers, William Foulder Robertson and Jack McGrath, all of Vancouver.

They are charged with giving the corporal $1,000 in cash and several paintings and antiques to facilitate the committing of an offence and with interfering with the administration of justice.

SAYS PAINTINGS STOLEN

Mr. Murray said the paintings had been stolen in Victoria and Nanaimo, B.C.

(Art Gallery curator Colin Graham said today he had not had official notification of the fact that police hold the paintings—a landscape, a seascape and a portrait of about $3,500 value—stolen from the gallery July 19. He said he understood they were recovered in excellent condition.)

Cpl. McDonald was to try to raise his status with his superiors and tip the accused when police action was expected against the gambling at the inn, he said.

Bail for Myers was set at $10,000 and at $25,000 each for Robertson and McGrath.

The bribery charge carries a maximum prison sentence of 14 years.

Bail of $5,000 each was set for Bunta Singh, Keith Anderson of Vancouver and Irwin Victor Moore of North Vancouver, all charged with keeping a gambling house.

Charged as inmates of the gambling house and released on bail of $100 were Joy Ames, Muriel Cote, Kenneth Ames, Zolton Bartok, David Cross, Scott Newton, Orville Brill, Lawrence Gordon and Michael Slack.

Twelve Vancouver homes were also raided.

OPENED WITH AXES and sledge hammer, Humboldt Street liquor store safe yielded $12,500 to safecrackers on Sunday. Store clerk Reg Gillard examines hole chopped in the bottom.

Axes Used To Hack Safe Open

Thieves broke into the Humboldt Street liquor store sometime Sunday and stole $12,500 from the safe.

City police say the safe was torn from its mounting in the office of the store manager, and taken to the rear of the store where it was forced open with axes and a sledge hammer.

(Police estimate it would take about 15 minutes to open the 1,000-pound steel box in this way.)

WEEKEND TAKE

A hole was chopped in the bottom of the safe, the dial and handle were broken off, and door was pulled free of its hinges.

The strongbox inside was opened, and the $12,500—the Saturday night take—removed.

Staff was at work this morning taking stock to ascertain whether any liquor had been stolen.

Beer cases and bottles littered around the area where the safe had been broken open indicated the thieves had drunk some beer while they worked on the safe.

Entry to the liquor store was gained through the Empress Garage, 629 Courtney Street.

Letting themselves into the garage—evidently with a key—the thieves helped themselves to some acetylene equipment.

They left the acetylene tanks in the garage, dropped hoses from them through the window to a floor below on the east side of the building, and used the equipment to cut through bars on a window of the liquor store.

HIDDEN

It cannot be seen from the street.

A venetian blind at the front of the store, normally never closed, was drawn by the thieves, evidently to avoid being seen by persons across the street in the Empress Hotel.

"They were pretty cool customers," said store manager George Davies.

"They knew their stuff all

PRICE SLASHED

Uranium Sale Made to U.K.

OTTAWA (CP)—The United Kingdom will buy 24,000,000 pounds of Canadian uranium at a price of $127,700,000 under terms of a contract signed here today after protracted negotiations between the two governments.

The contract was signed following negotiation of 1957 letters of intent in which Britain signified that it was prepared to buy this amount of uranium at a price of some $192,000,000. That was based on $8 a pound compared with the new basic price announced today of $5.03 a pound.

Deliveries under the contract, signed by Trade Minister Hees for Crown-owned Eldorado Mining and Refining Limited of Canada and by Sir Roger Makins, chairman of the United Kingdom Atomic Energy Authority, will take place over a period extending into the early 1970s.

CONDITIONS CHANGED

While the letters of intent were exchanged between the two Crown agencies in 1957, they did not become public knowledge until March of 1961. After their disclosure, Britain asked for renegotiation of price and delivery schedules in view of changed uranium market conditions, with a heavy world surplus.

Britain will pay a basic price of $5.03 a pound compared with $8 originally envisaged. However, this figure will rise under a provision providing for premiums and carrying charges to be paid by Britain for deferment of deliveries.

The statement said the contract will have the effect of extending the period of operations of Canadian uranium

$70 Million 'Sell-Out' Miners Say

TORONTO (CP) — Mining officials were critical today about an Ottawa announcement that Britain has signed a contract to purchase $127,000,000 in Canadian uranium.

Steve Roman, president of Denison Mines Limited, which operates at Elliott Lake, Ont., described the contract as a "perpetuation of the tactical blunders of the previous administration . . ."

He said "the immature and irrational concessions by the Canadian government constitutes a sell-out of Canada's uranium industry to the tune of $10,000,000."

Gilbert Labine, president of Gunnar Mines Limited in Saskatchewan's Beaverlodge area, said:

"We're jubilant about the signing of the contract but I wouldn't use the word jubilant about the price we're getting."

Hotel Bombed In Kelowna; Douks Blamed

KELOWNA (CP)—Fragments from a time bomb ripped through the floor of a hotel room here Sunday narrowly missing a sleeping family [illegible]

The bomb, planted in a steel locker, wrecked the coffee shop, kitchen and two washrooms on the main floor of the Willow Inn five minutes after two hotel employees walked past the locker.

Fragments pierced the floor of the second-floor room occupied by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baillie and their children aged two to 10, from Burnaby.

CHEAP WATCH

RCMP said bits of a dry cell battery and a cheap pocket watch found at the scene indicate that the explosion was the work of Sons of Freedom Doukhobors.

RCMP said many Doukhobors including members of the Freedomite sect come to Kelowna during the summer as fruit pickers. Hundreds of people visited the bus terminal coffee shop at the hotel and anyone of them could have planted the bomb.

Four years ago a similar explosion damaged the hotel beverage room.

TRAGEDY FOLLOWS FAMILY REUION

Cars Crash at Curve: Eight Dead

QUESNEL (CP)—The death toll rose to eight today in a two-car collision that took the lies of six members of one family late Saturday night.

Otto Thompson, about 50, of Alexandria, B.C., died in hospital here today, about 36 hours after the high-speed crash killed six members of the James Paxton family and left two other Paxton children injured, one critically.

Thompson was run down by a car 20 minutes after the crash while directing traffic with a flashlight at the scene of the wreck.

The collision occurred on a curve of newly-paved highway without a white centre line. Police said the highway at the crash scene, 8½ miles south of Quesnel, was black-topped two weeks ago but the dividing line hadn't been painted.

The Paxton family was returning from a family reunion when the collision claimed the lives of the mother and father and four of their children.

A mother and her two sons were also injured in the mishap which RCMP said was the worst on record in the British Columbia interior.

The victims are James Paxton, 29, his wife Eleanor, 25, their children, Judy, 7; Joseph, 5; Linda, 4, and Wendy, five months, and Alfred Joseph Carriere, about 30, of Alexandria, 25 miles south of here.

In critical condition is Patsy Paxton, 8, while her sister Cindy Lou, 2, was in satisfactory condition today.

Police said the Paxtons were returning to their home at Williams Lake, 65 miles south of here, when their car was in collision with Carriere's car.

Injured in the second car were Mrs. Myrtle Heibert of Alexandria and her sons, Keith, 8, and Darryl, 5.

Wreckage and bodies were strewn along the highway. The car which struck Thompson knocked a parked vehicle into the ditch, setting it on fire.

The Paxtons had been visiting Mrs. Paxton's mother near Quesnel where Mrs. Paxton was reunited with her sister, Mrs. Patricia Stanley, of Cloverdale, B.C.

"We had a wonderful time . . . talking over old times and just generally chatting," said Mrs. Stanley.

WEEK IN BUSINESS

Income Tax Cut in U.S. Up in Air

NEW YORK (AP) — The rumor-buffeted U.S. dollar got a reassuring pat on the back last week.

President Kennedy, speaking at a press conference televised live to Europe via Telstar satellite, pledged that the dollar will not be devaluated.

"Those who speculate against the dollar are going to lose," he said.

Speculators who had set on rumors that the dollar would be devaluated rushed to sell their gold mining shares. Prices of shares tumbled on New York, London and Johannesburg exchanges. The price of actual gold declined on the London bullion market.

The dollar was in the news on another front. Americans learned that in June it wouldn't go as far in covering the cost of living as it did in May.

Mainly because of higher food prices, the consumers price index advanced one-tenth of one per cent to a record 105.3 per cent of the 1957-59 base period.

The index has increased eight-tenths of one per cent this year, rising to records in four of the six months.

The possibility of an income tax cut remained up in the air with Kennedy saying he wanted to see the July economic statistics before making a decision.

MARKING TIME?

The stock market, moving within a moderate trading range, was considered by some brokers to be marking time pending a decision on the tax matter.

A development regarded as indicating rising confidence in the market was the excellent reception given a 1,580,680-share secondary offering of General Motors Corp. Common stock at $49.62 a share.

The Chase Manhattan Bank of New York reported that business indicators appeared to be acting "very much as they usually do six months or so in advance of a business downturn."

It added that "the question is being raised as to whether the economy may not be nearing the end of the period of expansion which has now run for 17 months."

In the railroad industry, operating unions sued to prevent the carriers from changing work rules Aug. 16 and threatened to strike unless the plans are called off. The railroads had announced their intention to enforce economy changes in operating methods recommended by a presidential commission.

Generally good six-month corporate earnings reports brightened the business picture. This was particularly true in the booming automobile industry, where General Motors, Ford, Chrysler and American Motors announced substantial profit increases over a year earlier.

Record Pack Of B.C. Salmon

VANCOUVER (CP)—The B.C. canned salmon pack up to July 21 reached 395,656 cases, one of the largest on record up to that date.

Last year the total at July 21 was 326,852.

The total this year was due largely to a heavy run of pink salmon in the central coast area boosting the pink pack to 203,891 cases, officials said. Last year the pink pack was 38,307.

The sockeye pack was down to 123,828 cases compared with 168,688 last year. Coho pack was 47,923 compared with 96,960.

Slump Hits Japanese Cotton Mills

TOKYO (Reuters) — The cotton textile industry, once Japan's biggest dollar-earner, has hit a slump while the rest of the economy is booming.

In the last six months, increased domestic competition from synthetic fibres coupled with a drop in exports has more than doubled the number of idle spinning machines in Japan's 410 cotton mills, shutting down 37 of every 100 machines.

The price of cotton yarn and cloth has sunk below what many manufacturers call the "break-even" point at a time when mills are feeling the effect of a 30-per-cent wage increase granted last summer to young women employees to keep them from getting jobs at transistor radio plants.

Last spring, stocks of cotton wool had risen to nearly four times the monthly production and though the heavy cut in production was designed to reduce these stocks by half, there has been little sign that they are decreasing.

Biggest Sales in History

July has been the biggest sales month in the history of the Growers' Wine Company of Victoria, E. C. Warner, executive vice-president and managing director, said Friday.

"Our sales to the other provinces this month have increased 200 per cent and they are still going up in B.C.," he told the company's annual general meeting.

The meeting was attended by directors and shareholders from as far afield as Kelowna, with leading grape and loganberry growers. It was held in the underground cellars of the Grower Wine plant on Quadra Street.

Mr. Warner said sales of loganberry wine — made entirely from Vancouver Island loganberries — are increasing right across Canada and the wine had been very well received in Britain.

Two experimental shipments were made to Britain, and the company had since been asked for quarter of a million gallons a year "at a price which would be quite profitable."

"In the quantities they talked about, this would be impossible," Mr. Warner said, "as it would take two years on our part and three years on that of the growers to reach a volume that we could afford to send out of the country."

Mr. Warner said that, despite keen competition within B.C., the company would not resort to "any cheap production methods, such as boiling, cooking or freezing our wines.

"We are going to handle our wine as carefully as those referred to in the Bible. We are going to give the best possible value in the age-old recipe 'Aged in the Wood.'

"We trust the public and we know they will trust us if we give them the best wine obtainable in Western Canada."

Mr. Warner announced that the company will soon market a new white table wine known as Okanagan Mission made from Okanagan grapes.

"It has been produced by a gentleman who has produced some of the finest Liebfraumilch and Rhine wine ever made."

Monopoly Claims Denied

VANCOUVER (CP) — A former British Columbia Electric executive denied Friday that the power utility was a monopoly before it was expropriated by the provincial government.

A. Bruce Robertson, a senior vice-president of BCE before the takeover, told a B.C. Supreme Court hearing the prevalent public view that the firm enjoyed a monopolistic position was far from the facts.

He said the company's transit operation was facing increased competition from private cars each time bus fares were increased.

The natural gas division was hard-pressed by other petroleum fuels, and a few firms were installing their own electric generators when they felt BCE rates were too high, said Mr. Robertson, chairman of the B.C. Power Corporation, former parent company of B.C. Electric.

B.C. Power is seeking a Supreme Court declaration that the takeover last August was illegal. If the court finds it was legal, the corporation has asked the court to set a value for the firm.

The provincial government has paid $171,000,000 for BCE. The corporation says it is worth $225,000,000.

The Friday session was the 37th day of the hearing which opened nearly three months ago.

Chief Justice Sherwood Lett told lawyers he would adjourn the case Monday or Tuesday for a summer recess.

BCE Sought Tax Relief

VANCOUVER (CP)—An official of BCE met with Finance Minister Fleming more than a year ago in a bid to forestall expropriation of the utility.

Bruce Robertson, former vice-president of BCE, said he asked Mr. Fleming to consider tax concessions to the company.

He said the takeover had been expected for months, but the date and method were not known.

He did not say what decisions were made at the Ottawa meeting or what effect tax favors would have had on putting off the expropriation.

Rio Algom Plans Steel Firm Bid

TORONTO (CP) — Rio Algom Mines Ltd., announced Friday that it expects to make an offer to purchase Atlas Steels Ltd. for approximately $45,000,000 and approximately 680,000 shares of Rio Algom.

Robert H. Winters, Rio Algom president, announced his company's intention following a meeting of Rio Algom directors.

MARKET SUMMARIES

Signs of Strength Shown: Trend Not Established

Stock market activity today appeared to reflect a general uncertainty coupled with showings of strength in selected areas.

In general, more pluses than minuses were chalked up, but there were indications of softening trends.

On the Montreal exchange, the off tendency which ended the week continued, with stocks slightly lower on moderately heavy trading, but New York moved toward its third successsive trading day of gains.

AT TORONTO the stock market remained on the plus side during light mid-afternoon trading today, but there was some evidence that weakness was coming back.

Industrials, after dipping slightly this morning, climed more than a point on index. But by mid-afternoon they had slipped back to show a fractional advance. All other index sections remained lower.

Abitibi fell ½, Imperial Oil and Steel Company of Canada ⅛ Each, and MacMillan, Bloedell and Powell River one point.

On the exchange index, industrials were up .15 at 531.75. Golds were off 1.92 at 95.11, Base Metals .03 at 182.91 and Western Oils .10 at 100.48. The 2 p.m. volume was 1,644,000 shares compared with 1,951,000 at the same time Friday.

AT NEW YORK selected gains helped the market nudge higher today.

The list was higher from the start and maintained an upside edge in moderate trading.

Among wider gainers, IBM and Houston Lighting and Power were up around 3 apiece. Polaroid rose more than 2.

Ahead more than a point were Merck, Union Carbide, and Liggett & Myers.

General Mills was insured a place among the volume leaders as it rose ¼ to 23¼ on an exchange distribution of 51,015 shares.

Woolworth, United Aircraft, and General Dynamics were up close to a point apiece.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was ahead .60 at 217.40.

AT MONTREAL stocks remained slightly lower early this afternoon. Trading was moderately active.

Macmillan remained sharply lower, off ⅞ at 17¼ in heavy trading. Atlas Telefilm fell 35 cents to $3.95 in heavy trading.

Among base metals, Asbestos fell ½ to 30 and International Nickel, up 1½ Friday, rose ¼ to 64¼.

Bell Telephone lost ⅛ to 50 among utilities and Abitibi dropped ⅛ to 44½ among papers.

Power Corporation, which holds a large minority interest in Canadian oil, added 3¼ to 54¾. Canadian oil was up ⅛ at 34⅞.

Among banks, Bank of Montreal rose a point to 55 and Banque Canadienne Nationale fell a point to 64.

AT LONDON, stock markets today were generally unsettled and almost all sections showed losses.

The apparent deadlock in European Common Market negotiations was the chief disturbing factor.

Tin shares fell sharply, in precautionary marking down following the United States state department's rejection of the international tin council's counter proposals regarding stockpile releases of the metal. Gold shares were dull and coppers occasionally easier.

AT VANCOUVER, trading was fairly heavy. Peso fell to $1.22, while Pacific Pete rose to .13¾. Bethlehem Copper went down to $1.68, and Cariboo dropped to $1.15. Mount Washington stopped at $1.28, and Torwest rose to .24½. Western Mines stopped at $1.75 after reaching a high of $1.91 earlier this morning.

REAL ESTATE
By
Jack Mears, F.R.I., R.I. (B.C.)

The other evening I went home over Mt. Tolmie. I stopped at the top and looked at our city. I wondered what it was like 100 years ago and what it would look like 100 years from now. Some of the changes that have taken place are good, others should never have been allowed to take place.
In the early post-war years homes were in short supply and consequently the main interest was to get as many homes built as quickly as possible with the result that there was little need to use much imagination or design in the layout of new subdivisions.
Now that supply and demand are in balance it is interesting to note how much more thought is being put into the siting and exterior design of our new homes which in many cases are extremely attractive.
If you are planning a new home remember the outside is the first part that a buyer sees. One day you may want to sell it and an attractive exterior will add to the value of your investment.

RCMP 'Red' Agent's Story Draws Storm of Protests

OTTAWA (CP) — Angry denials have followed statements by Calvin M. MacDonald, self-styled undercover RCMP agent, that Communists have infiltrated various organizations including the Voice of Women and the Canadian Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament.

Mrs. Helen Tucker, president of the Voice of Women, said in Toronto that the statement by the 39-year-old Ottawa man was a lie.

"Irresponsible and insupportable," was the comment of Toronto Rabbi Abraham Feinberg, a leader of the Canadian Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament.

The VoW and CCND were among organizations named here Saturday by Mr. MacDonald in his second press conference in two days held to describe what he said was his double role as an Ottawa organizer for the Communist party and secret agent for the RCMP.

EXPELLED FROM PARTY

Mr. MacDonald, expelled Friday by the Communist party's Ontario leadership, told reporters Saturday that Communist sleepers—secret agents — have joined the Voice of Women by the score and have used the VoW and CCND to spread the Communist party's ideas.

On Friday, he said that the Unitarian Church in Ottawa had long been available for the holding of Communist-inspired meetings.

This was denied by Norman Dowd, minister emiritus of the church and now an official of the Canadian Labor Congress.

"There is no justification for that statement," Mr. Dowd said. "There have never been any such meetings to my knowledge, and I think I should know."

Mrs. Norman Alcock, a VoW executive member and wife of the founder of the Canadian Peace Research Institute, said she knows of no communist infiltration in VoW.

"But I imagine some Communists want peace just as we do, so it's possible some have become members of peace groups."

Mrs. Charlotte McEwen, chairman of the Ottawa area group of the Voice of Women, said today she has obtained a signed statement from MacDonald which says:

"I do not know of any Communist member who holds a position on either the national or any provincial committee of the Voice of Women."

Mrs. McEwen said the statement by Mr. MacDonald followed a five-hour talk with him Saturday and it was signed in the presence of a colleague with her, at the home of a friend of Mr. MacDonald.

She said Mr. MacDonald could name only three persons he said were VoW Communist infiltrators and that he presented no evidence for his allegations.

City Riders Invited To California Show

Two 18-year-old Victoria girls will make up half of British Columbia's first team to compete at the top-flight International Horse Show in Pebble Beach, Calif.

Joan Dunbar, 1007 Joan Crescent, and Pat Donaldson, 1536 Arrow—both well-known riders in local and B.C. show circles—have been invited to join the B.C. team.

Joan, with her mount Seven Up, and Pat, with Hindu Punch, will vie for honors along with Maz Zimmerman of Haney and Charyl Forst of Vancouver in the intermediate division of the Sept. 7, 8 and 9 championships.

Winners of the open competitions will form national entries in the riding events of the 1963 Pan-American Games.

THREE DAYS

The team, formed by Mr. Zimmerman, will participate in dressage, cross country and stadium jumping events during the three-day competitions.

In addition, Miss Dunbar will compete in the national "dressage" championship Sept. 1 and 2 at Pebble Beach.

She will take her mount Fen's Folly for entry in the intermediate tests of the dressage events—considered the ballet of horse riding.

Vancouver's Inez Fischer-Credo also will participate in the dressage championships.

Soblen Offered Asylum in Europe

LONDON (AP)—Dr. Robert A. Soblen has been offered asylum in an unnamed European country, friends said today.

The man under life sentence in the United States as a Soviet spy cannot take advantage of the offer without the approval of Home Secretary Henry Brooke. Soblen now is in a London prison awaiting last-ditch legal moves to prevent his return to the U.S.

Soblen's friends declined to say whether the country which has offered him asylum is in Western Europe or the Communist bloc.

Two members of Parliament, Labor members Scholefield Allen and Barnett Stross, said they would see the home secretary later today to urge him to allow Soblen to take up the offer of asylum. They too declined to name the country involved.

The home office regards Soblen as still in transit between Israel and New York and has said he must continue his journey if his legal moves to block it fail.

Soblen jumped $100,000 bail in the United States last month and fled to Israel. He was expelled and slashed himself with a steak knife July 1 as a plane neared London en route to the United States.

The 61-year-old psychiatrist lost a second effort Sunday to seek refuge in Israel; the cabinet unanimously upheld the interior ministry's refusal to let him enter as an immigrant.

JERUSALEM (Reuters) — The Israeli cabinet Sunday advised against granting an immigrant visa to Dr. Robert Soblen, under sentence of life imprisonment by the United States for spying for Russia.

VICTORIA TIMES CENTENNIAL GIFT TO CITY

New Bronze Bust of Queen Unveiled Sunday at 3p.m.

As a climax to Victoria's big centennial week, the unveiling of a new bronze bust of Queen Elizabeth II will take place in Beacon Hill Park on Sunday at 3 p.m.

The bronze bust, executed by Arthur Price, nationally known sculptor of Ottawa, is the centennial gift to the city from the Victoria Daily Times.

It has been worked from the original, done by Peggy Walton Packard of Victoria, but which was damaged by vandals.

A number of dignitaries have been invited for the ceremony, but the general public is welcome.

The bronze bust will be presented to the city by Times publisher Stuart Keate, and will then be unveiled by Mayor R. B. Wilson.

Guests of honor for the occasion will include the two artists, Miss Packard and Mr. Price, who will fly out from Ottawa to be present.

At the same time it was announced today by Colin Graham, curator of the Greater Victoria Art Gallery, that arrangements have been made for Mr. Price to make two appearances at the gallery for the benefit of local sculptors and artists.

First will be from 10 a.m. to noon Saturday when he will conduct a practical workshop and discussion. Registrations for this class are now being taken at the art gallery and will be open to others interested as well as those directly concerned with sculptoring.

Then on Monday night at 8.30 Mr. Price will give an address on "The Field of 20th Century Sculpture." There is no special admission charge other than the normal admission to the art gallery.

VICTORIA, B.C., MONDAY, JULY 30, 1962—PAGE 13

MONTE ROBERTS

Pardon me if I appear to be in a tearing hurry today, and I will tell you all about my holidays (vacation?) some other time.

Right now, I am most anxious to get cracking on a campaign to SAVE BINGO.

In fact, all during my vacation (holidays?) I could hardly wait to get back to what is laughingly called work, for fear somebody else would SAVE BINGO before I could get a campaign launched.

And I assure you, as the senior Save Campaign launcher of these parts, it would have cut me to the quick to see somebody else come up with the solution.

* * *

In case you, too, have been on holidays (vacation?), and have not been keeping up with Bingo's problems, the trouble with Bingo is this: Bingo is suffering from a severe case of regularity.

Bingo has been being played (been being played? Maybe I came back to work too soon) at certain set intervals, and the law says you must not play Bingo at regular intervals.

Thus it is illegal to "eyes down, watch the cards" on, for instance, every third Thursday in the month, or even every Maundy Thursday that falls on a Friday.

In other words, Bingo can be saved only if it is cured of regularity.

Fear not, Bingo lovers—the solution is to hand. Make Bingo irregular.

It is a well-known fact in the Big Cities that the most irregular game in town is that traditional cop-dodger, the floating crap game.

Damon Runyon fans will remember, of course, the biggest permanent floating crap game in town, whose followers found out where and when the game was to be staged by asking the corner newsstand operator.

It's obvious the same technique could be applied to Bingo—the would-be player ups to the guy in the know and whispers, out of the side of his mouth:

"Where's d' game?"
"Got the passwoid?"
"Under d' 'I,' 10."
"Okay. It's in d' back room of d' parish hall."

* * *

Well, now that Bingo has been saved, back to work.

City Fetes World Fair Contingent

Elements of the Seattle World's Fair arrived in Victoria today to take part in Victoria's centennary.

Headed by the fair's special events director Louis Larsen, the party from Seattle flew to Pat Bay Airport and drove to the City Hall to be received by Mayor R. B. Wilson.

As representative of Mayor Gordon Clinton of Seattle, Mr. Larsen attended a luncheon given for visiting mayors, reeves and their wives in the Empress Hotel.

Speakers were Reeve Alan Emmott of Burnaby, representing Canadian civic officials, and Mayor J. E. Maxfield of Port Angeles for the Americans. Deputy provincial secretary L. J. Wallace spoke on behalf of the province.

Also with the World's Fair visiting party were Spanish Dancers direct from the University of Madrid. They performed in the Centennial mall, Broad St., during the regular afternoon program which began at 2 p.m. They also will appear at the pageant tonight in Athletic Park at 8 p.m.

Condition Serious

Kwakiutl Chief Mungo Martin, internationally famous as a totem pole carver, is seriously ill at St. Joseph's Hospital.

The chief, in his late eighties, was taken to hospital Saturday. The nature of his illness was not disclosed.

NAMED "FRANKIE," after St. Francis, because of his loving disposition, this dog found wandering on a highway near Victoria has three broken legs and is in constant pain, according to sisters of the Good Shepherd Shelter, Borden Street, where the dog was taken. Sister Mary Agnes, above, today launched an appeal for funds to enable Frankie, a Collie cross, to have his legs re-broken and set so that he can walk. Cheques should be made payable to the shelter and marked "for Frankie."—(Times Photo.)

City Architect Dies After Long Illness

Patrick Birley, former Oak Bay councillor and distinguished Victoria architect, died in Royal Jubilee Hospital Sunday after a long illness. He was 58.

Tragically, his mother, Mrs. J. H. Birley, was visiting him from England at the time of his death.

One of his last projects was the re-building of St. John's Anglican Church within the walls of the old church which was gutted by fire in December 1960.

He designed St. Matthias Church, corner of Richmond and Richardson; Victoria Press Ltd., 2631 Douglas, and planned the revision of the Bank of Montreal building here.

He designed and had been associated with construction of many national defence buildings, including several at HMCS Naden and Royal Roads Services College, and was working on the psychiatric ward of the new wing at Royal Jubilee Hospital.

A graduate of Cambridge University, England, Mr. Birley came to Victoria 30 years ago and lived at 590 Transit, Oak Bay.

He was master at Brentwood College for several years and was then articled to the architectural firm of Spurgin and Johnson in Victoria.

Later, he practiced on his own and in various partnerships. At the time of his death has was head of the firm Birley and Wagg.

NARROW LOSS

As an Oak Bay councillor, Mr. Birley contested George Murdoch for reeve of Oak Bay in 1958 and was defeated by a narrow margin.

He was an active Rotarian and Freemason, a life member of Victoria Lawn Tennis Club, a member and former chairman of the Capital Regional Planning Bard and vice-president of the Architectural Institute of B.C.

He served with the Royal Canadian Naxy during the Second World War.

MUSICIAN

Of a cheerful, friendly disposition, Mr. Birley was a talented musician, playing several instruments, and enthusiastic fisherman and photographer.

His widow, Patience, is a noted local artist and photographer.

He is also survived by a daughter, Mrs. Robert Wilson of Victoria and a son David in Vancouver.

Funeral services will be held in St. John's Anglican Church Thursday at 1.30 p.m., followed by cremation. Canon George Biddle will officiate.

Firemen Fight Rash of Fires

WOODS BURN IN 16 NEW OUTBREAKS

Vancouver Forest District racked up 16 new woods fires over a hot weekend marked by heavy holiday travel, a B.C. Forest Service spokesman said today.

On Vancouver Island, Langford ranger district crews battled four blazes, Nanaimo one, Port Hardy two, and Tofino one for a total of seven.

A 23-man crew working with two bulldozers contained the Lonetree Hill fire off Millstream Road with firebreaks after it burned 20 acres.

Flames Gut House, Blacken 10 Acres

Two serious fires and a number of smaller blazes broke out over the weekend as hot, dry weather sent the fire hazard soaring in the Greater Victoria area.

Ten acres of brush atop Oak Hill, near Cedar Hill Cross Road, were chewed up Sunday afternoon in a fire that still smouldered this morning, and a small frame house on Swan Street was gutted Sunday night by a fire fed by heating oil.

Saanich firemen damped brush and grass behind the CHEK-TV antenna on Oak Hill to prevent fire from spreading to homes on Epsom Drive and Cedar Hill Cross Road.

Reported at about 3 p.m., the blaze was brought under control by late evening.

One truck and crew were stationed on the hill this morning to extinguish the last smoldering pockets.

FLAMING OIL

Fire melted the carburetors on heating equipment at 873 Swan Street on Sunday night, spilling flaming oil into the house.

Property of Herb Salmon, the house was occupied only by Frank Ogden when the fire broke out at about 7.30 p.m.

Only the shell of the home remains.

It is believed to have been insured.

A small blaze broke out near the flagpole in Beacon Hill Park late Saturday night in the dry grass.

City firemen extinguished it almost immediately.

It was close by large areas where dry grass had been deliberately burned off by the city.

FOUR-HOUR FIGHT

Oak Bay firemen worked for four hours on a brush fire on the steep slope of Gonzales Hill, near King George Terrace, late Sunday afternoon.

Firemen had to cope with the angle of the almost vertical cliff, as well as traffic congestion around their truck on King George Terrace, as they damped the blaze.

It broke out shortly after 6 p.m.

A few minutes later a small grass fire began behind the Oak Bay municipal yards on Elgin Street.

Oak Bay firemen had it out within minutes.

$2.5 Million Job Awarded to VMD

Modernized Assiniboine to Emerge With New Sonar, 'Copter Platform'

HMCS Assiniboine laid her 366-foot hull alongside Victoria Machinery Depot, Ogden Point dock, today, for a conversion which will occupy a year and cost the national defence department $2,500,000.

Assiniboine is the second of seven destroyer-escorts slated for a modernization which will give them variable depth sonar and helicopter landing platforms.

HMCS St. Laurent, first of her class to undergo the extensive refit and face-lifting, is now testing her new gear at sea.

VMD expects to handle the Assiniboine contract without adding to its 800-man work crew, although a few more specialists may be engaged next fall.

'SPLIT FUNNEL'

According to a navy spokesman, the silhouette and lines of the 25-knot submarine hunter will be altered somewhat by the conversion. Instead of her single funnel, Assiniboine will carry a "split funnel" with a stack on either side of the ship and the new helicopter platform between.

SPECIALISTS

Completed in 1956, Assiniboine's complement is 210 officers and men. Personnel changes will provide for helicopter maintenance men, and sonar specialists.

Other St. Laurent class vessels to be so fitted are Saguenay, Ottawa, Skeena, Fraser and Margaree.

Seattle Cruiser Tops Big Fleet In 'Log Race'

The Aldon, skippered by Dr. A. G. Boles of Seattle, won the international cruiser race from Victoria to Seattle Saturday.

The Seattle power boat led more than 100 entries in the race from Cadboro Bay to Elliott Bay, some of them from as far south as Portland.

Twenty-five per cent of the entries came from Victoria and Vancouver; the rest from the United States Pacific Coast.

The boat Tampico skippered by Robert Hamilton Smith, commodore of Royal Victoria Yacht Club, came second in class 2. Scaup skippered by Dr. W. D. Marshall of Royal Victoria, was sixth in class 1.

Playmate II, skippered by Bruce R. Evans of Maple Bay Yacht Club, was first in class 2.

Art Luney of Victoria, piloting the Navajo, was 14th in class 1.

"The weather was too good," he said. "Everybody was ahead of their predicted times because the water was so still. We would have appreciated a 15 to 20 mile an hour wind."

Search Abandoned For Chemainus Man

A Chemainus Bay Indian, Cassell Aleck, about 30, is believed to have drowned after his unoccupied gillnetter was found adrift near Ocean Falls.

A search for the man has been abandoned, RCMP said today.

TOPICS OF THE DAY

In fairly good condition at Royal Jubilee Hospital today is David M. Bell, 229 Government Street.

Bell was crossing Government Street on Saturday night when he was in collision with a car reportedly driven by Allen Summerfield, 774 Daisy.

He suffered a broken wrist, broken nose, cuts and bruises.

Police report no progress in the case of Peter Richard Solowan, the 29-year-old convict who escaped from William Head minimum security prison July 18.

He walked away from the jail around 4 p.m. wearing grey denim prisoner's clothes, and has not been seen since.

Prison officials said he was worried about his wife's health. He was serving a three-year term for breaking and entering.

Two dental officers in the Canadian army have changed positions, army headquarters announced recently.

Lt.-Col. R. E. Brown has been replaced as senior dental operator at HMCS Naden by Lt.-Col. G. MacDougall, previously senior operator of the Royal Canadian Dental Corps School at Camp Borden, Ont.

Col. Brown will take up Col. MacDougall's previous appointment. Both are officers of the Royal Canadian Dental Corps.

Petty Officer serving on the HMCS Saguenay, based at Esquimalt, has won a cash award from the Public Service of Canada for a suggestion to improve efficiency of naval communications.

PO George S. Tory proposed a modification of the tube arrangement for naval radio transmitters, and his proposal has been adopted for use in the RCN.

Royal Canadian Navy will offer sunset ceremonies in Beacon Hill Park, August 9, 10 and 11, as part of a colorful salute to Victoria in her birthday year.

Nature of the program, a navy spokesman said, required a shift from the Legislative Building lawns where flaglowering ceremonies are usually held.

Thieves who broke into the liquor bar of the Elks Club, 732 Cormorant Street, Sunday night evidently left empty-handed.

Back door of the club was opened when checked by a patrolling police constable at 4.15 this morning.

One of the refrigerators in which liquor is stored had been broken open, and a claw-hammer was left behind the hasp on the lock of another door.

There was no sign of entry anywhere, police said, and a check of the premises revealed nothing stolen.

Society for the Preservation and Maintenance of Craigdarroch Castle will hold a gathering on the castle terrace on Saturday, Aug. 18, from 3 to 5 p.m.

Guests will wear late 19th century costumes, and refreshments will be served.

A three-year-old boy was struck by a car on Shelbourne Street this morning at about 10.20 when he wandered out into the road.

Admitted to Royal Jubilee Hospital for observation was Eddy Dianic, 2647 Shelbourne. He is believed to have lacerations and a head injury.

$128 Donation To Charity From Bridge Tourney

Victoria bridge players raised $128 for two charitable organizations in a tournament played Saturday as part of an international series.

Money will go to the Multiple Sclerosis Society and Institute of Logopedics.

Bridge was played here simultaneously with games across the continent and in Hawaii in conjunction with the American Contract Bridge League summer national tournament in Minneapolis.

Winners in the Victoria unit, ACBL, were as follows:

North-South—1, Hilda Price, Evelyn Lamont; 2, Ether Clenworth, Jack Goldie; 3, Tony Marsh, Jim Duprau; 4, Pansy Raymond, Margaret Kirby; 5, Ricki Nickells, Eric Goodwin.

East-West—1, Eric Horwood, Walter Allen; 2, Phil Hagel, Otto Leesment; 3, Harry Brawn, Douglas Hawkes; 4, Elizabeth Warren, Paul Smith; 5, Madge Meachem, Elizabeth Waite.

Four 'Big Ones' Mark Beginning Of Tyee Run

Annual tyee run began at Campbell River Sunday night when four big ones were landed.

Weighing in at the top was a 50-pounder which gave Tom Perkins of Campbell River a 45-minute battle.

The others were landed by: Eino Logren, Campbell River, 48 pounds; Clive Piercy, Victoria, 44 pounds, and Mrs. Mike Rippingale, Campbell River, 34 pounds.

16 CENTS AN HOUR OVER TWO YEARS

Painters, Contractors Settle

A two-year agreement between 200 painters and seven local contractors assures stable relations for builders and organized tradesmen here for at least a year.

Settlement of the painters' dispute on the weekend was the last in annual series of negotiations conducted through Victoria Building Industries Exchange, and provides a wage increase commensurate with gains made by other trades this year.

All major agreements signed this year are of two years' duration, but the city's 600 organized carpenters settled a two-year agreement last year, requiring renegotiation in 1963.

SPRING OF 1964

The major trades are carpenters, laborers, plumbers, electricians and painters, of which the electricians are on a three-year agreement reopening in the spring of 1964.

Such smaller trades as floor layers signed one-year contracts this year.

Painters voted to strike after accepting a conciliation report which contractors rejected, then in a last-minute meeting contractors accepted the report.

EIGHT CENT

On a brush painter's basic hourly rate of $2.84 will be added eight cents an hour Aug. 1 with an additional eight cents next April 1.

The parties eliminated a differential between brush and roller painters, but retained an extra margin for spray painters and for work done at altitudes of 50 feet or more.

LIKE THE "UGLY DUCKLING" which turned into a beautiful swan, this hideous pile of rubbish on Clover Point will burst magnificently into flame as a salute to Victoria's birthday Thursday. More flammable refuse from Victoria houses is needed for the fire which will be ignited at 11 p.m. following the pageant in Athletic Park. Plans include a sing-song around the bonfire.—(Times Photo by Bill Halkett.)

ASK The TIMES

Q. I am told we depend more on the U.S. for our markets than any other country. Is this true? C.F.

A. The leading source of Canada's imports and exports is the U.S. Other countries from which most imports are taken are, in order, the United Kingdom, Venezuela, West Germany and Japan; for exports, the U.K., Japan, West Germany and Communist China.

Q. How is membership of the House of Commons determined, in regard to area or population of Canada? G.McC.

A. Membership in the Commons is adjusted according to population changes, as indicated by the ten-year census, within the provinces.

Nationals Blow Up, 4 Errors

CHICAGO — The American League finally got back on the winning trail in major league baseball's second All-Star game of 1962, overpowering the National League 9-4 for the first American victory since 1959.

Following the National League's 3-1 triumph in the first all-star game at Washington on July 10, today's win gave the Americans a 17-15 edge in the annual classic, with one game tied.

Hitting stars for the Americans at Wrigley Field today were outfielders Leon Wagner of Los Angeles and Rocky Colavito, Cleveland. Colavito had four hits, including one of the AL's three home runs, and Wagner crashed out three hits, including a homer.

Both clubs had 10 hits, but the losing National came up with four errors in the game.

It was the first American League victory in the last six All-Star games. The Nationals won the first All-Star game this year at Washington; 3-1.

Colavito's blast in the seventh with Brooks Robinson of Baltimore and Roger Maris of New York on base came off Dick Farrell of Houston.

Art Mahaffey of Philadelphia Phillies yielded a homer to Runnels, as a pinch hitter, in the third with the bases empty, and another to Wagner in the fourth with Earl Battey of Minnesota aboard.

Wagner was the offensive and defensive star of the game. He hit two singles in addition to the homer, and made a fine catch of a shallow fly in the fourth off the bat of George Altman of Chicago Cubs.

TRESH DOUBLES

The Americans picked up another run in the sixth when Tom Tresh of the New York Yankees doubled, scoring Al Kaline of Detroit, a pinch runner.

The Americans added two more in the ninth when Yogi Berra of the Yankees reached second on Eddie Mathews' two-base error. Bobby Richardson of the Yankees ran for him, taking third on a wild pitch and scoring on Maris' double. A second wild pitch by Juan Marichal of San Francisco put him on third from where he scored on Colavito's sacrifice fly.

The Nationals' first run, which gave them a brief lead, was in the second. Johnny Podres, the Los Angeles pitching ace, doubled and came home on a sharp single by Dick Groat of Pittsburgh.

MET BATTER

The Nationals scored again in the bottom of the seventh. Richie Ashburn of New York Mets singled, went to third on a double by Frank Bolling of Milwaukee Braves, and scored when Groat grounded out.

In the eighth Ernie Banks of Chicago Cubs tripled and scored when his team-mate, Ernie Williams, grounded out.

The Nationals kept on trying. In the ninth John Roseboro of Los Angeles Dodgers hit a homer with the bases empty.

Ray Herbert of Chicago White Sox, who pitched three scoreless innings, was the winner and Mahaffey the loser.

3 MPs Ask Freedom for Soblen

LONDON (UPI)—Three Members of Parliament asked the British government today to allow runaway Soviet spy Robert Soblen to leave an English prison and go to a country of his own choice.

A Home Office spokesman said Home Secretary Henry Brooke is considering the lawmakers' request. The plea was made personally to Brooke by the three MP's. The Home Secretary also is considering a plea from Soblen, under life sentence in the United States far wartime spying, for political asylum in Britain.

ROGERS PASS OPENED

B.C., Canada Tie the Knot

By FRANK RUTTER
Times Staff Reporter

REVELSTOKE—British Columbia joined the rest of Canada today on a ribbon of blacktop that stretches from coast to coast.

For the first time public traffic was allowed through the Rogers Pass section of the Trans-Canada Highway — its most spectacular section.

Premier Bennett and Highways Minister P. A. Gaglardi did the honors complete with grandstand, flag, band and thousands of people eight miles east of Revelstoke.

★ ★ ★

Pressure? Who Me? Poppycock!

REVELSTOKE — Highways Minister P. A. Gaglardi today hotly denied he had put pressure on contractors to finance the hoopla of the Rogers' Pass opening.

It is true, he said, contractors are paying for the big show.

Mr. Gaglardi said he knew there was a report circulating in Ottaw that contractors were angry at being forced to pay $17,000.

NO ASSESMENT

"That stuff is all poppycock," he said here. "We have not asked the contractors for one five-cent piece. There was no assessment on the contractors. They did it entirely on their own."

Some 20 contractors were involved in the 92-mile Rogers Pass project officially opened today.

They are paying for a lunch for VIPs at the local Chalet dining room, for a barbecue of 3,000 pounds of beef to feed 5,000 people, and $100 for a band.

Mr. Gaglardi said he didn't know how much this cost but the highways department is not paying for anything except grandstands, flags and ropes on the opening site.

T-BIRD LOANED

A $9,800 Tunderbird convertible for the use of Premier Bennett and Mr. Gaglardi, was loaned by Dearborn Motors in Salmon Arm.

Public relations man Bill Clancey, handling the show for the press, said he doubted whether the entire wing-ding cost more than $5,000 to $6,000.

The Highway is open—and it's going to stay open, said Mr. Gaglardi emphatically.

ROAD STAYS OPEN

He pooh-poohed reports that the federal government would close the road as soon as B.C.'s ceremony was finished.

The opening of Rogers Pass was as fraught with controversy as its choice six years ago.

In 1956 the row was about where the highway should go, 92 miles from Revelstoke to Golden through Rogers Pass, or more than 200 miles through the southerly Jumbo Pass.

Today the row is about who should take credit for it.

A host of Ottawa officials were invited to B.C.'s ceremony. But they're not coming. Instead they'll attend a ceremony of their own Sept. 3, 50 miles further east.

PRE-SHOW TRIP

I drove with Mr. Gaglardi and two engineers on a pre-show inspection trip of the highway Sunday afternoon.

He was ecastatic.

"How about that?" (like driving on a cloud).

"Man, that's something," (snow-tipped peaks).

"Did you ever see anything like that?" (glittering glaciers).

"It's stupendous—that's the word for it. It's the most spectacular highway in the world."

His pride and joy skims 92 miles through canyons, forests, mountains.

COST $66 MILLION

Built at an estimated cost of $66 million, it soars to 4,200 feet at Mount McDonald, takes an hour and three-quarters (60 m.p.h. all the way) instead of the miserable, gritty seven hours around the Big Bend, 100 miles longer and on gravel, which was previously the only route through the three ranges of mountains, Selkirks, Monashee and Clachnacudainn.

The Rogers Pass, discovered in 1882 by Major (Hell's Bells) A. B. Rogers, was the first route of the CPR which created Revelstoke. Now, says Mr. Gaglardi, the highway will "really make" Revelstoke.

Furious Flames Destroy House

A vacant house on Hillside Avenue, a block east of the Roundabout was destroyed by fire early this afternoon.

This is the second fire in the past six months at the house, 760 Hillside.

The building has been vacant at least a year.

Alarm was phoned to Victoria Fire Department by Mrs. F. W. Martin, proprietoress of the Hillside Auto Court, at 2.05 p.m.

"The building seemed to explode into flames," Mr. Martin said. "At first we saw only a wisp of smoke but when we looked around the whole house was afire."

"It must have got a head start on itself somehow," he added.

The property is owned by Ejaz Mohammed Khan, 722 Market Street.

Value of the damage is not known, but the house was completely gutted. Surrounding grass and an orchard were ignited by flying embers.

'Newshen' Ousted

Princess Lee Radziwill, sister of Jacqueline Kennedy, was warmly received in the salon of couturier Yves St. Laurent in Paris today after having been turned down Sunday by his rival, Hubert de Givenchy. The latter said the princess was a working magazine journalist and not entitled to see his precious creations until the press showing next month.

Uranium Sale Made to U.K. At Cut Price

OTTAWA (CP)—The United Kingdom will buy 24,000,000 pounds of Canadian uranium at a price of $127,700,000 under terms of a contract signed here today after protracted negotiations between the two governments.

The contract was signed following negotiation of 1957 letters of intent in which Britain signified that it was prepared to buy this amount of uranium at a price of some $192,000,000. That was based on $8 a pound compared with the new basic price announced today of $5.03 a pound.

Deliveries under the contract, signed by Trade Minister Hees for Crown-owned Eldorado Mining and Refining Limited of Canada and by Sir Roger Makins, chairman of the United Kingdom Atomic Energy Authority, will take place over a period extending into the early 1970s.

CONDITIONS CHANGED

While the letters of intent were exchanged between the two Crown agencies in 1957, they did not become public knowledge until March of 1961. After their disclosure, Britain asked for renegotiation of price and delivery schedules in view of changed uranium market conditions, with a heavy world surplus.

Britain will pay a basic price of $5.03 a pound compared with $8 originally envisaged. However, this figure will rise under a provision providing for premiums and carrying charges to be paid by Britain for deferment of deliveries.

The statement said the contract will have the effect of extending the period of operations of Canadian uranium

EVEREST TEAM MEMBER KILLED ON SOVIET PEAK

LONDON (Reuters)—Two British mountaineers taking part in an Anglo-Soviet climbing expedition in Russia have been killed, a cable from British expedition leader Sir John Hunt said today.

The cable said the men died July 24 while climbing the 19,785-foot Garmo peak in the Pamir Mountains of Mystery.

The men were identified as Wilfred Noyce, a member of the Commonwealth expedition that conquered Mount Everest in 1953 under Hunt, and Robin Smith.

Noyce, 43, was a writer and was reporting the expedition for the London Daily Herald. Smith, 23, a philosophy graduate, lived in Edinburgh.

Police Boatloads Raid Wigwam Inn

NORTH VANCOUVER (CP) — Police seized 300 cases of beer, dice and playing cards Sunday in a raid on a remote resort popular with tourists for its afternoon teas.

They also arrested 15 men and two women and charged them with offences ranging from gambling conspiracy to bribing an RCMP corporal.

Two boatloads of RCMP took part in the raid shortly after midnight of Wigwam Inn, a picturesque hotel on a scenic inlet 20 miles northeast of here.

"This was the commencement of what was intended to be a very large operation and it was nipped in the bud in the early stages," Crown prosecutor George Murray told a special police court session where bail was set for the accused Sunday.

Three were charged with trying to bribe Cpl. Jack McDonald. They are lawyer Rockmill Myers, William Foulder Robertson and Jack McGrath, all of Vancouver.

They are charged with giving the corporal $1,000 in cash and several paintings and antiques to facilitate the committing of an offence and with interfering with the administration of justice.

SAYS PAINTINGS STOLEN

Mr. Murray said the paintings had been stolen in Victoria and Nanaimo, B.C.

(Art Gallery curator Colin Graham said today he had not had official notification of the fact that police hold the paintings—a landscape, a seascape and a portrait of about $3,500 value—stolen from the gallery July 19. He said he understood they were recovered in excellent condition.)

Cpl. McDonald was to try to raise his status with his superiors and tip the accused when police action was expected against the gambling at the inn, he said.

Bail for Myers was set at $10,000 and at $25,000 each for Robertson and McGrath.

The bribery charge carries a maximum prison sentence of 14 years.

Bail of $5,000 each was set for Bunta Singh, Keith Anderson of Vancouver and Irwin Victor Moore of North Vancouver, all charged with keeping a gambling house.

Charged as inmates of the gambling house and released on bail of $100 were Joy Ames, Muriel Cote, Kenneth Ames, Zolton Bartok, David Cross, Scott Newton, Orville Brill, Lawrence Gordon and Michael Slack.

Twelve Vancouver homes were also raided.

Axes Used To Hack Safe Open

Thieves broke into the Humboldt Street liquor store sometime Sunday and stole $12,500 from the safe.

City police say the safe was torn from its mounting in the office of the store manager, and taken to the rear of the store where it was forced open with axes and a sledge hammer.

(Police estimate it would take about 15 minutes to open the 1,000-pound steel box in this way.)

WEEKEND TAKE

A hole was chopped in the bottom of the safe, the dial and handle were broken off, and door was pulled free of its hinges.

The strongbox inside was opened, and the $12,500—the Saturday night take—removed.

Staff was at work this morning taking stock to ascertain whether any liquor had been stolen.

Beer cases and bottles littered around the area where the safe had been broken open indicated the thieves had drunk some beer while they worked on the safe.

Entry to the liquor store was gained through the Empress Garage, 629 Courtney Street.

Letting themselves into the garage—evidently with a key—the thieves helped themselves to some acetylene equipment.

They left the acetylene tanks in the garage, dropped hoses from them through the window to a floor below on the east side of the building, and used the equipment to cut through bars on a window of the liquor store.

HIDDEN

It cannot be seen from the street.

A venetian blind at the front of the store, normally never closed, was drawn by the thieves, evidently to avoid being seen by persons across the street in the Empress Hotel.

"They were pretty cool customers," said store manager George Davies.

"They knew their stuff all

Hotel Bombed In Kelowna; Douks Blamed

KELOWNA (CP)—Fragments from a time bomb ripped through the floor of a hotel room here Sunday narrowly missing a sleeping family of six.

The bomb, planted in a steel locker, wrecked the coffee shop, kitchen and two washrooms on the main floor at the Willow Inn five minutes after two hotel employees walked past the locker.

Fragments pierced the floor of the second-floor room occupied by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baillie and their children aged two to 10, from Burnaby.

RCMP said bits of a dry cell battery and a cheap pocket watch found at the scene indicate that the explosion was the work of Sons of Freedom Doukhobors.

RCMP said many Doukhobors including members of the Freedomite sect come to Kelowna during the summer as fruit pickers. Hundreds of people visited the bus terminal coffee shop at the hotel and anyone of them could have planted the bomb.

Four years ago a similar explosion damaged the hotel beverage room.

ACROSS THE PROVINCE

Fishermen Seek New Negotiation

(Compiled From CP)

VANCOUVER — With a strike deadline six days away, B.C.'s 11,000 fishermen and shoreworkers will seek new meetings with management to settle their wage dispute.

Homer Stevens, secretary of the United Fishermen and Allied Workers' Union (Ind.) said Sunday bargaining committees for fishermen and shoreworkers will attempt to reopen negotiations.

Management spokesmen said earlier they will not meet union demands.

Salmon fishermen seek 36 cents a pound for sockeye. Shoreworkers want a boost of 25 cents an hour on a basic scale of $1.49 for women and $1.79 for men. Tendermen are demanding $25 a month more on salaries ranging from $321 to $431.

Mr. Stevens said the union will hold a meeting Wednesday to decide whether or not to carry out the threat to strike Aug. 4.

Votes among sections of the union varied from 54 to 60 per cent in favor of a walkout.

Union business agent Alex Gordon said a strike by any one of the union groups would tie up the entire industry at the halfway mark of the salmon season.

CHILD SUFFOCATED

QUESNEL — A 16-month-old abby was suffocated by a plastic bag here Saturday. Police said Lyon Appleby Jr., was found dead in his crib.

MAN STABBED

VANCOUVER — A young woman walked into Oscar Johnson's hotel room early Sunday and said: "I would like to jab this into someone."

She then stabbed Mr. Johnson, 63, in the abdomen with a penknife.

There was no explanation for her action. The wounded man was treated in hospital.

ARSON SUSPECTED

GIBSONS — Firemen said they suspect arson in a blaze that destroyed the nearby Roberts Creek elementary school Sunday.

Men from the volunteer department at this Howe Sound community said some items taken from the school were found hidden in bushes.

They listed the items as two dozen fret saws, some carpentry pencils and a fire extinguisher.

Firemen, assisted by the forestry department and volunteers could do little more than keep the blaze from spreading.

Students from the three-room one-storey wooden school will attend school in Sechelt, about nine miles away.

PINNED BY TRACTOR

KEREMEOS — Stanley Gordon Miles, 39, of North Vancouver, was crushed to death when his tractor rolled down an embankment Sunday.

A passing motorist found Miles pinned under the tractor in Richter Pass, 18 miles southwest of here.

CBC EXPANSION

VANCOUVER — The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation extends its television coverage to the Cranbrook and Kimberley areas starting Aug. 6.

The vehicle for the new service is a rebroadcaster using the call letters CBUBT with a strength of 1,100 watts.

Regular network programs will be fed from the Trans-Canada Telephone microwave system to a guide tower at Moyie Mountain, then to an equipment site at Bald Hill, and finally into the 1,100-watt transmitter for rebroadcast.

During the period when the network is silent to allow local programming, the CBC's Calgary relay station will transmit films and tapes of programs from CBUT, Vancouver, for use only in areas served by the Trail and Kimberley-Cranbrook rebroadcasters.

Network viewing will run about 7½ hours a day.

Small Pension Boost For Ex-City Workers

August superannuation cheques for 133 retired city employees and 33 dependents will be a little larger.

By special arrangement with the provincial superannuation service up to a maximum of $25 ed a boost of $1 for each year of service up to a miximum of $25 for those who retired on pre-inflation pensions.

$10 MONTHLY

Some in the group, retired before a new plan began April 1, 1957, were receiving as little as $10 a month. The modest increase will cost the city $21,588 this year with half of it being paid by surplus interest earnings in the superannuation fund.

Ald. J. L. W. McLean, who urged the increase to council, said it was a step in the right direction.

"We can easily see a piece of oroken pavement and have it fixed by our public works department," he commented.

"Sometimes, however, we overlook human need. I'm all for this increase and would support any way that could be found of increasing the amount further

Police Admit Knowing Goofballs Smuggled Into Vancouver Jail

VANCOUVER (CP)—Police said Sunday they have known for nearly two weeks that barbiturates were being smuggled to addicts in the Vancouver jail.

Officers said a note describing the smuggling technique was intercepted in the jail.

The statement followed a Vancouver Sun report that "goodbails" were being hauled through a jail window on a rope under the noses of police and in full view of passersby on Main Street, a downtown thoroughfare. (Goofballs are used as a substitute for narcotics.)

Asked what would be done about the smuggling, police chief Ralph Booth and acting deputy chief John Fisk refused to comment.

Maintenance officials said the smuggling will soon be stopped without police action because new screens are going to be installed on jail windows.

One officer said: "Those things (the barbiturates) are harmless. It's not really much different from smuggling in chocolate bars."

The newspaper said the smuggling operation worked this way:

The prisoner squeezed his arm through the wire mesh at a corridor window, and swung the rope, weighted with whatever was available over the roof of the West Coast Central Club next door.

When the rope reached the sidewalk on Main Street, an accomplice attached a small package to the end of the line and signalled with a shout or a whistle that it was ready to be hauled up.

Police said the Sun has yet to report their knowledge of smuggling incidents to the police.

Cars Crash At Curve: Eight Dead

QUESNEL (CP)—The death toll rose to eight today in a two-car collision that took the lies of six members of one family late Saturday night.

Otto Thompson, about 50, of Alexandria, B.C., died in hospital here today, about 36 hours after the high-speed crash killed six members of the James Paxton family and left two other Paxton children injured, one critically.

Thompson was run down by a car 20 minutes after the crash while directing traffic with a flashlight at the scene of the wreck.

The collision occurred on a curve of newly-paved highway without a white centre-line. Police said the highway at the crash scene, 8½ miles south of Quesnel, was black-topped two weeks ago but the dividing line hadn't been painted.

The Paxton family was returning from a family reunion when the collision claimed the lives of the mother and father and four of their children.

A mother and her two sons were also injured in the mishap which RCMP said was the worst on record in the British Columbia interior.

The victims are James Paxton, 29, his wife Eleanor, 25, their children, Judy, 7; Joseph, 5; Linda, 4, and Wendy, five months, and Alfred Joseph Carriere, about 30, of Alexandria, 25 miles south of here.

In critical condition is Patsy Paxton, 8, while her sister Cindy Lou, 2, was in satisfactory condition today.

Police said the Paxtons were returning to their home at Williams Lake, 65 miles south of here, when their car was in collision with Carriere's car.

Injured in the second car were Mrs. Myrtle Helbert of Alexandria and her sons, Keith, 8, and Darryl, 5.

Wreckage and bodies were strewn along the highway. The car which struck Thompson knocked a parked vehicle into the ditch, setting it on fire.

The Paxtons had been visiting Mrs. Paxton's mother near Quesnel where Mrs. Paxton was reunited with her sister, Mrs. Patricia Stanley, of Cloverdale, B.C.

"We had a wonderful time . . . talking over old times and just generally chatting," said Mrs. Stanley.

Civil Servants to Drive For Arbitration Rights

Unification of all federal civil servants and the right to negotiate with the government were given strong endorsement Saturday at a west coast conference of civil servants.

Seventy B.C. delegates met here as a prelude to the Civil Servants' Federation of Canada triennial convention to be held in Hamilton next month.

National president of the 85,000-member federation, Fred W. Whitehouse, was a speaker at the day-long session at DVA Hospital.

OPPOSED TO STRIKE

Delegates put on the record their opposition to strike, slowdown or any other form of protest over government inaction on wage increases.

The conference advocated further effort toward gaining the right of negotiation, plus binding arbitration by an independent body in the event of bargaining breakdown.

Delegates called deferment of recommended wage increases, that would have benefitted 50,000 civil servants in October, a double assessment on civil servants, already affected by the government's austerity program.

Victoria district council president Gordon Campbell said the most critical matter at the moment is joint action on behalf of the three major CS organizations—Civil Servants' Federation, Civil Service Association and Civil Service Professional Institute.

Representatives of these groups have been consulting government representatives on a joint basis for the past few weeks in connection with salaries.

This was the "first stage of unity—the most critical thing at the moment. It is unity, in effect, except that there is no common charter," Mr. Campbell said.

TO THE PUBLIC

He said he wanted to correct any misinterpretation of a statement made Saturday relating to proposed political action by civil servants.

"There is no threat in our minds of any irresponsible action," the local president said.

"To us political action is simply taking our story to the public, as is the right of any citizen."

Strike Action Isn't Practical

By JOHN E. BIRD

OTTAWA (CP)—Can federal civil servants go on strike to enforce demands for wage increases or other benefits?

The question came to the fore here after the government announced it was deferring action on salary increases for 50,000 of its 130,000 employees.

The answer from a practical point of view is no.

There's no law establishing strike procedure for federal government employees although there's no law prohibiting them from taking strike action.

Working conditions of federal government workers are governed by the provisions of the Civil Service Act. It contains no ban against strikes or provision for such action.

Recognized bargaining units of workers falling within federal jurisdiction are governed by the industrial relations and disputes investigation act.

This act makes provisions for legal strikes after certain conditions have been met. The workers involved in such strikes cannot lose their jobs or suffer other penalties.

EXCLUDED

However, federal civil servants are specifically excluded from the Federal Labor Act. Its provisions under which legal strikes may be staged do not apply to government workers.

Under the common law a civil servant—or any other worker—has the right to withdraw his services. But in taking such action he is not protected against dismissal by his employer.

Legal officials here say that if federal workers went on strike they would be exercising their common law right to withdraw their services.

They say the government likely would regard such action as a breach of a worker's contract or absenteeism without just cause. Employees involved could be suspended, dismissed or subjected to other penalties.

The three major civil service bodies—the Civil Service Association of Canada, the Civil Service Federation of Canada and the Professional Institute of the Civil Service of Canada—are opposed to any form of strike action by government employees.

Under the Civil Service Act, these organizations may consult with the government on wages and other working conditions. They have urged consistently that there should be provision in the act for arbitration with the decision of arbitrator binding on both employees and the government.

Spokesmen for the three organizations say this position has not been changed by the government's decision to defer consideration of salary increases.

"We are not seeking the right to strike," one official said. "All we want is a system of arbitration."

Controversial Poet, Biographer Aldington Dead

LERE, France (Reuters) — Richard Aldington, 70-year-old British novelist, poet and controversial biographer, died here Friday, it was learned Sunday.

Only his daughter Catherine, who was with him when he died at his lonely cottage in nearby Sury-en-Vaux, and a few friends were at the funeral Sunday.

Aldington first won fame as a novelist, but in recent years it was his biographies which kept him in the public eye.

When his biography of T. E. Lawrence — Lawrence of Arabia—was published seven years ago it raised a storm in Britain that has not yet died down.

Aldington claimed that many of the exploits that made Lawrence an international celebrity and literary hero after the First World War were products of Lawrence's imagination and his biography pictured Lawrence as a compulsive liar.
